GET THE HABIT

Of stopping in at Graham's these cold days and take some of our heat with you. It's fine.

Notices

Chapel exercises for the current semester will end with the service on Sunday, January thirtieth. They will be resumed with the service on Sunday, February thirteenth. There will be no week-day services during the first week of the semester.

The Mandolin Club will rehearse tonight at seven o'clock in the Band Room.

All candidates for the fencing squad will report to the Armory today at four-thirty o'clock to arrange the second semester schedule.

WPSC, college radio station, will broadcast a special early morning program of dance music tonight by the Penn State Collegians one hour after midnight.

The Dairy Science Association will meet Monday night at seven o'clock. Mr. A. J. Glover, editor of Harvard's Dairyman, will be the principal speaker.

ALL SENIORS who are finishing their Chapel requirement this semester are requested to be present at the last week-day services of the semester—on either Wednesday or Thursday, January twenty-sixth or twenty-seventh. Seniors who ordinarily are excused from week-day Chapel for work are requested to be present, if convenient.

Varsity Quintet Meets Gettysburg Tomorrow

(Continued from first page) the visitors in early December, 31-27, Lut Wood's proteges last week defeated Franklin and Marshall at Lancaster. P. and M. evened the score at Gettysburg Saturday with a 38-24 victory and Mt. St. Mary's eked out a 22-21 decision Tuesday.

For the third time in as many games a different line-up will start the game for Penn State. Reilly, because of his ability to get the tap, will start his first Varsity game at center with Lefty Page held in reserve. Johnny Roopke will pair off with Captain Hamas and Cy Lungren and Whitey Von Nieda will covort at guard. George Delp, handicapped at the start by a weak ankle, has been coming along well and may see service along with Baron.

While admitting that the team was displaying a better brand of basketball than was the case last week, Coach Hermann refused to radiate any genuine optimism. He is, however, making no secret of the fact that he is out for blood against the team that surprised the Lions with a 39-28 win here last season.

Dick Reinhold, a sophomore, has been displaying such prowess in workouts for the past ten days that he has been rewarded with a varsity uniform. With Steve Hamas, Reinhold will await the call for substitution tomorrow.

Mitmen Display Power During Daily Workouts

Robb, a well built welterweight with a faculty for landing sharp right hooks and uppercuts where they hurt most, will give Captain Grazier plenty of exercise. For that matter Bendick will too. He seems to be impossible to hurt. Several times Robb shot over a right hand uppercut that had knock out written all over it, to Bendick's face, and the blow just rolled off.

The fight for the 115-pound berth is going to be a merry one, especially when Bevan and Mahon get together. Mahon ran into the freshman, Elbe, Wednesday and both had a milling time of it. Elbe has an aptitude for tucking his head inside of his left elbow and hitting very hard with both hands, while Mahon's long reach and snappy leads are well known after his work with the freshman team of last year.

To all men who make a hobby of pipes

MAYBE you've spent half your life and fortune on this old hobby—collecting everything from peace-pipes down to the latest "L and Maria" underslung. Maybe you know the pipe encyclopedia from amber Americanus to Zula zuago.

But if you're a pipe smoker, you learned long ago that no matter how much a man may know about trick pipes and pipe tricks what he gets out of any pipe depends on what he puts in it.

And if you know your tobaccos, you know that any pipe's a sweeter smoke when packed with grand and glorious old Granger Rough Cut. . . The finest Burley that grows, mellowed Wellman's way and specially cut for pipes. . .

A man may have a hundred pipes but he needs only one tobacco. . . and that's Granger. For whether you put it in a meerschaum or a corn-cob, Granger is always the same cool, sweet tobacco. . . worthy of any pipe in the world.

GRANGER ROUGH CUT

The half-pound vacuum tin is forty-five cents, the foil-pouch package, sealed in glassine, is ten cents.

Made for pipes only!

Granger Rough Cut is made by the Liggett & Myers Tobacco Company
