Marks Train Marks Train Marks Train Marks Train Showing the strain of eight games played in the last eleven days, the Nittany Lions went down in defeat 4-1 before the Juniata college baseball team Saturday on New Beaver diamond. Listless ball playing, interspersed with a few brilliant spots, marked the contest played in alternating snow and sunshine.

Dobbelaar lead off with a single in the first inning, took second on Kent's drive through third and fied to third and Lungren's sacrifice. Delp walked but was forced out at second when Hamas hit into a double play enacted by Snyder and Weller.

Delp reached first in the fourth inning on a hit to Weimer, Juniata third basepan who endeavored to kick the ball to the initial sack upon failure to pick it up cleanly. Arriving at'second, Delp scored Penn State's lone run on a passed ball at home. Playing the baseball team from Gottysburg college in weather more suited for sleigh-riding than applecossing, the Nittany nine gathered a 13-1 victory over the Battlefield boys Fluday on New Beaver damond. Long drives were hit in abundance, Ddbbelaar counting a circuit clout, Delp and Lesko each taking a three base trip and Kent, Singley and Hamas hitting two-baggers Baugher, Gettlysburg first baseman, knocked the only four-sack hit for his team Penn State amassed thirteen hits to the Builets' inne

Ragged Play, Erratic Passwork Marks Rough Game—Bush Tallies for Foe

Completely outclassing Lafayette in an 11-1 victory, the Penn State lacrosse team, displaying a fine running attack and staunch defense for so early in the season, made an auspicious start in the first game of the 1927 season

1927 season

During the entire game, which was rough and tumble throughout, the Maroon men were unable to penetrate the new defense system of Coach Paul, except on the one occasion when Bush, visiting second attack, broke through and scored, the ball bounding from the gealkeeper's body into the net.

Belfield, stellar Nittany attack, opmed the seconing ceremones with a pretty heave, after the teams had waged a see-saw battle for more than eight minutes. Pecor made the second Penn State tally a few minutes
