 MIDSHIPMEN TOMORROW
 available candidate for this position, he may be sent in, rather than forfeiting the match.
 Wallace Ligeret has been given the 125-pound assignment, earned by his continued good work this season.
 Captain Walt Ligeret will be called on to represent the Blue and White in the thirty-five pound class. The Lion leader has shown his usual form this week although a shoulder injury has kept him from stiff workouts.

ACE OR LONG
 The task of selecting a forty-five pound contender has been difficult for Coach Leonard since both Long and Ace have been working on a par throughout the entire week. Packard will in all probability receive the 153-pound assignment as the bulky sophomore has outclassed all other contenders for this berth since the opening of the season.

WEDNESDAY'S CONTESTS
 In the lowest weight Jones, Phi Kappa Tau, threw Schaffer to send his team in front with a 6-0 lead. He employed a half-Nelson and crochhold. The thirty-pound class resulted in Gettig bringing the total to eight by procuring a time decision over Statler of Alpha Phi Sigma.
 Smith scored the initial points for Alpha Phi Sigma with a time decision over Ober. Dowd then clinched matters for Phi Kappa Tau and boosted the score to thirteen by downing Lightly with a hammerlock and body hold. In the final contest Adams of the losing Alpha Phi Sigma contin-gent threw Dickson of Phi Kappa Tau making the final score 13-8. Adams in an abbreviated contest, used a catch hold to secure his win.

NAVY STRONG
 Although the seven Midshipmen form a powerful combination they do not have the balance displayed by the Cornell matinee. Four veterans are included in the lineup of the Midshipmen and these form the nucleus for the team. Coach Schultz has developed Jonson will be the Admiral's choice for the 115-pound division and Captain Ligeret will have Crittenden, veteran, as his opponent.
 Dyson, veteran forty-five pounder, will add strength to the Navy combination, and his brother will represent the Midshipmen in the fifty-eight pound class. Lattie, mother vet who lost by a fall to Rumbergh last year will attempt to stage a comeback in the seventy-five pound class. Edwards with a record of eighteen consecutive victories will be Coach Schultz's selection in the unlimited division.

JACOBSON AND HAMAS OUT OF PLEBE LINE-UP Traveling to meet a worthy foe on a foreign court, the Penn State freshman cagers will receive one of the hardest tests of the season when they clash with the Syracuse plebe five in the Archibald gymnasium tomorrow evening in a preliminary to the various contests.
 Although the Orange yearlings have been handed several reverses during the season, Coach Killinger is not over-optimistic about the outcome of the tilt. The Colgate cubs, who defeated the Onondagans by a count of 10-18, are classed as one of the best first-year teams in the East, but little can be judged from the score.

HAMAS OUT
 Steve Hamas, stellar forward on the freshman five, failed to report for practice Tuesday evening because of an attack of la grippe. His condition last night makes his presence on the trip doubtful.
 Handicapped by the loss of one of the mainstays, the yearlings will have to display their best brand of basketball to win from the Salt City cagers Reinhold and Brownstein are being groomed for the vacant position, but it is still a toss-up as to which will take the floor at the opening whistle.
 Jacobson, capable substitute forward, has been declared ineligible for further freshman competition because he has completed two full sessions. Saylor has moved up a notch in the rating and may accompany the squad when it leaves at noon today.

 to play the brand of ball that won for him All-scholastic mention when he wore the colors of West Philadelphia high school, and he will lead his team from a guard position tomorrow. Wilson has earned the right to assume the other defense post against the Tangerines.
 Monahan, star of the Bellefonte academy game, has come to the fore with an assortment of shots hitherto unseen. Killinger is relying upon him to score heavily against the Orange yearlings. Reilly at center completes the plebe line-up.

GLUCKMAN, TOWERING CENTER FOR THE
 Onondagans, is the brains of the team.
 His direction of formations and speedy floor work have made him outstanding in every game in which he has participated. He shoots exceptionally well and is a dangerous defensive player.

 a fourth man to be selected from Davis, Filkins and Smith. The anchor man has not yet been chosen. With the exception of Torrence, none has had any indoor experience.
 Looming as a dark horse in the 70-yard high hurdles Crip Moore, who established a world's record of 8.3-5 seconds last year, will have to defeat Captain Ray Wolf of Pennsylvania State of Georgetown in conceding an equal chance with Moore. Lerch, Costello and Sharpe are also entered for the Lions.

CARD LION QUINTET FOR SECOND SYRACUSE TILT
 up by opposing Rakov and Lee of the foreign quint.
Lions Lost At Start Beginning with a rubeish ball by the impetuous defense of the Pennsylvanians, the Lions were unable to carry the ball under the hoop and had to resort to a distance attack. The Blue and White was able to gain but four field goals in the entire fracas, most of the scoring being done via the foul route.
 Penn began its scoring almost after the first tip-off and ran up the total to eight before the Centre County boys breached. A moment later the Lion scored its first but it was unable to reduce Penn's lead to fewer than eight points at any time during the fray.

Lungren Performs Well Lungren not only annexed the most points for the Nittany dribblers, but he played a stellar defense role Active and aggressive, the Peddie flash was all over the floor at the same time Page, substituting for MacDonald was next in order with four tallies. Von Neida and Roepke added a field goal and a foul each.
 Lindsay and Davenport proved the Victories by knockout blows, according to report. Beattie and Walling-ton, light and welterweights respectively, have tallied five victories each.

 Of these five, three were garnered by knockout, Hornsher, the 175-pounder, has rung up three scores with one kayo. Fritzsche, the contender for the unlimited honors, has entered the ring but twice and in each case sent his man to the resus.
 The tentative lineup for the Cadets will have Griffith in the bantamweight division against Gans. Ostermann, of Washington and Lee, securred a decision over the Army fifteen-pounder in three rounds two weeks ago. The quantity and quality of the punch that is packed by Calley is unknown and despite the fact that the Cadet featherweight was knocked out by Felsenthal of W. & L., Captain McClellan will likely find a stubborn fighter when he enters the squared circle tomorrow afternoon. Beattie, Lovell, Walling-ton, Hornisher and Fritzsche complete the list of contenders for laurels in the order named.

Stiff Training
 After trouncing the Notre Dame outfit last Saturday, the mitemen spent Monday evening in a light workout without any bouts. The following night Coach Houek put his proteges through grueling battles in preparation for the Army seven. Rags Madera came around to give the heavyweights a few pointers and spent most of his time in teaching Welko to use a straight left jab and showed him the proper aggressive attitude. Rags reported to the coach that Joe was beginning to limber up the powerful right which contains enough "sommna" for the entire team.
 Wilford, yearling thirty-five-pounder, took a whirl with McClellan and then yielded the ring to Matisko, whose rushing kept the Nittany captain on the lookout. Chandres had a practice bout with Filager, while Gans and Kolikoski, a promising 135-pound freshman, exchanged blows.
