

Penn State Collegian

Detroit? They Auto Be Good

VOL. XXII, No. 34

STATE COLLEGE, PA., TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 1927

PRICE FIVE CENTS

TEMPLE'S UNTRIED TEAM WILL FACE NITTANY LIONS IN BOUTS SATURDAY

Grazier and Wolff Move-up to Higher Divisions—Beloff Leads Visitors in Initial Clash

INJURY STOPS MAHONEY

Schminky May Replace Rog as Heavyweight—115-pound Contender Will Be Named Friday

The first act of Penn State's fist drama will be staged Saturday afternoon at two o'clock in the Armory with Temple University in the role of the foiled villain and Penn State in the part of the conquering hero...

Leo is taking no chances of having the Nittany performers take one on the jaw as a result of overconfidence just because this is Temple's first year of ring competition...

Mahoney Injured As an added precaution against Dave Beloff's pugilists Leo may put in the powerful Schminky as heavy-weight Mahoney, who was being groomed for the post, inadvertently walked into a Varsity Hall door in the dark, almost breaking his nose in the collision...

Either Bytem, Bevan or Mahon, all three of whom sit on a par, will take the ring against Atkins or Malman, the Temple fifteen pounder...

FAVOR HOME ECONOMICS CENTER FOR PENN STATE

Society of Pennsylvania Farm Women Draws Up Plea For Legislature

Recommending that the State provide a new and fully equipped building for the instruction of young women in home economics and home-making at Penn State...

Sackett Returns From A. S. C. E. Convention

R. L. Sackett, dean of the School of Engineering, and E. D. Walker, professor of hydraulic and sanitary engineering, have returned from their duties after attending the meeting of the American Society of Civil Engineers...

Penn State Band Will Open Sunday Musical Concerts This Month

Because of the hearty enthusiasm displayed by the student toward the Penn State winter concerts in the Auditorium last year, Bandmaster W. O. Thompson is preparing exceptionally fine programs for the coming Sunday musical entertainments...

PLAYGOER CALLS "MEDEA" SUCCESS

Players' Production Worthy of Tragedy—Acting of Miss Musser Commended

CHORUS AND SCENERY PROVE MATERIAL AIDS

That the Medea of Euripides is one of the world's greatest tragedies is a statement likely to call forth no opposition; that the production of it in English last Saturday evening by the Penn State Players in the Auditorium was worthy of its greatness...

FLIEGER IN OLD DIVISION

Intercollegiate champion Flieger will fight in the 135 pound division, the class in which he won his laurels last year...

THREE LION ATHLETES TO GRADUATE MONDAY

Three Penn State athletes are among those who will receive their diplomas next Tuesday night at the mid-year commencement...

NO COLLEGIAN WILL BE ISSUED FEBRUARY FOURTH

With this issue the Collegian will suspend publication until Tuesday, February eighth. The mid-year examinations have necessitated this action...

GRAPPLERS MEET SYRACUSE AFTER DEFEAT AT IOWA

Nittany Line-up May Be Revised For Clash With Syracuse In Armory Saturday

CAPTAIN KAISER IS LONE SCORER AT IOWA STATE

Westerners Manage Three Falls In Bringing Final Tally to Twenty-four Points

A Nittany mat team, wiser through the experience of a defeat suffered at the hands of a stronger Iowa State aggregation, will meet the powerful Syracuse grapplers on the Armory mats Saturday...

BRESSLER RESIGNS COLLEGE POSITION

Vice-dean of Agriculture School Accepts Post of State Deputy Secretary

ASSUMES NEW DUTIES AT HARRISBURG OFFICE

Receiving an appointment as first State deputy secretary of agriculture under the Fisher gubernatorial regime, Mr. R. G. Bressler has severed his connection with the College as vice-dean of agriculture...

LOCAL SCHOOLBOYS FALL BEFORE PLEBE PASSERS

Captain Staley, Anselmo, Leyda Star in 35-16 Win—Second Victory for Yearlings

Outplayed but not outfought, the State College high school basketball team, performing far below its usual standard, was unable to check the flow of enemy field goals and went down to a 35-16 defeat at the hands of the Penn State plebe quintet...

THREE LION ATHLETES TO GRADUATE MONDAY

Three Penn State athletes are among those who will receive their diplomas next Tuesday night at the mid-year commencement...

NO COLLEGIAN WILL BE ISSUED FEBRUARY FOURTH

With this issue the Collegian will suspend publication until Tuesday, February eighth. The mid-year examinations have necessitated this action...

PENN STATE CODE A good name is earned by fair play, square dealing, and good sportsmanship in the classroom, on the athletic field, and in all other College relations.

ORCHESTRAS WILL PROVIDE NOVELTIES AT SENIOR FORMAL

Saxophone Marvel and Singers Included in Personnel Of Californians

NEW YORK CHARLESTON CHAMPION WILL APPEAR

Rambler and Major Bands Will Play Alternately From Nine Until Two

Two novel entertainers will accompany the California Ramblers when they make their debut at the Senior Ball engagement in the Armory February eleventh...

EXTRA NUMBERS TO GO ON SALE AT NEWSTANDS

Containing a variety of short stories, feature articles and jokes, the Old Main Bell is just coming off the press, and members of Pi Delta Epsilon, honorary literary fraternity, expect to distribute the prize-winning magazine immediately after examination week...

