Houck Dons Gloves With Al Verbeke At Legion Benefit

Leo Houck, veteran Penn State tutor of ring tactics, donned the gloves for the first time since his professional tiff in Lancaster last summer, when he fought a three-round exhibition with Al Verbeke as part of a dedication program for the benefit of the American Legion community home at Huntingdon Tuesday night.

Spield with four of his grapplers and Leo with a half dozen of his leather pushers journeyed to Huntingdon to entertain a packed house that assembled to witness the dedication proceedings.

Varsity, substitute and freshmen mits-slingers offered the boxing end of the program.

AT THE MUSIC ROOM

Not a chance of that lead-like, loggy feeling even during early Spring—if you make a daily habit of Shredded Wheat.

That's one reason why this prince of whole wheat cereals graces the training tables of so many colleges and schools.

Carefully separated, completely cleaned, perfectly shredded, and thoroughly cooked whole wheat grains—that's all there is to ray Israel, crack metropolitan light-weight. Filegar has met with tough breaks thus far. Against Cordoso at Syracuse and again at Annapolis with Horney as his opponent he had apparently outpointed his man only to have the decision go against him.

When Al Lassman, 230-pound giant and All-American tackle prospect, takes the ring against Roger Mahoney, the most thrilling bout of the season should take place. Lassman has a punch to match his size and will be by far the most powerful heavy Mahoney has met this year. Rog put in a hard week's work with the gloves and sparring with Robb to improve his speed. Robb will be eligible in another week and may take the trip to Notre Dame.

"Singers must be cautious regarding their throats. Like other singers, I prefer Lucky Strikes because they are never irritating and because of their finer flavor."

Florence Easton

Florence Easton, prima donna of the Metropolitan Opera Company

The perfect condition of her voice always wins applause

Lucky Strikes are mild and mellow—the finest cigarettes you ever smoked. They are made of the finest Turkish and domestic tobaccos, properly aged and blended with great skill, and there is an extra process in treating the tobacco.
