

GEORGIA TECH ELEVEN DOWNS LION GRIDDEBS

Short bucks by Bergman and Danerfeld netted eight yards and a long end run by Lungren placed the pigskin on the 40-yard stripe, from which point several attempts through the line made little gain and Pincusa kicked to Georgia's 35-yard line.

Murray was thrown for a loss by Mahoney and Wycoff punted, Pincusa downing the ball on his 40-yard line as the quarter ended.

Second Period When two line plays failed to bring the necessary yardage, Pincusa kicked to Tech's 35-yard mark, where three plays failed to move ten yards and Tech punted. A luck by Pincusa, a gain and recovered fumble by Murray placed the ball on the Southern 40-yard line, from which place the wind carried Wycoff's long punt over the Nittany goal line.

Gray was substituted for Mahoney, and an exchange of punts placed the ball once more in Lion territory, on the 10-yard line. Lungren, Pincusa and Dingerfeld opened an offensive from there which carried the play to their 40-yard line, but here Gray punted after a loss by Lungren. The long punt sailed close to the Georgia goal line, the Tech safety carrying the ball over his line and out again, being downed at the 15-yard mark.

Wycoff got off a poor punt, Pincusa grounding the pigskin at twenty-five yards. As the half was closing the Nittany backs snapped through a like cross and Pincusa heaved the ball to Dingerfeld, who ran eighteen yards for the initial scene of the contest. Bergman added the extra point from placement.

Disastrous Kick Standing on his own 65-yard line after the Southern had kicked off, Gray endeavored to boot the ball out of danger. The kick was faulty, the ball flying high in the air and descending almost on top of the charging forwards. It was Tech's ball on the Penn State 25-yard line and in five rushes, Wycoff and Murray carried it over for a touchdown. Williams' try from placement was good and the score stood at seven all.

On the next kick-off, Wycoff centered on his 18-yard line and tore off forty-five yards up the field. A twenty-five yard penalty for clipping was inflicted on the Georgians, and the ball was brought back to their own 38-yard mark. The Nittany line held and Wycoff got off a sixty-five yard punt which sailed across the Blue and White goal line.

An exchange of punts placed the ball again on the Nittany 20-yard line and here the Lion began an offensive that threw the Blue and White section into an uproar. The Lions made three first downs in a row on a march of fifty yards, with Dingerfeld, Lungren and Pincusa carrying the ball. The Southern defense stiffened with the ball thirty-two yards from its goal, and Bergman tried a placement which fell short of the bar. Wycoff kicked as the quarter ended.

Final Period An intercepted forward pass started Tech on the way to its second touchdown. Lungren dropped the ball thrown by Pincusa on the play after the kickoff, and Williams snatched the ball as it fell from his fingers, failing to the ground in making the recovery. Starting from their own 35-yard line, Murray, Wycoff and Barron tore through the Nittany line as well, Murray getting live yards, Wycoff eighteen, Murray seven and Barron nine more through the same hole. Wycoff added thirteen more to two successive rushes and planted the ball on the Nittany 13-yard mark.

Murray plunged through center for six yards and Barron got two more. Murray carried the ball to the 2-yard line and Barron plunged through right guard for a touchdown, Williams failing to snare the extra point. Following the kickoff, Penn State failed to gain, was penalized for delay, and Gray kicked to Williams on Tech's eighteen yards. Wycoff returned the punt to the Lion 40-yard mark.

Here a failure to gain sent Gray back once more to kick, where the Nittany leader received a poor pass from center, Gray being tackled in his tracks, where only his skill in snatching the pass prevented another Tech touchdown. It was Georgia's ball on the Lion 30-yard line, short rushes by Barron and Wycoff carrying the pigskin to the 20-yard line, where Williams booted a pretty placement between the posts for the Southern's final tally. The game ended with the first play after kickoff, Penn State holding the ball on its own 20-yard mark.

Using the shift made famous by Johnny Heisman, Tech made practically every one of its gains from inside the tackles, only one pass being attempted. Unlike last year, however, the shift was both to the right and left, and forward. Although outplayed and outpointed by the Lions in the first half, the Southern displayed a remarkable rally, scoring three times with a swift and concentrated attack.
