Notices

Hours for second semester Biblical Literature courses have been announced by Prof. H. M. Battenhouse of the English Department. Bib. Lit. 9 will meet Tuesday and Friday at eleven o'clock in Room 428 Old Main. Bib. Lit. 4 will meet Monday evening from seven until nine o'clock in Room 307 Old Main and the class in Bib. Lit. 5 will meet Thursday from seven until nine o'clock in the same room.

Students enrolled in R. O. T. C. two and four who have the third hour vacant on Monday afternoon are ordered to report to the Nittany theatre for seat assignments at that hour instead of a four-thirty o'clock.

There will be an all-college dance in the Women's building tonight from eight to twelve o'clock. Johnny Duck's orchestra will supply the music. A subscription of one dollar per couple is asked.

Station LOI, of Iowa State college, will broadcast the Penn State wrestling meet Friday night at eight-fifteen o'clock Eastern Standard time. The station will broadcast on a wave length of 770 meters, with a power of 5000 watts.

Ringmen Prepare for Opener With Temple

Under the one-year residence rule, made things warm for Byson and Mahon, while Cardoni, a lightweight, held his own with the hard hitting Kalkoski.

Since the opening scummages of the year Houck has had Filieger and Wilford against each other, and as a result each has become accustomed to the other's style. The shifty Bev continues to hold a slight edge in the fifteen pound division.

In the heavier weight Mahoney and Livermore are the only contenders. Livermore spatted three rounds with Wolff Tuesday while Rog continued to work out with the staffy McClure whose boxing is teaching Rog more and more about the art of self defense.

cellent opportunities for the training of forwards. The veterans and newcomers will be shown proper line positions, and correct methods of charging. Bez believes much headway can be made with linemen during the few weeks of winter training.

Batteries to Practice
Only baseball batterymen will be called out for early practice. Winter training is especially beneficial to pitchers. Control and form will be stressed in these workouts.

Practically all of last year's batterymen will report with the exception of Lefty Page, who is trying out for a berth on the varsity basketball five.

The coaching of both groups of candidates will fall largely on the shoulders of Beszdek. When Larry Conover is not busy with the freshman dribblers he also will be on hand.

State College High To Meet Plebe Courtmen

Last year the schoolboys were runners-up for the district championship and with the same team back this season the squad looms as a formidable contender for first honors to represent Central Pennsylvania in the Interscholastics here in March.

When the yealings and the schoolboys clash tomorrow night it will be the first time State College high has ever competed with a first-year court team. In a practice tilt last year the local high school was turned back by a 18-28 score.

Coached by Tom Zeibe, former Penn State 145-pound boxer, the State College five will line-up with Glenn and Smith, forwards, Captain Stoddart, center, and Rudy Miller and Keller, guards. This quintet played its first game as a unit three years ago and should force Coach Conover's proteges to the limit.

Glenn, a fast and clever dribbler, and his running mate, Smith, noted for his ability under the net, form a high-scoring pair. Captain Chailey Stoddart is said to be dangerous from any point within mid-court. Hodgkiss, center, Joe Miller and Ishie, forwards, and Shaw a guard are substitutes who may see action.

It is probable that the same five men who emerged with a win over DuBois High school will start the game against State College. Captain Staley will again pair with Dinwoodie, with Leyda at center. Balmer and Anselmo will again hold down the guard berths. Fry and Derk, forwards, Ridgeway, center, and Lee and Mitchell, guards, form the reserve material that Coach Conover will have at his call.

A Matter Of Interest To Caterers

A huge order of merchandise was received from California by one of the town's merchants in the early part of this week. Investigation showed this to be 1209 cases of Del Monte canned fruits.

This fact brings to mind the well-known advantages of wholesale buying. Foods can be purchased in two ways. It can be obtained in a hazardous way at the last moment, or it can be bought in an efficient, systematic manner. When buying it is always best to order in quantity from a wholesale house.

The wholesaler obtains his merchandise from the producers and sells it direct to the customer, thus affording the latter a saving of from 10 to 20 per cent. Eye's Wholesale Grocery Company is such a concern. At this establishment the groceries are purchased in carload lots, and only the best of quality is considered. Another matter of great importance, besides the fact that here you can get maximum quality at minimum prices, is the assurance that everything is fresh, because the products do not lay in sundry warehouses before you get it. STUDENT LEADERS' SMOKER SUCCESS

Prospective Cheering Officers Meet Fifty Electors at Initial Function
BUCK MAKES SPEECH ON IMPORTANCE OF WORK

For the first time in the history of Penn State, a cheerleaders' smoker was held in the Sigma Nu house last night. A group of fifty men, composed of cheerleaders and captains and managers of the various athletic teams, those who elect the cheerleaders, were on hand to make themselves acquainted with the men whom they will choose.

Ned Fleming '14, graduate manager of athletics; E. A. Holbrook, dean of the School of Mining; R. W. Giant, Director of the School of Music, and C. R. Bergman '27, president of the athletic association, were also present. Coach Hugo Beszdek who was originally intended to be one of the speakers was unable to be present because of a trip to Philadelphia.

H. S. Buck '27, head-cheerleader, made the first address. Buck spoke of the value of cooperation between the students and the staff as well as the College authorities. "The cheerleader," said Buck, "should be recognized more generally than is now the case. He is called before almost every meeting on the campus to stimulate spirit."

Following speeches by Dean Holbrook, on "The Faculty Viewpoint of Our Cheerleading System" and Director Grant, coffee and sandwiches were served to supplement the smokes.

Seniors Give Pattee Desk Lamp at Chapel

As a token of their esteem and appreciation the senior class gave a desk lamp with a fountain pen in its base to Dr. F. L. Pattee yesterday morning in making the presentation. W. P. Reed '27 expressed the high regard in which Doctor Pattee is held by the senior class.

You are an experienced smoker and you know your brand!

YOU'RE an experienced smoker. You know good tobaccos. You know taste and fragrance. And you insist on the best—that's Camels. Only the primest tobaccos grown are good enough for you—the experienced smoker. Whatever you do you are going to do right, if you know it. If Camels weren't the best, they would not be far and away the first. If Camels weren't quality supreme, they would not be the overwhelming preference of smokers who have tried every brand. Your taste tells you the tobacco difference in cigarettes and you're going to smoke the best. Your advice to others is—"Have a Camel!"
