Owing to the fact that so many have availed themselves of the opportunity to call upon President and Mrs. Hetzel at their home during February and March, they will con-tinue to receive callers Monday afterons and evenings during the month

Dr. F. J. Tschan of the history de-patrment will speak on "Economic Crises and Trend of History" Tues-day at seven o'clock in Old Chapel.

1930 CONSIDERS PRESIDENT

Continuing an established precedent, the freshman class met in the Bull Pen Wednesday night to consider J. N. Stahley, fourth trial presi-

M. I. Kirkpatrick, the last of the executive nominees, has been taken ill and will be unable to preside before the final election.

Campus Dogs Must Be Leashed Say Officers

Campus hounds again are becoming Campus nounds again are occoming a Penn State ruisance. Small packs of begrimed dogs, apparently growing in numbers daily, are roving the greens and repeating last year's scenes. At that time many of them, unlicensed, were killed. The College again issues a warning.

"While the College does not want to dispose of valuable animals or pets," said R. I. Webber, superintend-ent of grounds and buildings yester-day, "it will take steps to dispose of loose dogs. Dogs must be under con-trol of the master constantly, under leash or at his heels. Otherwise they will be impounded or killed."

Doctor Ries Organizes Oil Power Conference

Organizing an Oil Power conference for Pennsylvania, Dr. E. D. Ries, professor of chemical engineering, who is chairman of the committee on errangements, announces a three-day convention to begin here on April

During the Oil Power week, three separate sessions will be held, one for producers, one for refiners and the last for motor manufacturers. Motor manufacturing, bearing design and oil sprays will be discussed in connec-tion with work now being carried on in the experiment station.

Varsity Meets Alumni

Tomorrow's game will be the last in which Captain Mike Hamas will be seen in a Penn State uniform. In seventeen contests the former Passaic seventeen contests the former Passate flash has accumulated points aggre-gating more than one-third of the total amount scored by the entire team. The court leader is planning to turn his attention to the diamond and will attempt to win back the third base position that he held in 1925.

It is probable that Coach Hermann will use Eddie Baron and Whitey VonNieda at guards with Reilly, who put up a great game against the Pan-thers before being ruled out by the personal foul route. Johnny Roepke and Mike will again be at the forward

Although the exact line-up of the Alumni team has not been determined, the choice for the forward positions will rest between Gerhardt, Hood and Reed. Either Fixter or Shair will start at center while Haines and Loeffler are the likely guards. J. R. Hileman '24, former varsity manager is in charge of the Alumni aggrega-tion and is bringing several perform-ers from the vicinity of Pittsburgh

Tells Experiences In Valley of Ten Thousand Smokes

"The Valley of Ten Thousand Smokes" was the subject of an illus-trated lecture that was delivered by Prof. W. L. Henning, of the anima husbandry department, before the members of the American Legion, Nitmembers of the American Legion, Nittany Post 245 recently.

During the talk Professor Henning told of the experiences of the National Geographic society expedition visiting the Katmai National Monument in 1919, under the leadership of Dr. Robert F. Griggs of Ohio university, "The Valley of Ten Thousand Smokes," located in a part of the Katmai section, was carefully studied by the expeditionary force which inby the expeditionary force which in-cluded scientists, naturalists and pho-ographers.

The lecture was replete with inter sting peculiarities of the valley which is considered by geologists as one of the strangest phenomena in volcanic regions. The talk was illustrated by complete set of lantern slides.

Lion Matmen Primed For Intercollegiates

(Continued from first page) this afternoon and the semi-finals in the evening. The men will then rest until Saturday afternoon when the finals will be held. The buttle for second and third places will follow the finals.

The Lion representation will be made up of Captain Kaiser, 115-pound contender; Liggett, specialweight; Hen Long, 135-pounds; Acc, welter-weight; Packard, middleweight; Holcbaugh, light-heavyweight, and Gar-ison, unlimited class.

Kaiser is favored by dopesters to make off with the 115-pound honors, Liggett is figured to place in the next class and Acc, Packard and Garrison re conceded points.

Alpha Phi Sigma Meets Winner Of Last Night's Bout for Wrestling Title

IN I. F. MAT TOURNEY

With aggressiveness as a marked element in the matches, two more teams, Kappa Delta Rho and Alpha Phi Sigma, advanced another step to-ward the finals of the interfraternity wrestling contest in a dual meet Tue: lay evening in the Armory.

Neither team experienced any diffi-Neither team experienced any dimer-culty in winning its meet. Kappa Delta Rho overwhelmed Phi Kappa Sigma, gaining five falls to win by a 25-0 score. Phi Delta Theta succeed-ed in holding its opponents to one de-cision but the remainder were falls and Alpha Phi Signia won 23-0.

Kappa Delta Rho, Alpha Phi Sigma and Alpha Chi Sigma will battle for the championship. Alpha Chi Sigma mot Kappa Delta Rho last night and Alpha Phi Sigma will meet the winne in the final contest next week for firs in the 135-pound class. Davidson, of Cornell, should show well in the mid-dleweight division. Stafford, of Cor-nell, and Sumney, of Princeton, stand out among the light-heavy weights Promising heavies are Strohm, of Penn, should he wrestle, and Patter-son, of Syracuse.

Notre Dame Tomorrow

(Continued from first page) vantage, as can be seen from the fact that the five-man Indiana team walloped Syracuse 4-1 last week. Be-cause of Notre Dame's short notifica-tion Leo has not yet made his decision.

Lion Boxers Will Face

Captain Melamed was the Syracuse victor of last week's setto with the Irish. The Notre Dame squad is composed of veterans who will have the added advantage of fighting in their own ring. Frankie Mahon will open the meet with Lor-ringer in the opposite corner, and the result of this bout will have an unusually important bearing on the ul-timate team winner.

Moran, who gave Markham of Syr Moran, who gave Markham of Syr-acuse a thorough lacing last week, will encounter Gilbert Filegar in the 135-pound bout. Moran, like Filegar, has had plenty of experience and will be remembered as the weaving, bob-bing ringman who put up such a tough scrap last year.

Grazier Meets Duquette

If Grazier defeats Duquette he will have achieved a real fistic triumph. Duquette is a hard, willing mixer and proved his prowess against Rosser Orange welterweight, by stopping him

Mahoney Faces MacGrath There will be no let-up for Roger Mahoney in the heavyweight tussle. Jack MacGrath, who slammed the Navy representative all over the ring in last year's intercollegiate, and who knocked out Gugino, crack Syracuse beavy last week, will keep the burly Mahoney on his guard all the way hrough.

Despite the decision made as to th amber of bouts in tomorrow's fray Leo will take seven and possibly eight men to South Bend. Kolikosk will be held in reserve for a 125will be neld in reserve for a 123-fight and either Bendick or Steve Hamas will be the Nittany light-heavyweight. Steve displayed good form in his first appearance in the ring this week.

The team will leave State College at noon today.
