Although Berdek will probably give the call for tomoton's clark to the temporary Varsity with which he has been stringsling since last Saturday, there is no telling when he may change his mind and switch the entire line and backfield without notice. It is likely that Lungren will call sprais and do the punting, although Bez has Pincuta, Rhimer and Gens in everye. This quartete of quitterbacks, although light in weight, is fast and brudy, each one capable of getting the most out of his team Light's relegation to the second team and the injury to Gray leave Berdels's first's without a punter of rote. Lungren, although able to get his punts away unburriedly, has not yet acquired the lanck of booting for distance and his locks average only before thought in play-clockion while lander fice, however, will most likely give him the call at the quarter back both of late, the most powerful offer-

Bill House, converted from a drivung guard to an unusually promising wingman, is precleafly a fixture at light end Weston, a junior, who was uncovered in mid-season list fall, is whost sure of his position at the other terminal. Nevertheless, MePine, who staited in the Lebanon Villey game in 1924, is pushing Weston hard for the position, and it is possible that Weston may be relieved by the Ohio boy Hayes, when was so noticeable in the game

Varsity letter-men are back from last year's squad. Captain Helman is slated to assume the responsibilities of left end and Metoven, also a veterian, will occupy the other terminal. Inside the wirgs are stationed Zerfass and Praisol, with Elbert and Ginguich holding the tackle berths and Wood the enapper-back position. Regigle, the quanterback who scored a field goal against Penn State last season, will direct the team, and Gibert and Singley, halves, and Fox, fullback, complete the Annyille rester
