

Takes Leave of Absence.

Dr. Fred L. Pattee, author of several popular novels and treatises on American literature seeks health in Florida after a busy semester at Penn State. He will continue his literary work and research while in the south. During the coming summer he will teach at Columbia university, returning to Penn State in the fall.

DR. F. L. PATTEE

Among the novels from the pen of Dr. Pattee the one which is perhaps the most outstanding is "The House of the Black Ring" which has a local setting. At present Dr. Pattee is preparing a special edition of "Wisland," the first American novel written by Charles Brockden Brown.

FOUR SENIORS WILL RECEIVE COMMISSIONS AT GRADUATION

Lieutenant Colonel McLaughlin announces that second lieutenant commissions in the United States Infantry Reserve Corps will be awarded in February to the following seniors: W. C. Rowland, Jr., C. C. Siebert, F. E. Covey and Bruce Butler. The commissions are awarded after the completion of a four-year R. O. T. C. course consisting of two years basic and two years of advanced work.

ALUMNAE CLUBS FORMED

Three new branches of the Penn State Alumnae Club, at Philadelphia, New York and Detroit were formed last year with a branch at Pittsburgh, under way. The Detroit organization is the newest one, having nine members with Miss G. W. Chapman '22 for president.

The eleven members of the Greater New York Branch are distributed over an area of fifty miles, but they meet together with Miss Helen Powell '21 as president. At the time of the Georgia Tech football game the organization gave a luncheon for all visiting Penn State women.

Mrs. O. H. Green '21 is president of the Philadelphia club which has about fifteen members. They are sending out letters to all the Penn State women in that vicinity in an effort to increase the membership.

PROFESSORS ANDERSON AND MURPHY VISIT CONFERENCE

Professors C. R. Anderson and P. T. Murphy of the forestry department attended a three day conference of extension foresters at Washington, D. C. last week. Ways of assisting the farmer with his problems concerning farm woodlands was the main subject of the meeting. This question is of special importance to the farmers of Pennsylvania in view of the fact that they own one-third of all the timberland in the state and two-thirds of the timber.

PROFESSOR NEWINS TO HEAD FORESTRY SCHOOL

H. S. Newins, professor of wood utilization, has recently received an invitation from the Yale School of Forestry, of which he is a graduate, to take charge of the Yale Summer School Forest Camp at Milford, Pennsylvania. Professor Newins attended this camp, which was founded in 1900, during his undergraduate days. The board of trustees have granted him leave of absence for the summer months in order that he may accept the appointment as director of the camp.

PENN STATE GRANGE PLANS TO STAGE SERIES OF PLAYS

Plans to increase the membership and to stage a series of plays have been made by the Penn State Grange under the direction of the newly installed headmaster O. B. Rentschler '27. With only one third of the students eligible for the Grange, a goal of at least a third more has been set by the society.

The proceeds from a series of plays that the Grange will give will be used to aid in paying for a new gymnasium. More extensive plans for these plays will be made in the near future.

SPEAK TO ALUMNAE

Miss C. E. Ray, dean of women, left for Pittsburgh Friday to attend an organization meeting of the Pittsburgh Alumnae Association. Thirty girls attended a special organization luncheon which was held at the Fort Pitt hotel. Dean Ray and Judge H. Walton Mitchell, president of the board of trustees, were the principal speakers at this luncheon.

After the dance ... a pipe and P. A. WHEN you've kicked off the pumps and tossed the collar on the table, while the music is still singing in your brain and memories of one dancing deb in particular crowd your thoughts, fill your pipe with Prince Albert and light up. Make it a night of nights. P. A. is so genuinely friendly. It hits your smoke-spot in deep center right off the bat. Doesn't bite your tongue or parch your throat, because the Prince Albert process said "nix on the rough stuff" at the very beginning. Just cool contentment in every perfect puff. Don't put off till tomorrow what you can smoke today. Get a tidy red tin of P. A. now. Snap back the hinged lid and release that wonderful fragrance. Tamp a load into the bowl of your jimmy-pipe and light up. Now you've got it ... that taste. Say—isn't that the goods now? PRINCE ALBERT —no other tobacco is like it!
