GUESS WHO?

GUESS WHO?

'Will the gentlemen with the cracked tunny bone please step forward and leceive the prize—a blue and white lattle—in our college colors—for pulling again one of the oldest and cudest jokes heard annually on the Penn State campus. Honestly, don't you ever get tired of yourselves? We do, and know others of the same opinion

A child of our acquaintance suspected her brother of swearing, and in spite of his demals, tood him that he was mean, vile low, lough, tough, crude, and cidnary. We would prefer not to apply this to you; you is not our brothers, thank heaven. Now say that the pleasure is mutual; we know it. You leave is slight room for mere suspicion, however, trunks, maturesses, spings, bedding, and leothing were all sufficiently obvious when placed on the doorstep of the Women's building last Friday evening.

Just keep your playthings at home, boys, and see how it feels to be gentlemen for a change. Paudon us if our tongue is shaip Boing women, we can't use our sits.

PAYING THE PIPER

Town Girls Arranging For Christmas Dance

"If you would dance, pay your dues," is the edict issued by the president of the town Gris' Club in reference to the Christmas dance of that organization, to be held December tenth at the Phi Kappa Psi house. There will be no admission fee charged for the dance, the only requirement being that the gril has paid her dues for this semester. This is made possible through the recognition accorded the club by the W. S. G. A. in its budget. To eliminate any unfarmess, it has been decided to admit only paid members. The dues, fifty-cents, are payable to Miss. D. E. Kistler '29, Miss G. L. Fisher '28, or Miss. M. M. Edniston. '29
