CUSTOMS FOR FRESHMEN GO OFF SATURDAY NOON

ents for the annual u Arangements for the annual under class "Sand-bag Sciap" to be held Wednesdny afternoon at half past four on the New Beaver practice field were made by the class sciaps committee and endoised by Student Council at its regular meeting held Tuesday ening in the Liberal Arts Build irg. II D. Fritchinan '26, chairman of the committee, reported that underclassmen would in all probability be excused from physical education classes in order to participate in the contest.

excused from physical education classes in order to participate in the contest

As in the "Tie-up Strap," heats of fifty men from each class will line up at opposite ends, of the football field. At a given signal the men rush to the center of the field and fight for the possession of twenty-five cement bags filled with sand which are placed in a row with the necks alternating. The men attempt to drag the bags toward their respective goals, a point being awarded for every ten yards each sandbag is dragged from the middle of the field.

The Council decided to request the finance committee to set aside funds for the purchase of a new push-ball to be used in class scraps. The matter was tuned over to the Class Straps committee for attention.

In view of the general holiday atmosphere that will hang over Penn State on Pennsylvania Day, the council decided that freshmen shall be excused from all yearing customs (Continued on second page)

Once again does a Penn State cleven, grim in determination to reep griest rewards battle a foreign foe' a few which, in 1911, bearded the Lion in its new-found den for the first time. Facing eleven men from the colege which first administered a whipping to the Lion on New Beaver Treld, Penn State's stalwarts tomorrow encounter a resourceful and strategie combination from Michigan State on that same challe-lined turfinces. Once again West battles East in

State on that same chalk-lined turfin the annual Pennsylvaru Day gred fracas

Conch Bezdek fears the Aggreontest He has strengthened the Nitany line by restoring Captain frava to familiar ground at center and by inserting the fast and the etening McCann at tackle. Michalske, the rejuvenated lineman, remains at fullback and the plunging power of the Blue and White backfield is further increased by the addition of Pritchard, who will start tomorrow in Lungier's stead

Aggres Stage Comeback.

Turned back by Lake Forest in its opening engagement, humbled, 49-0, by the University of Michigan in its second game, the Aggre team went into the forests surrounding the Pennsular lake for a single week of practice, 'returned, fought and conjucted the valiant gradders of Centrologies by a scare of 15-1? The Aggres had found themselves.