FACE RESPONSIBILITIES, SAYS CHAPEL SPEAKER

Reality of Worldly Things and Idealisms Are Discussed By Reverend Rose

"Thoughtful concern causes more solidarity and less schism, more sincerity and less subterfuge, more serenity and less cynicism" declared the Reverend Ivan Murray Rose, pastor of the First Baptist Church at Philadelphia, at chapel services in the Auditorium Sunday morning...

GRANGE TO BROADCAST REGULARLY FROM WPSO

Among the features that have been arranged for February broadcasts from the recently re-opened radio station at Penn State, are weekly farm and garden programs that are expected to prove especially interesting to residents of rural communities...

CALL FOR LYRICS, MUSIC OF NEW THESPIAN SHOW

All those desiring to write lyrics of music for the new Thespian production, "Girl Wanted," should get in touch with J. V. Ingham '27 at the Chi Phi house immediately.

COMMITTEE TO ARRANGE FOR ARCHITECT'S DANCE

With the possibility of an Architect's Ball next semester, a committee headed by C. M. Baughman '27 was appointed to meet after examination week to make arrangements for the dance, which will probably be a costume affair. It is planned to have the function in March.

PERMIT FRATERNITY BREAKFASTS AFTER JUNIOR PROMENADE

Senate Committee Approves New Feature—Limited Only to Junior Formal

TWENTY-NINTH OF APRIL IS CONFIRMED AS DATE

Petition To Extend Time Limit Of Dancing Until Three O'clock Defeated

That fraternities will be permitted to hold breakfasts in their chapter houses until three o'clock following the Junior Prom was the decision reached by the Senate Committee on Student Welfare last week in granting the request the Senate specified that this new feature be limited exclusively to the Junior Prom...

'OLD MAIN BELL' TO BE RELEASED SOON

Will Distribute Copies After Examinations—Contains Variety of Material

EXTRA NUMBERS TO GO ON SALE AT NEWSTANDS

Containing a variety of short stories, feature articles and jokes, the Old Main Bell is just coming off the press, and members of Pi Delta Epsilon, honorary literary fraternity, expect to distribute the prize-winning magazine immediately after examination week...

DOCTOR HETZEL MEETS WITH COMMERCE BOARD

President Ralph D. Hetzel, being elected a member of the board of directors of the Pennsylvania State Chamber of Commerce at its annual meeting in the Penn-Harris hotel on Thursday, addressed a banquet of that body while visiting in Harrisburg...

PENN STATE SCHEDULES U. OF P. GAME FOR 1928

November Tenth Named as Date For Clash To Be Decided On Franklin Field

Unless some unforeseen event alters present plans, the Nittany Lion and the Red and Blue of the University of Pennsylvania will meet on Franklin Field, November tenth, 1928. This game was arranged in addition to the one scheduled for October fifteenth next fall...

LIBRARY GETS HUNDRED AND FIFTY NEW BOOKS

With the addition of one hundred and fifty new books last week the Library has surpassed the one-hundred-and-fifty mark according to Miss Sarah W. Vaughn, librarian. New books are constantly being added, but there are still many volumes, long overdue, unaccounted for which almost offset the influx...

PROF. LONG GRANTED THREE-YEAR ABSENCE

Prof. Mason Long, of the English department, has been granted a three-year leave of absence starting in September of this year. He will engage in graduate research work. Prof. T. G. Gates, also of the English department, and who is now on leave of absence has been granted an extension of one year to continue his work...

LION CAGEMEN OPPOSE DETROIT FIVE TONIGHT

City College Combination Has Veteran Team--Varsity Downs Princeton, Loses To Pennsylvania

WISCONSIN ALUMNI HONOR DR. HETZEL

Graduates Now at Penn State Entertain President and Wife Saturday Night

DINNER RECALLS TIME SPENT AT ALMA MATER

To recall old times, President and Mrs. Ralph D. Hetzel were guests of University of Wisconsin graduates who are now members of the faculty here and their wives at a dinner Saturday night at the University Club Revive Old Scenes...

PRINCETON BOWS, 30-23

Soon after the second half got under way Mike Hamas' work from the foul line and floor put the Lions again in the running and drew the two teams almost to even terms, with Pennsylvania holding a 22-20 edge. Finally, Reilly broke loose with the goal that tied the going at 22-22...

PENN STATE SCHEDULES U. OF P. GAME FOR 1928

November Tenth Named as Date For Clash To Be Decided On Franklin Field

Unless some unforeseen event alters present plans, the Nittany Lion and the Red and Blue of the University of Pennsylvania will meet on Franklin Field, November tenth, 1928. This game was arranged in addition to the one scheduled for October fifteenth next fall...

LIBRARY GETS HUNDRED AND FIFTY NEW BOOKS

With the addition of one hundred and fifty new books last week the Library has surpassed the one-hundred-and-fifty mark according to Miss Sarah W. Vaughn, librarian. New books are constantly being added, but there are still many volumes, long overdue, unaccounted for which almost offset the influx...

PROF. LONG GRANTED THREE-YEAR ABSENCE

Prof. Mason Long, of the English department, has been granted a three-year leave of absence starting in September of this year. He will engage in graduate research work. Prof. T. G. Gates, also of the English department, and who is now on leave of absence has been granted an extension of one year to continue his work...