distance to the goal line for holding or the Lion offense might have been frustrated.

Don Greenshields, husky tackle, whose work on Franklin Field against Pennsylvania stamped him as one of the best tackles in the East, continued his stellar play against the Orange gridders Saturday. The rest of the line also functioned smoothly and presented an impenetrable defense. Hastings and Krall interfered effectively, while Mahoney's passing showed a marked improvement. Flak, Captain Weston, and Delp played their usual game, although the terminals were far from clever down field.

Bucknell pinned her hopes on the stalwart shoulders of Diehl, versatile fullback. His defensive play was of high caliber. Offensively he was the only consistent back in the Orange quartet, although McCleary slipped away for several timely sprints. Trimmer stood out among his fellows in the line.

No less than six times the Blue and White gridders lined up for a field goal attempt, but only one of the boots was successful. Pritchard missed from the forty and forty-five yard marks, while Roepke miscued on forty-five, thirty-five and twenty yard attempts. In the third period, Roepke located the uprights with a well-directed placement from the thirty-eight yard area.

Trimmer kicked off to Roepke on his five yard line. The blond half-back raced back to his twenty-five yard line. Two five yard penalties against Bucknell gave the Lions their initial first down. Pritchard cracked center and continued to midfield, but the Bisons braced and Roepke booted to Quinn on his twenty yard mark.

McCleary raced around right end for sixteen yards. Bucknell was set back five and Lungren knocked down Diehl's pass to Trimmer. Diehl kicked to Cy, who sprinted fifteen yards to midfield. Another off-sides penalty against the Bisons and a ten-yard spurt by Roepke carried the ball to the thirty-five yard mark. Pritchard hit tackle for five, but the Lions were penalized fifteen yards for holding. A pass, Roepke to Lungren, gained twelve yards.

Roepke attempted a placement but it was blocked. Penn State recovered on the twenty-five yard mark. A delayed pass, Roepke to Lungren, netted fourteen yards, but the Bisons checked the Lion advance. Roepke's second placement attempt sailed wide of the uprights.

Pritchard and Roepke worked the ball from the Blue and White thirty yards to the Bucknell forty yards. A pass by Pincura was intercepted by Diehl, but on the first play Quinn fumbled and Pritchard recovered. Roepke's thirty yard sprint was followed by three unsuccessful plays before Pritchard shot over the line. Roepke's placement for extra point was wide. The remainder of the second quarter was profitless.

Roepke opened the second half by snaring Trimmer's kick-off in his three-yard line and returning it past midfield. Only one man remained between him and the goal. A halted attack gained new impetus when Bucknell was penalized fifteen yards. Pritchard missed two placements within a few minutes, but Roepke finally booted the ball over the crossbar. Lungren duplicated Roepke's performance by returning Trimmer's kick-off more than fifty yards, but the ball was recalled and Penn State penalized to the three-yard line for holding. Roepke kicked out of danger and the Lions checked Bucknell.

Cy fumbled a forty-five yard pass from Roepke in the fourth quarter, while Trimmer dropped a pass of equal length from Diehl. A placement by Roepke was blocked and Bucknell recovered in midfield. Diehl made fifteen yards on three successive plays, but Greenshields nailed him for a thirteen-yard loss on an attempted pass. The ball was in the possession of the Lions in midfield when the game ended.

Navy Falls Before Booters by 5-1 Count

ing of boots. With the insecure footing, these rushes caused numerous spills that made play on both sides rough and resulted in six free kicks being called against the visitors.

Only twice did Navy get the ball near the Blue and White goal. The first time accounted for the visitor's lone score when McRoberts booted a clean shot from scrimmage on the five yard line. The second kick was knocked out by Semisch, Nittany goalie. Other goal kicks of the opposing forwards were wild.

A few minutes after the kick-off Serry netted the first Penn State counter on a free kick from the twenty yard line. The second Nittany tally was "contributed" by Hegeman of Navy. Pecori's corner kick to the uprights glanced from the head of opposing fullback, who attempted to clear the leather, into the goal. The last three goals went through the uprights via the toes of Griffin, Bell and Marshall, respectively.

Free Kick Scored
Play opened when Navy kicked off. Scrimmage went to the visitors' net where the referee awarded Serry a free boot from the twenty yard line. The Penn State left-winger counted on a powerful drive into the corner of the net. The Nittany booters then kicked off to have the ball intercepted and carried through their own backs. When the Navy forwards booted wild the Blue and White goal was cleared only to have the midshipmen return the ball, McRoberts scoring from close scrimmage.

From the next kick-off the Penn State forwards took the play down the left wing of the field only to miss a boot. Play then centered around the enemy net until the goal was cleared and returned to Penn State's net. A corner kick by Navy was headed out by the Lion backs. From then until the end of the first half the ball was in play in enemy territory. A few minutes before the close of the second period Hegeman, Navy back, headed in Pecori's corner boot to tally for the Blue and White.

In the second half the Lions continued their aggressiveness and kept their goal out of danger. The third counter came when Griffin booted Pecori's pass between the uprights. Although Penn State was given several free boots in this period the setups were too distant from the goal to tally.

Lippincott Clears Goal
A few minutes after Navy kicked off to open the last quarter Bell drove the leather through the visiting backfield to count for the Blue and White's fourth goal. Following this tally the middies flashed an offensive attack that carried the ball into Penn State territory and threatened the Nittany goal. After several spills near the net a Navy corner kick was headed out by Captain Lippincott and the goal cleared.

Penn State's final goal was scored by Marshall who booted from the side of the net. The ball landed against the upright but rebounded for a counter, making the score 5-1, Penn State.
