

WOMEN

FOR PENN STATE

Any organization is as strong as the spirit that moves it and the quality of the spirit determines the value of the organization. If the spirit is weak and the quality thin how lifeless the society! A little more than a year ago the Town Girls' Club represented the latter extreme and today the organization has within its reach the means and opportunity of becoming a strong and serviceful power among the women of Penn State.

With almost half the girls in college living off the campus the Town Girls' organization has before it the problem of creating among two hundred women with miscellaneous interests a spirit of comradeship based on one thing which can unite them all, a mutual love for Penn State.

A large factor in making possible the accomplishment of this end is the recognition of the needs of the town girls by Women's Student Government in the budget for this year. This recognition means a new spirit of co-operation between town and campus girls; and for the Town Girls' Club, a dignity it has not enjoyed heretofore, a new responsibility for meeting the needs of a large group of girls, and finally an opportunity to create an enduring Penn State Spirit, an unbiased interest in the well-being of the College.

Our principle caution is one of wisdom in spending such unprecedented wealth as now fills the town girls' treasury can make it express, and let her come to love Penn State because she has a share in it.

Tennis Match Delayed By Inclement Weather

The women's tennis tournament, like many other outdoor sports, has been greatly checked this season because the weather has been so unsettled. Six sets of the first series and one set between Miss J. T. Lees '20 and Miss S. K. Motter '20 of the second series, Miss Motter winning.

Miss A. M. Downing '28, manager, requests that the remaining sets be played by Saturday, November sixth. The following sets are to be played, and unless they are complete by the date set, forfeiting the right of competing for the championship will be necessary. C. Foster vs. H. Gould, E.

New Resident at Practice House Is Smallest and Laziest Man in College

Long walls pierced every brick and stone in Hillcrest, practice house of the Penn State Home Economics co-eds. These walls were followed by short sobs and finally by complete silence as the new baby submitted to his daily 5 o'clock bath.

Kenneth, otherwise called Andy Gump because he has practically no chin, is the newly-acquired and youngest member of the family at Hillcrest. Being only five weeks old, he is a small, homely bit of humanity with the tiniest of hands and feet, and a few brown hairs rising from his head in true Kewpie fashion.

Andy has no ambitions. He doesn't bother his head with classes or philosophy as his newspaper godfather does, or even with toys as he will when he is older. Most of the time he sleeps, tied up in a sack-like gown, peacefully ignoring the world

COMPLETE LINE-UP OF HOCKEY TEAMS POSTED

Coch Haidt Predicts Record Season—Class Uniforms Adopted By Teams

Several balmy fall days have finally made possible regular hockey practice on Holmes Field. After a short period of hard drilling Coach Marie Haidt, assisted by managers Frank and Robinson and the four class team managers, succeeded in making a careful selection of the various players for each class team.

Freshmen and sophomore candidates have shown such enthusiasm and excellent playing that the naming of the different positions for both teams was extremely difficult. However, Coach Haidt feels that the team line-ups are satisfactory and the choice was based entirely on the ability of the player.

The following line-up for the four class teams has been announced:

Class	Positions	Names
Seniors	Goal	MacIntyre
	Defense	Grubbs, L. J., Robertson, Baker, Gendron, Schantz, Math, Frank, Bulluck, Dunsing, Haulick, Fousmore
	Forwards	Substitutes: Charman, Fern, David, Sophomores: Letzell, Waldron, Gould, Fanning, Hudnall, Reuter, Clark, Gravatt, Sherman, Horman, Oarfinson, Substitutes: Falcone, Summ, Wasson
	Goal	Lea
	Defense	MacIntyre, Grubbs, Robertson, Baker, Gendron, Schantz, Math, Frank, Bulluck, Dunsing, Haulick, Fousmore
	Forwards	Substitutes: Charman, Fern, David, Sophomores: Letzell, Waldron, Gould, Fanning, Hudnall, Reuter, Clark, Gravatt, Sherman, Horman, Oarfinson, Substitutes: Falcone, Summ, Wasson
	Goal	Lea
	Defense	MacIntyre, Grubbs, Robertson, Baker, Gendron, Schantz, Math, Frank, Bulluck, Dunsing, Haulick, Fousmore
	Forwards	Substitutes: Charman, Fern, David, Sophomores: Letzell, Waldron, Gould, Fanning, Hudnall, Reuter, Clark, Gravatt, Sherman, Horman, Oarfinson, Substitutes: Falcone, Summ, Wasson
	Goal	Lea

This is the first season that inter-class games could be coached successfully because of the gay colored jackets worn by the class teams. There is no possible chance of confusing the scarlet clad seniors with the purple garbed juniors, or the bright gold of the sophomores with the unsophisticated green of the freshmen. If the weather continues favorable, according to Miss Haidt, this season promises to be the best in the history of field hockey for the women of Penn State.

Gravatt vs. P. Hudnall and M. Reed vs. M. Wheeler. The award for the championship will be a silver cup.

Miss E. R. Frank '27 Is First Woman President Heading Kappa Delta Pi

Miss E. R. Frank '27, elected president of Kappa Delta Pi last spring, is the first woman to hold that office on this campus since the installation of the fraternity here in 1925. Miss Frank will preside over the first meeting of the year which will be held at seven-thirty o'clock Wednesday evening in Women's Building.

With the help of Professor B. V. Moore the committee in charge has arranged a program including a speech by Dean W. G. Chamberlain of the School of Education and a demonstration of mind-reading by Dr. J. E. DeCamp and Dr. B. W. Dady. Card tricks and other more intricate performances constitute the repertoire of these two professors of psychology.

Fire Insurance Eugene H. Lederer

It is a safe guess that he gets more to eat than the Mac Hall co-eds and more sleep than a C and F student. In fact, he is the smallest and laziest man in College, according to the other members of the practice-house family.
