Lions Grim on Eve of Notre Dame Struggle

with Elmer Wynne at fullback. This trio with Flanagan tips the beam at a one hundred and sixty-four pounds average Edwards will do the punting tomorrow.

Irish Line Heavy
From tackle to tackle the Notre Dame line averages one hundred and eighty-nine pounds. Bud Boeringer, veteran center, will be flanked by Smith and Mayer. McManmon, right tackle, weighs over two hundred and is a bulwark of strength, while Miller, his running mate, is powerful but not experienced.

The Voedsich and Johnny Wallace have been selected to care for the fringes of the line, Rockne's biggest problem. The entire eleven is fast and aggressive, but there is a dearth of first-class reserve material in the backfield.

The usual shifts and deceptive attack plays will be used in an effort to subdue the Nittany Lion. The actual attack of the Irish is as yet potential.

Varsity Improves
Through muck and mire the varsity squad fought under the arcs of New Beaver this week in preparation for the first big tilt of the season, and its efforts did not go unrewarded.

Far as it is from gridiron finesse, the 1926 team is a team of scrappers who will battle every inch of the way with Rockne's proteges. No team can do more.
Cy Lungren will pilot the team from the quarterback post and will do most of the kicking and passing. Harrington and Hamas are Bezdek's choices for the halfback posts, while Bill Pritchard will be stationed at fullback at the opening whistle.

Cowboy Greene, Ding Dangeifield, Al Wolff, Pineira and Hewitt will be held in reserve but will probably be injected into the battle in its later stages.

Lesko has earned the starting honor at right end, but Curry has supplanted Faulkner at the left. Terminal Greenshields and Mune will fill the tackle berths with Bergman and Falk to substitute if needed, while Krall and Hastings appear to be fixtures at the guard posts.

Roger Mahoney is fast developing into a clever wet ball passer as well as a defensive center without a peer in the Lion camp. He will play the pivot position tomorrow, although Johnny Reed may break into the name Captain Weston, Darraugh, Livermore, Kerr and Roseberry will be included among the Nittany substitutes.

Study Notre Dame Style
Lully Conover's third team, organized to ape the Notre Dame style of play for the benefit of the Varsity, was pressed into service Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons in hard scrimmage sessions.

The Lions went through a series of conditioning sprints and line scrimmages during the early part of the week and on Thursday ran through a light signal drill.

The squad arrived in Plymouth, thirty miles from Notre Dame, this morning at six-thirty o'clock and took cars to Culver, where breakfast was served. Brief drills will be in order both this morning and this afternoon.

COLLEGE MAIL COURSES SERVE 7000 TEACHERS

Japan Is Farthest Class While Pittsburgh Has Thousand Students Enrolled

"If you can't come to college, the college will come to you" reads the advertising poster of the Educational Extension department. More than seven thousand teachers have taken advantage of this opportunity throughout past years and this year an increase in the enrollment has already been noted.

Classes are in operation in more than fifty centers, that in Pittsburgh being the largest with more than a thousand students. Even in Japan are courses being studied through correspondence.

Academic Courses
However, there is a distinct advance in academic as well as professional courses. Among the newer subjects is a course on "Current Tendencies in American Public Education," which is a substitute for the Teachers' Institute in the Kingston, Lewistown, Tyrone, Hollidaysburg and Windber units.

The increased enrollment has brought with it the appointment of several new full-time members of the staff of instructors. Professor O. C. Williams has been added to the Harrisburg office and H. E. Dewey to the Erie unit. The Altoona institute has been augmented by the appointment of Misses Kate Sherrard and Dorothy Augustina.

Another change in the Harrisburg headquarters is in the location of the office which was formerly in the State Chamber of Commerce building. This unit, under the direction of Prof. P. A. Mertz, is now located in the same building that houses the Pennsylvania State Educational association at 400 North Third street.

