(Continued from first page) for speedy development, and for making up for the enforced delays caused by the recent cold and rainy weather. It is probable that Coach Bezdek will accompany his baseballers to the south, but the mentor refuses to make any statement as to the definite time of his recovery even though he seems far on his way to getting well. Many Penn State students are expecting to follow the team on its trip through the south.

Artistic Sketches May Be Included In Spring 'Old Main Bell' Issue

Several pen and pencil sketches, possibly of full page size, will be published in the spring issue of Old Main Bell, provided drawings of a suitable nature can be secured.

This offers practically the only opportunity on the Campus for the publication of etchings and lithographic tints of an artistic character. There is no limit to the number of drawings that may be turned in, as a large group from which to make selections is desired.

Contributions are coming in slowly, according to Editor Jacobs and the number of words contained in the submissions on hand to date is far short of the quota required to make up an issue. Stories, poems, plays and essays are solicited and should be turned in before the Easter holidays.

All copy should be submitted to W. W. Jacobs '27, at 208 Watts Hall.

Selecting his songs with intent to provide a well-rounded instead of specialized program, Mr. Althouse sang selections from operas, several French love songs and some more familiar tunes.

Choosing two arias, "Water Parted" from Arcturxerxes, and "Sonmi Dei" from Radamisto for his opening songs, Mr. Althouse gave a striking demonstration of his voice. "Enlevement," written by Levaude, gave him an opportunity to show his power over the French language and love melodies to good advantage.

After a duo of piano solos played by Rudolph Gruen, Mr. Althouse's accompanist, the noted tenor sang two more groups of songs in a slightly lighter vein than those preceding. In his fifth and last section, Mr. Althouse sang "Fair on the Road" by Ivanoff, "Luxemburg Gardens," "The Great Awakening," written by Kramer and "The Little Hills," a piece that Mr. Althouse brought back from Australia where he recently toured as a concert singer.

For the purpose of geological inspection, a field trip, covering a period of six days, has been planned for juniors in the curricula of mining engineering, mining geology, and ceramic engineering.

The trip will begin on April eighth from Lebanon, Pennsylvania, the students reporting at the Philadelphia and Reading railroad station in that town at eight o'clock in the morning.

Y. M. C. A. Will Begin 1928 Elections Today

Elections for Y. M. C. A. officers will be held today and tomorrow from eight o'clock until five in the afternoon. Ballot boxes will be placed in the following buildings: Engineering A, Liberal Arts, Old Main, Agriculture, Old Mining and Chemistry. Ballots will be distributed after chapel on the days of elections.

"Because," states Secretary Kitchen, "of the nature of the Y. M. C. A. and its support coming from the student body, it is deemed only fair to have an election by the student body of its principle cabinet members."

Lucky Strikes are mild and mellow—the finest cigarettes you ever smoked. They are made of the finest Turkish and domestic tobaccos, properly aged and blended with great skill, and there is an extra process in treating the tobacco. "It's toasted"—no harshness, not a bit of bite.

C. M. HAYDEN

insurance salesman to store manager

"Like the average undergraduate in college, I could not definitely decide what I should do after graduating. The best advice I could get was to go into business with a large, growing concern. A real agent with insurance companies showed me that years of work would bring me only a nominal income.

The most promising business for me seemed to be the Kresge chain store business, but my friends and family said, 'Why spend four years in college and then work for a 5 and 10c store company?' Nevertheless, I made the change and have been absolutely sold on my choice ever since. Opportunities have been even greater than anticipated. Today, after ten years of steady climbing, I see still greater opportunities ahead. To me, the Kresge Company is the finest Company there is to work for, and the fellow who will take responsibility, will get all that he can handle." C. M. Hayden.

Grow . . . with a Growing Business

Within a few short years, the S. S. Kresge Company has grown from a small beginning to a great chain of almost 400 stores doing more than $130,000,000 business annually. And the possibilities have hardly been tapped! We are opening new stores as fast as we can find competent men to manage them. And we are looking to the colleges for future executive material.

If you are willing to start at a small salary and to work hard as you advance, step by step, a dignified, highly paid position awaits you as manager of one of our stores. And then your growth is as unlimited as is the growth of this business. If you want to grow with this growing business, write now to our Personnel Department. An interview will be arranged with a graduate of your own college who has already found success in the Kresge organization.
