

Henn State Collegian

The Palestra Test For Pennmanship

VOL. XXII, No. 33

STATE COLLEGE, PA., FRIDAY, JANUARY 28, 1927

PRICE FIVE CENTS

Players Present Initial Greek Drama Tomorrow

Star Cast Revives "Medea", Famous Euripides' Tragedy, on Auditorium Stage at Eight-Thirty O'clock

Rev. Rose To Give Last Chapel Talk of Term

Rev. I. M. Rose, of the First Baptist church, Philadelphia, will be the chapel speaker Sunday.

SIXTY THOUSAND SEE FARM SHOW

Eleventh Annual Convention Is Most Remarkable Held in History of State

FRUIT GROWERS DISPLAY UNUSUALLY IMPRESSIVE

The eleventh Pennsylvania State Farm Products Show, which closed last Friday at Harrisburg was the largest and most successful exhibition so far held by the agriculture interests of this state.

Collegian Responds To Frothy's Taunts With Easy Victory

Galloping ghosts of Nick Altcock, Vic Hanson, Will Rogers and Mike Hymas' Diluting on great deluges—the other one was manned by the right honorable Noah.

VALU OF MATHEMATICS, CHEMISTRY, CONSIDERED

Discussing the use of physics and mathematics in engineering work, faculty members of the School of Engineering played host to many instructors and professors from the Mathematics and Chemistry and Physics departments Wednesday night.

Impose Fine for Cutting First Classes of Term

A fine of five dollars will be imposed upon any student who is absent from the first meeting of a class at the beginning of the second semester.

Who's Dancing

Friday Women's Building—All-College Saturday Delta Upsilon Sigma Phi Aecia (closed) Omega Mu Rho

NIITANY MATMEN MEET IOWA STATE GRAPPLERS TODAY

Lions Hope To Avenge Setback Suffered in 1924—Ames Team Strong

MEET TO BE CONDUCTED UNDER WESTERN RULES

Mats Placed in Elevated Ring And Jerseys Barred—Long Will See Action

CHARACTERS

Miss Dorothy Musser '27, one of the Player's most capable actresses, will enact the leading role, Medea, which demands a strong emotional display, exceptional voice control and powerful acting.

RINGMEN PREPARE FOR TEMPLE BOUT

Clash With Philadelphians On February Fifth—Grazier More Aggressive

FILEGER AND WILFORD CONTINUE HARD SCRAPS

There was no let down in the boisterous boxing program for Penn State's gladiators this week.

RUNNERS STAGE SECOND TRACK MEET TOMORROW

Absence of Harriers Weakens Distance Runs—Helfrich Among Starters

TWO ORCHESTRAS PLAY ON BROADCAST PROGRAM

Featuring Buck Taylor's Music Room Hour, composed of local talent, and the usual regular program consisting of a farm and garden talk, WPSG, Penn State's radio broadcasting station, will stir the air Monday night at eight o'clock.

Indoor Games and Class Dances To Go on Air From 'Mikes' in Armory Balcony

Featuring Buck Taylor's Music Room Hour, composed of local talent, and the usual regular program consisting of a farm and garden talk, WPSG, Penn State's radio broadcasting station, will stir the air Monday night at eight o'clock.

Who's Dancing

Friday Women's Building—All-College Saturday Delta Upsilon Sigma Phi Aecia (closed) Omega Mu Rho

Novelty Decorations To Mark Senior Ball

Decorations for the Senior Ball, February eleventh, will be particularly attractive. Stripes of alternating blue and white will drape in a graceful sweep from the ceiling to the sides of the Armory.

DANNY MURPHY'S SKIPPERS TO PLAY AT SOPH FORMAL

Band is Popular in Collegiate Circles—Has Signed for Cornell Prom

FAVORS AND INVITATIONS ARE DEFINITELY CHOSEN

Spanish Effect Considered for Decoration—To Reward Poster Contributors

CHAMPIONS ATTEND VETERANS' BANQUET

Cross-country Team To Be Guest of Honor in Philadelphia Tomorrow Night

BEZDEK, FLEMING AND CARTMELL WILL SPEAK

Penn State's cross-country champions, R. Fournier '27, W. J. Cox '29, G. K. Offenbuser '29, J. H. Stewart '27, P. B. Ross '27 and G. A. Guyer '27 will be among the guests of honor at the twenty-first championship banquet of the Veteran Athletes of Philadelphia tomorrow night at the Penn Athletic club.

CUB PASSERS MEET LOCAL SCHOOLBOYS

State College High School Five Has Veteran Team of Three Years' Experience

ENGAGEMENT TOMORROW SHOULD TEST YEARLINGS

A powerful State College high school basketball team, a combination that has been intact for the past three years, will provide the opposition for the Penn State freshman quintet tomorrow evening at seven o'clock in the Armory.

