

YEARLING BOOTERS DRILL FOR VARSITY SCRIMMAGE

Valuable Material Evidenced in Freshman Squad—Eisenhuth Coaches New Men

More than thirty aspirants for the freshman soccer squad have been practicing daily on the Army drill field for the past two weeks. Although no regular games have been scheduled for the plebes during the fall, J. L. Eisenhuth '27, has been running them through booting and passing practices in preparation for scrimmages with the Varsity.

During the practice games between two freshman teams several of the new men displayed unusual speed and accuracy in kicking and heading. The real quality of the yearling combination was not tested, however, until I met the Varsity in scrimmage.

Freshmen Score

In the first contest the freshmen held the regulars to four goals, scoring one themselves. The second meeting of the plebes and Varsity last Saturday found conditions the same, the former netting one goal against four for the latter.

Although the Varsity forward line is weak in its pre-season form, the plebe backfield showed unusual defensive power in scrimmage.

Among the freshmen displaying the most experience on the field are Allan and Haavey, fullbacks, Edgerton, center-half, and Jones, center forward. All these booters were prepared at Westtown Friends' school where they started for the soccer team of that institution.

According to Coach Jeffries, who has seen the freshmen in action against the Varsity, much good material will be furnished for next year's team.

BAND CALLS CANDIDATES

Because of Stunt Night freshmen candidates for the band were unable to appear for trials Wednesday. Another meeting is scheduled for tomorrow night in Room 437 Old Main at which all candidates are to be present.

Coal Company Seeks Penn State Miners

That Penn State mining graduates are appreciated is evidenced by the fact that on October twenty-third the general manager of a large coal corporation will visit the School of Mines to observe the senior mining engineers. Company officials usually wait until spring to look for new men and it speaks well for Penn State's mining school that their men are shown preference.
