Some misunderstanding occurred among the various fraternities and units with regard to credit in Physical Education for Intramural basketball. The lists of the men on the teams were to be turned into the Physical Education office at the start of the schedule each week that they are slated for a contest, credit was given for both periods in that week. This same ruling holds in the spring sports. The man in charge of the sports is responsible for seeing that a copy of the schedule appears in the Collegian each week or is turned into the office, so that proper credit may be given.

Seniors are requested to leave all suggestions for a class memorial at the COLLEGIAN office. Address to Jules Prevost, chairman of the committee.

A meeting of the fraternity and faculty representatives for the preliminary discussion of commencement exercises will be held tomorrow evening at seven o'clock in the Old Chapel.

Exam conflict cards are ready and may be obtained at the office of the Registrar.

Dean Wendt will give an illustrated lecture at a meeting of the Physics club in Old Chapel tonight at seven o'clock.

ity in passing and field-work until the last twenty minutes of the game when their increased fight resulted in the spectacular tally that tied the count two minutes before the allotted time ended.

After St. Stephens agreed to play an extra ten minutes the Blue and White combination displayed an attack that kept the play in enemy territory for the greater part of the period. While the visitors missed several shots, the Lions netted two goals to put them ahead, 4-2.

Penn State Scores First

The game opened from faceoff with fast passing and close scrimmaging. After the ball had been played in front of each goal several times and Belfield missed a score following a clever invasion of the St. Stephen's defense, Helbig tossed one from the midst of a tight scrimmage for a clean goal and Penn State's first tally. For the remainder of the first half no scores were registered by either team.

Although Belfield was deprived of a goal by the opposing net-tender, his stick and foot-work were instrumental in carrying the ball through the visitors' defense. The close guarding of the Lions, interception of shots by Pritchard and Shanks and bad passing by the St. Stephen's crossers kept the play before the enemy goal most of the time until the end of the period.

St. Stephens Takes Lead

After Coach Leonard had made substitutions in his offensive force to begin the second half, St. Stephens took the ball down the field from faceoff to net their first tally within the first minute of play. At this time the visitors unlashed a fast offensive play with clever, accurate passing. In the face of the attack, the Blue and White stickmen lost their fight, and their passing became loose and slow.

Following more fast work by the New Yorkers, Stevens broke through the Nittany guards to score the second counter for his team and put them ahead. With the enemy in the lead, Penn State began an offensive program that carried with it more spirit than organization.

Lions Tie Count

With two minutes to play, the Lions worked the ball down the field toward St. Stephen's goal. Helbig received a pass behind the net and swished it to Wendel who had cut in for a shot. The speedy attack, not having time to receive the pass, knocked the ball into the net to tie the score.

In the extra ten-minute period that followed, the Blue and White crosse-wielders netted two tallies. The first was from the stick of Geisewite. The second resulted from a long run, quick foot-work and clever net handling by Bready who passed to Captain Hackett. The Nittany leader netted the ball for Penn State's final tally.

The lineups were as follows:

Penn State		St. Stephen
Harkins	G	Urquhart
Gruver	P	Vreeland
Cook	C P	Kroul
Pritchard	1D	Wilson
House	2 D	Stevens
Welker	3 D	Mollman
Shanks	C	Millington
Belfield	1 A	De Lorm
Helbig	2 A	Gontell
Wendel	3 A	Weeks
Hackett	O H	Regan
Bready	I H	Stolp

Substitutions—Geisewite for Bready, Peterson for Pritchard, Maschal for Geisewite, McCandless for Belfield, Watson for Helbig. Referee—G. Craig Swarthmore. Time of halves—twenty-five minutes. Penalties—Penn State, Belfield, three minutes for slashing.

ed when Hemie Harris came through with a one base drive to center.

Hoagey could not locate first base in the sixth and two heaves from shortstop went wild, Penn State's sixth run counting. Hewitt reached second following the first bad toss and raced across the plate when Hoagey duplicated on Styborski's grounder. Spectacular catches by the right and left fielders cut off sure hits and prevented more runs in this inning.

Styborski Hits Home Run

When Hoagey committed his fifth fielding blunder he was shifted to the keystone sack, Bigley moving to short. The newcomer, on a throw to nail Greene, drew Clark off the bag with one down in the seventh. Wilson's second hit advanced Greene to second and the bases became crowded when Carl dropped Harris' third strike and then failed to throw to first. Schwartz scored Greene with a sacrifice fly to right.

Styborski accounted for the last Nittany tally when he propelled a powerful drive to left-center and trotted around the sacks in the ninth. It was Sty's second circuit clout of the season. Incidentally this was the only earned run gathered by the Lions.

A walk, Lungren's error and two singles brought in two Ursinus runs in the fifth. The sixth and seventh passed without a safety but in the eighth, a single, a base on balls and another one ply thump tallied the fourth run for the opposition. Jones, pinch-hitting for Clark, tripled in the ninth and scored when Lungren made his second error.

Harris executed around first base in able fashion, accepting seventeen chances without an error. Captain Wilson and Kent with two singles each starred at bat for the home team.

West Virginia Track Team Engages Lions

broad jump and Ide in the shot put and hammer throw, the Blue and White is unusually strong in the field, although capable pole vaulters to fill the places of Durborrow and Montgomery have not yet been found.

Prospects Bright

Not only will the meet with West Virginia serve to extend the Lions but it will be an index to Penn State's chances in the Intercollegiates May twenty-eighth at Cambridge, Massachusetts. Nate Cartmell expects little trouble from the Mountaineers and should the half-milers show unexpected possibilities, he will have less to fear from Navy or Pitt.

With Brierly, Torrence, Bartholomew, Karbach, Filkins, Kilmer, Mathias and Sands, if he is eligible, ready for the dash events, Penn State has an outstanding group of sprint men. The mile and two-mile runners, with Barclay, Stewart, Reis, Johnson, Brown, Smith and others, are exceptionally powerful.

Interscholastics

Entries are coming in at a record rate for the Interscholastics. Lock Haven, winner of the events last year, is again sending a strong squad. Coach Cartmell will referee the races. Last year nearly two hundred and fifty schoolboys from New York, Pennsylvania and New Jersey ran here.

IT HAD TO BE GOOD TO GET WHERE IT IS — 7 MILLION A DAY

Pick a pipe and pack it with good old P. A.

TALK about "alliteration's artful aid" . . . the printer certainly raided the "p" box that trip. But let that go! The advice is just as serious and sound as though it were couched in the careful diction of an English prof.

Just get yourself a jimmy-pipe and fill the bowl to the brim with Prince Albert. Light up, and let the first fragrant whiff tell you that no other tobacco is like P. A.—or can be! Cool and sweet and fragrant, P. A. has everything a fellow ever wished for in a smoke.

P. A. can't bite your tongue or parch your throat. The Prince Albert process settled that in P. A.'s freshman year. Get yourself a tidy red tin of Prince Albert today. The first load-up will tell you why pipes are so fashionable among young men today.

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, pound and half-pound tin humidors, and pound crystal glass humidors with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of bite and parch removed by the Prince Albert process.