DAN GREGORY TO PLAY FOR MILITARY FORMAL

Checking Bids Should Be Filed In Week—Complimentary Tickets Offered

FOUR FRATERNITIES BOW TO GREEK OPPONENTS IN FAST BASKETBALL TILTS

Theta Upsilon Omega, Tau Kappa Epsilon, Beta Theta Pi and Theta Xi came off victorious in four fast interfraternity basketball games in the Armory Tuesday night.

WILL SELECT VARSITY FENCERS IN FEBRUARY

Schweitzer To Choose Twelve From Forty Candidates Now Reporting

Fence To Be Built on Presidential Lawn if Trespassing Continues

An ultimatum delivered by superintendent of grounds, R. I. Weber, states that a fence will enclose the President's residence unless forgetful students cease to mar the beauty of the lawn by wearing paths through the President's yard.

First Senior Ball Ticket Sale To Be Held Tonight

The first ticket sale for the Senior Ball, Friday, February eleventh, will be held at the Music Room tonight from seven to nine o'clock. Tickets are priced at five dollars.

Penn State Encounters Pennsylvania Courtmen

Old Rivals Renew Feud in Palestra Tomorrow—Ten Thousand May See Clash

DIAMOND AND GRID PRACTICE STARTS

Bezdek Plans Three Workouts Weekly in Both Sports At Stock Pavilion

INDOOR TRAINING BEGINS AFTER SEMESTER OPENS

To get a flying start on the 1927 sports season, Hugo Bezdek, Lion head coach, has decided to begin winter football and baseball practice in the Stock Pavilion the first week of the second semester.

SIX GLEE CLUBS LISTED IN FIRST STATE CONTEST

Penn State Songsters To Enter Competition—Winners Go to New York

EIGHT TEAMS ENTERED IN I. F. RING TOURNAY

Delta Sigma Phi Boxers Open With Phi Kappa Sigma February Eighth

Four Fraternities Bow To Greek Opponents in Fast Basketball Tilts

Theta Upsilon Omega, Tau Kappa Epsilon, Beta Theta Pi and Theta Xi came off victorious in four fast interfraternity basketball games in the Armory Tuesday night.

WILL SELECT VARSITY FENCERS IN FEBRUARY

Schweitzer To Choose Twelve From Forty Candidates Now Reporting

Fence To Be Built on Presidential Lawn if Trespassing Continues

An ultimatum delivered by superintendent of grounds, R. I. Weber, states that a fence will enclose the President's residence unless forgetful students cease to mar the beauty of the lawn by wearing paths through the President's yard.

First Senior Ball Ticket Sale To Be Held Tonight

The first ticket sale for the Senior Ball, Friday, February eleventh, will be held at the Music Room tonight from seven to nine o'clock. Tickets are priced at five dollars.

Lost Book Returns From Strange Trip

A wanderer has returned to its home. A book, belonging to the old Cleason Literary Society, has been sent from the Detroit Public Library to its shell in the Carnegie Library here. The volume, which is plainly marked on the inside cover, "This book must be returned in two weeks," has been missing just twenty years. The tome is in good condition, as it has been undisturbed for almost a century.

Penn State Encounters Pennsylvania Courtmen

Old Rivals Renew Feud in Palestra Tomorrow—Ten Thousand May See Clash

DIAMOND AND GRID PRACTICE STARTS

Bezdek Plans Three Workouts Weekly in Both Sports At Stock Pavilion

INDOOR TRAINING BEGINS AFTER SEMESTER OPENS

To get a flying start on the 1927 sports season, Hugo Bezdek, Lion head coach, has decided to begin winter football and baseball practice in the Stock Pavilion the first week of the second semester.

SIX GLEE CLUBS LISTED IN FIRST STATE CONTEST

Penn State Songsters To Enter Competition—Winners Go to New York

EIGHT TEAMS ENTERED IN I. F. RING TOURNAY

Delta Sigma Phi Boxers Open With Phi Kappa Sigma February Eighth

Four Fraternities Bow To Greek Opponents in Fast Basketball Tilts

Theta Upsilon Omega, Tau Kappa Epsilon, Beta Theta Pi and Theta Xi came off victorious in four fast interfraternity basketball games in the Armory Tuesday night.

WILL SELECT VARSITY FENCERS IN FEBRUARY

Schweitzer To Choose Twelve From Forty Candidates Now Reporting

Fence To Be Built on Presidential Lawn if Trespassing Continues

An ultimatum delivered by superintendent of grounds, R. I. Weber, states that a fence will enclose the President's residence unless forgetful students cease to mar the beauty of the lawn by wearing paths through the President's yard.

First Senior Ball Ticket Sale To Be Held Tonight

The first ticket sale for the Senior Ball, Friday, February eleventh, will be held at the Music Room tonight from seven to nine o'clock. Tickets are priced at five dollars.

Lost Book Returns From Strange Trip

A wanderer has returned to its home. A book, belonging to the old Cleason Literary Society, has been sent from the Detroit Public Library to its shell in the Carnegie Library here. The volume, which is plainly marked on the inside cover, "This book must be returned in two weeks," has been missing just twenty years. The tome is in good condition, as it has been undisturbed for almost a century.