Notices

All members of the college symphony orchestra are requested to be present at the rehearsals held every Tuesday night in the Band Room in preparation for the coming Sunday concert.

A special German class for instructors and graduate students who wish to meet requirements for advanced degrees will be conducted by Mr. Wulf again next semester. The first meeting will be Wednesday, February ninth at seven o'clock in Room 16, Liberal Arts building.

Grapplers Will Meet With Orange Saturday

(Continued from first page) make a strong bid for Liggett's post, while Russel and Weinschenk will do battle with Hen Long. From the brand of wrestling which he has exhibited throughout the season, it is probable that Ace will make good his claim of priority to the welterweight berth. Paekard's nearest competitor is Eisenman, while Hollobaugh will probably be given his second chance in Ike Long's regular position. Kaseel alone proved successful against the Iowans, and thereby annexed the only three points which came the way of Penn State. Wally Liggett, Hen Long and Ike Long suffered falls, while Ace, Paekard and Garrison lost their bouts through decisions. The final count was 24-3 in the favor of Iowa State.

Books and pamphlets have been taken from the debating alcove in the library and should be returned at once. This room is open only to the Varsity debating squad.

Thirty New Students To Enter Penn State

Thirty new students will enter Penn State with the opening of the second semester Monday, the day before sixty-three seniors receive their degrees at the eighth annual mid-year commencement. The College will also grant nine advanced degrees, making a total of seventy-two to be awarded.

Innovations in the rulings affecting the meet undoubtedly proved a decided factor in the defeat of the Lions. The defeat, however, will in no way affect their status in the Intercollegiate Association. The grapplers already have a decisive victory over Lafayette to their credit and in Syracuse will find a powerful foe.

Temple Faces Nittany Boxers Here Saturday

Beloff will again enter the ring to meet Captain Graziop in the 160 pound scrap. Kerns of Temple will have a weight advantage over Wolff in the next bout but Wolff's skill and punch should make him victorious. The new rule preventing seconds from giving aid to their charges between rounds will go into effect Saturday.
