FINAL EXAMINATION SCHEDULE

All recitations and practicums for the second semester will end Saturday, June 4, 1927, at noon. There will be no scheduled examinations for seniors graduating in June. Examinations for other students will take place from June 6 to June 10 inclusive.

Any student having two examinations scheduled at the same time, or any student having three examinations scheduled on the same day, is required t report the fact in person at the Registrar's Office on the special form provided there. To receive adjustment such conflicts MUST be reported not later than five o'clock on Wednesday, April 27.

Notices of adjustment will be mailed to heads of departments and be ready for distribution to students at the Registrar's Office on May 9. Apready for instrumental pointment examinations should not be arranged until after notices of adjustment have been sent out. The dates of these examinations will be announced during the week of May 16 by the instructors concerned.

Examinations will be of two hours' duration, beginning at eight and at

BEING 7OU'RE probably Y fed-up with food advice. It's a bothersome barrage. But you actually can enjoy sensible eating by just making one meal, any meal, every day, of Shredded Wheat.

Through thirty-five years of "Eat this and that," this pioneer whole wheat biscuit has captured ever-growing favor. Made of the most carefully selected wheat grains, shredded for utmost digestibility and cooked crisp clear through for appetite enchantment that's the Shredded Wheat Story.

New appetite appreciation, freedom from drugs and laxatives, better health every day: Shredded Wheat can give all this and make you like it.