Chess Club Arranges Eight-match Schedule

Eight matches have been scheduled for the Chess Club. This includes two with the faculty, two with the Williamsport Y. M. C. A. team, two with the Tyrone Y. M. C. A. team and two with the Bucknell university team. The dates of the meets have not been decided upon but the first will be with the faculty.

The two Y. M. C. A. teams appearing on the schedule are composed of mature men and are rated above college teams.
Men left from last year's team are L. R. Fotts '27, president; J. R. Musser '27, R. H. Adams '28, and L. F. Nathanson '29. The Club meets for the first time Thursday night at eight o'clock and all students playing the game are asked to report. An elimination tournament will be held next month.

Altoona To Open Lion Soccer Schedule Here

these is Captain Reid who plays center halfback and is the mainstay of the backfield. The two fullbacks, Wilkie and Sherriff, get off some long kicks which are helpful in keeping the ball out of their territory.

On the line are Reekie and Brady who play inside right and left respectively. These two booters, with the other linemen, compose a fast, clever group of forwards who will make strong bids for goals. Marshall is dependable between the posts. Before Coach Jeffries came to Penn State this season he occupied the inside left position on the Altoona team and also acted as manager.

Since the beginning of practice sessions, the Blue and White mentor has been shifting his men around in order to have a well-balanced outfit and a fast, accurate and aggressive line. After trying several men in the center forward position, he finally has placed Captain Lippincott. Although Lippincott has had little experience in forward, during drill the last three nights he has shown the fight necessary for that post. Glaser will likely play in Lippincott's place at left halfback.

Although Coach Jeffries is pleased with the form of his men and is confident of a win over his old teammates he believes that the Altoona combination, with its greater experience and knowledge of the game, will put up one of its best attacks the Lion booters will oppose this season.

PENN STATE HENS AID IN PREVENTING SERIOUS EGG SHORTAGE IN INDIA

In response to a call for help, the department of Poultry Husbandry in November, 1925, sent a pen of forty-one Single Comb White Leghorns to the Mission Farm, Etah, India. This pen consisted of 36 females and 5 males. After a 60-day voyage via automobile, train, ship and finally on camels and the backs of men, all of the birds arrived at their destination in good condition.

These birds were sent to India for the purpose of bettering the economic condition of the lowest social castes. The chicken was selected as the means for this economic uplift for two reasons: first, for her well-known efficiency, and second, because the natives have no religious scruples against her demise as is true regarding some other forms of livestock. An illustration of the effectiveness of the dissemination of the stock is found in a report of the 1926 Poultry Show recently held in Etah, India. Of the total of 1012 birds exhibited more than three hundred were straight progeny of the Penn State Leghorns.

Ridgeway and Craig fill the half and fullback berths.
Balmer and Martin, ends, and Ricker and Pannacion, tackles, make up the flanks. Eshback, who was replaced by Reynolds, and Zulurinsky have the guard posts and Shuler as snapper-back completes the tentative team.

Others who are likely to leave with the first team this morning are Faulk and Davis, ends, Yeom and the bulky McDonald, tackles, Weiland and Snyder or Reynolds, guards, and Cunningham, center. Gettings, quarterback, with Struble, right half, and Weber, fullback, make up the utility outfit.

Seminary Prepares Revenge
Because of the Penn State plebe victory over Wyoming Seminary in 1924 by one touchdown and the battle to a scoreless tie last season, Coach Bruce is ready to take revenge tomorrow, according to reports from Wilkes-Barre.

Although four of his regulars were hurt in the encounter with the Syracuse freshmen last Saturday, in which the toe of Brominsky added a 5-0 victory, it is probable that all but Gros-wich will be back.

Coach Bruce will start Reese and Lochr, ends, Gately and Williams, tackles, Baltz and Kelley, guards and Barber in the center position. Harvko's injured foot may be well enough to allow him to start as quarterback with Captain Bodle and Teller, halves, and Brominski, the triple threat man at full.

Bradley, Robbins, Chukneski and Murphy also may see action. The Lion freshmen will elect a captain before the game tomorrow.
