

EX-GOVERNOR TENER MAY APPEAR HERE

Billed For Talk In Bellefonte Monday—State College Date Uncertain

PEPPER CANCELS LOCAL SPEAKING ENGAGEMENT

A possibility that ex-Governor I. K. Tener gubernatorial candidate in the 1926 campaign, may appear here to speak to the citizens of State College Monday, was seen following an announcement yesterday by the Keystone Gazette that he is booked for a speaking engagement in Bellefonte at ten o'clock Monday morning.

At a late hour yesterday it could not be definitely ascertained whether or not the ex-Governor would make the trip to State College. At the present time Mr. Tener is campaigning in the western portion of Pennsylvania and an outline of his plans for the coming week were not disclosed.

Pepper Cancels Engagement Here When he was unexpectedly called to the East, Senator George Whinton Pepper was forced to cancel all his speaking engagements throughout central Pennsylvania for the present time. Senator Pepper was scheduled to arrive in State College Tuesday as part of his stump campaign, but the unexpected message from Philadelphia caused a cancellation of the engagement.

Coming on another political wave was the rumor, too, that Mrs. Gifford Pinchot, wife of the present governor, would be here Wednesday to campaign for her husband in the latter's endeavors for the senatorship. Mrs. Pinchot has been stumping the State in assisting her husband and it was announced from unofficial sources that she intends to visit State College next week.

Seniors Elect Honor Men—Adopt Lion Suits

(Continued from first page) The student committee on Move-up Day met with the approval of the class and was carried. H. W. Cohen, chairman of the committee, described the proposed senior garb and was appointed to take care of the distribution of the suits.

The Lion Suits will be made of some durable white material and will be priced at two dollars. They will consist of overall style trousers and jackets. The suits will be stamped with a blue lion stamped on the back of each. A supply of stock sizes will probably be received Monday. Distribution will be made with one of the popular clothing stores as a center.

Seniors will be fitted in stock sizes, and if the supply falls short other orders will be placed. As each suit is purchased it will be stamped with a blue lion. Members of the graduating class are urged to report to be outfitted at an early date.

La Vie On Sale C. E. Megargel, business manager of the La Vie, announced that copies of the year book can be secured for four dollars upon application to him. R. T. Kriebel urged on behalf of the Caps and Gowns committee that there be whole-hearted response to the bids for measurement appointments, which he expects to mail next week.

Trustees Decide On Graduation Program

Players showing "The Boomerang" is billed for Friday, June eleventh and the "Thespians" "The Kid Himself" will go on the boards the next evening. Meeting in the President's office Friday, the Board of Trustees will elect new members to the Board. The Alumni Council meeting and banquet is at five o'clock in the evening while the class banquet and reunion is at six.

The Reverend Maitland Alexander of Pittsburgh will deliver the Baccalaureate sermon Sunday morning at ten-thirty o'clock. In the afternoon the College band will entertain on the front campus. Preceding an evening concert at eight-thirty o'clock will be the Vesper services in the open air theatre.

Alumni Day Program Monday, Alumni Day, will be occupied by alumni conferences, senior class day exercises and the annual meeting of the Alumni Association in the Auditorium. Many events are promised for that day. There will be included class stunts, the parade of the classes to New Beaver field, the special track events and the evening reception for returning Penn State men in the Armory.

The musical clubs will give a recital at eight o'clock in the Auditorium and at nine o'clock the reception in the Armory will start. Alumni faculty, seniors, juniors and guests are invited. The Commencement Ball will be held from ten o'clock in the evening until two o'clock in the Armory.

Closing the exercises Tuesday, Commencement Day, will be the procession from McAllister Hall to the front campus and the awarding of diplomas at ten-thirty in the morning. In case of rain the exercises will be held in the Auditorium.

Bucknell Plebes Stop Yearling Nine By 13-3

They were turned in by the entire team, but the majority were undisciplined and accounted for no runs. Ten men fanned on the trick offerings of Haheli, who pitched for the Bucknell yearlings.

J. Hadley accounted for the first freshman score in the second inning and Monahan brought in the other two tallies in the third and fifth. Wolf was instrumental in sending his team-mate across the plate. Bucknell distributed the score throughout eight innings and scored at least one run in each period. The heaviest scoring was done in the seventh and eighth innings when the Lewisburg yearlings increased their total by six runs.

Leo is still troubled with an uncertain mound staff. Schickowski started the Bucknell encounter but was taken out in the seventh inning of the fray to make way for Decker. Neither of the tossers registered a strike-out. Grow replaced Benedict at shortstop in the seventh inning while Buchanan batted for Dobbela in the ninth.

BUMS' UNION CONVENES ON CAMPUS TOMORROW

All Freshmen Eligible But Must Wear Sufficient Clothing Or Pay Penalty

Hoboes from all Pennsylvania and neighboring states will appear on the campus tomorrow in various stages of respectability when the yearlings observe Penn State's annual Poverty Day.

Every member of the class of 1929 is eligible for membership in the Bums' Union, and each is expected to affiliate. Costumes for the day must express to a certain degree the poverty prevalent among tramps, anarchists and other social lights.

Freshmen are required to don their tattered vestments at eight o'clock tomorrow morning and to wear them until five in the afternoon or until the conclusion of the Navy-Penn State baseball game. Too daring dresses will be punished by Tribunal action.

Prizes will be awarded to the best exponents of utter insolvency, at the conclusion of a parade to be arranged before the baseball game. A committee of artists will judge the "ragdolls" of the first-year men.

243 Cases Treated By Health Service

Penn State students missed 3388 hours of class work because of sickness and injuries during the month of April, according to the report of the Health Department submitted by Dr. Ritenour yesterday.

Dr. Ritenour also states in this month's report that there were 735 visits to the Infirmary, 247 new conditions treated, 92 old conditions treated, 229 excuses granted, and 20 bed patients.

Throughout the past year the College Health Service has been very successful in administering to the medical needs of the students. During the winter Dr. Ritenour treated several serious cases, including three pneumonia patients.

Underclassmen To Mingle At Smoker

The next to last event will be a set of songs by W. C. Bowie '29, accompanied by Sherwood Smith '29. He will sing "Lost by the Side of the Road" by Clark; "Change O' Mind" by Curran, and "Me and Mah Partner" by Stieckland. As a final number P. J. Farley '29 and Louis Zaconick '29, two members of the Thespians, will do a special dance act. The committee's statement Wednesday follows.

"Coming as a climax to the Spirit Week activities, this smoker, it is hoped, will become an annual event and will be used to bind together the two rival classes in spirit of friendship which would be practically impossible to do by any other means."
