Student Council will meet tonight at seven o'clock in room 14 L. A.

All students of agriculture and home economics are requested to attend a special meeting of the Penn State Grange in 100 Hort tonight at seven-thirty o'clock.

Mr. Percy Ash, Professor of Architectural Design, will speak to the local chapter of the American Association of University Women Thursday evening at eight o'clock in the Women's Building.

Following its usual custom the Collegian will publish a list of all out-of-town guests attending the Sophomore Hop.

FARM TAXES EXCESSIVE, WEAVER SHOWS IN STUDY

Rural Levies Almost Double Those of City, Economics Head Discloses

Farm taxes are too high in relationship to the levies on urban properties. This fact was brought out by an investigation conducted by the State Department of Agriculture under the supervision of F. P. Weaver.

In six important Pennsylvania counties, taxes on farm property consumed thirty-eight percent of the net earnings of these properties, while only seventeen and one-half per cent of the rent that was net above insurance and repairs on town properties in these same six counties was required to pay taxes.

The bulletin issuing these facts by the State department stresses the fact that state aid for schools and highways should be so graduated that the remaining tax burden which local property must carry would consume the same percentage of income from real estate in all sections of the state.

Six Architects Given Beaux Arts Mention

Six Penn State students received second mention in the sophomore problem competition held last week by the Beaux Arts Institute of Design in New York.

The sophomores whose drawings were awarded mention are: Willard Dodge, J. M. Brown, B. C. Hibler, M. A. Klein, H. W. Lohman and T. K. Morgan.

PLEBE COURTNEYS LOSE TO SYRACUSE FRESHMEN

Drop Fast Contest, 30-29, When Spirited Rally in Second Half Falls Short

Because a spirited rally in the middle of the second half did not run up sufficient points, the Lion plebes fell before the strong Syracuse freshman passers by the score of 30-29 in the Amory Saturday afternoon.

Captain Walkov of the Orange quint was the real difference between victory and defeat. The Syracuse leader netted six field goals, three of them keeping the Orangemen in the lead when they were threatened in the last period.

Leyda Stars For the losers Wally Leyda's performance at center was outstanding. The lanky tip-off man was the backbone of the Blue and White offense as well as the leading scorer of the game.

The visitors went into the lead shortly after the opening whistle, when De Filippo engaged one from under the basket. Walker followed suit and, after Leyda missed an over-arm shot, Voelker sent one through the net from the middle of the floor.

After a few minutes of unsuccessful shooting by the Lion cubs, Leyda dropped one in from mid-court.

Wilson Named on All-time Penn State, Army Elevens

Once more Harry Wilson steps to the fore in "All" football selections, being chosen for a backfield position on the all-time Penn State and all-time West Point elevens picked by the New York Sun.

Wilson who evorted on Beaver Field during the seasons of '21, '22 and '23 and who, for the past three seasons has held down a position behind the line for the Cadets, has been honored as has no other West Point luminary.

Such men as Olyphant, Devore, McEwan and Daly, the latter pair also coaching at Army after their graduation, are chosen as teammates of the Penn State Alumnus.

All-time Lion Team Backfield mates on the All-time Penn State team are Glenn Killinger, recently appointed coach at Rensselaer, Polytechnic, Charlie Way and Mauthe.

Bedenk Will Coach Florida U. Sports

F. J. "Joe" Bedenk '24 has accepted the position as head baseball and football coach at the University of Florida, his new duties to begin in September.

While at Penn State, Bedenk played Varsity football for three years. In 1923, his last season, he was captain of the Lions and led them through a successful schedule.

Bedenk's work on the line was responsible for much of the ground gained by Hugo Bezdek's great backfield in 1923. He also earned two Varsity letters in baseball, starring in the outfield in 1922 and 1923.

After graduating, the Nittany athlete accepted a position as football line and baseball coach at Rice Institute.

Tuesday Marks Close Of French Contest

Less than a week remains for completion of manuscripts in the competition for the French prize, to be awarded to that student who submits the best translation of the speech made by Premier Briand of France upon the entrance of Germany into the League of Nations.

All manuscripts must be in the hands of the committee headed by Dr. I. L. Foster, head of the department of Romance Languages, by next Tuesday. The judges must then submit them to the National Board at Washington a month later.

Doctor Foster will meet all contestants or those wishing to enter the competition in Old Chapel tonight at seven o'clock.

co, a four-year man and supposedly ineligible, was his opponent Filegar got off to a slow start. The early minutes proved costly for in the closing round the Penn State lightweight literally pounded Cordasco who was captain of the Hillmen last year, from pillar to post.

Grazier Surprises Markham Captain Grazier swung the pendulum the other way handily by defeating Markham. Syracuse welterweight, Markham used a peculiar, shifty style that bothered Clarke when he attempted to close in but there was no gainsaying him and in the last round Clarke tore in with both hands and nearly despatched the Orange battler.

Wolff made the score 3-2, nearly carrying Bizik off his feet with a flurry of straight lefts and right hooks but Guginio came back and won a close decision over Bendick, who fought a splendid fight against the rangy Orange veteran.

Wolff Wins Meet With the meet resting on his performance, Allie Wolff went in against Newman after scarcely ten minutes rest. Newman who is bigger than Mahoney rushed into Allie, almost wrestling him to the floor, but Wolff kept his head and coolly jammed his right into the other's face.
