

OWENS TO LECTURE ON APPORTIONMENT

Mathematics Head Will Discuss Size of Present House of Representatives

SPEAKER HAS CONDUCTED LONG STUDY ON SUBJECT

Dr. F. W. Owens, head of the department of mathematics will speak on the subject, "The Apportionment of Representatives" tonight at seven o'clock in Old Chapel as the final number of the Liberal Arts lectures.

The subject is a popular and non-technical one, consisting of a study of political science, economics, history and mathematics. Doctor Owens will explain the theory of representation with particular reference to its historical background.

For a number of years, investigation of this problem has been Doctor Owens' hobby. Frequently because of his studies he has been called to Washington as a consultant in hearings.

Lions Win and Lose Week-end Ball Games

(Continued from first page) man, pushed in the run that gave the Nittany Lions their 10-0 victory over Duke university in an eleven inning contest at Durham.

Allowing five hits and no runs, Simmons, Wake Forest leather-finger, shut out the Lions in their game with the timber slashers, 5-0.

In a light hitting and fast fielding game the Lions were defeated 6-1 by Virginia university in Charlottesville. The Cavaliers got off to a three run lead in the first inning and were never headed.

In a loosely-held contest Penn State carried off the honors against Georgetown 8-6 Monday. Although Page passed eleven men and allowed seven hits he was invincible in the pinches.

Moister Lather SMOOTHER Shaves

WILLIAMS Shaving Cream works up fast into a rich bulky lather simply saturated with moisture. This super-moist, saturated lather soaks into the beard bristles until they are completely softened. That's why there is no razor "pull" with Williams, why all blades seem sharper. Williams leaves the face glove-smooth. Two sizes, 35c and 50c.

How to keep out of the stag line

Costs good round dollars these days to bring the only girl from the home town to the prom. Old grads say this is why stag lines are lengthening at the big social affairs during the school year.

Whether they are right is none of our business. But we do know that a lot of fellows in school can still find good use for extra dollars.

Here's a tip for some of these men who can qualify. Next vacation, line up with The Fuller Brush Company and garner a stack of money tall enough to keep from melting during the coming semester.

Millions of women know and buy Fuller Brushes. They are household necessities—generally regarded as the best the market offers. Your path is made easy by an extensive advertising campaign in national magazines. This is an easy and pleasant way to earn from $50 to $75 a week. You get a thorough course in salesmanship free. A few fine territories are still open for college men this coming summer. If you are interested, communicate at once with:

UNE REVELATION AU SALON—LE TEMPS, PARIS

"M-m-m, so that's the new car. Thought the governor declared war on extravagance and all that sort of thing. Looks imparted to me!"

"He did, but smart little daughter put over a diplomatic coup with this coupe. Got just the car I wanted and still saved enough for a heavy summer at Bar Harbor."

IMPORTED? Well, yes, in a manner of speaking. Its style was conceived in the fashion center of the world—Paris—and its lines and colorings smack of the sophistication of the Champs Elysees. Dietrich designed it—Dietrich, builder of the finest custom bodies. Sounds expensive, doesn't it—but the Erskine Six will win the heart of even the canniest descendant of the Scotch.

Dimensions are compact, but there's room inside no end—thanks again to Dietrich, the master. Two in front, two more in the rumble seat—a foursome; let's go.

Performance as typically American as Grantland Rice's hand-picked team—and as far ahead of its time as the class of '30. Through traffic and away while others are wrestling with gear-shifts—a regular Charlie Paddock on get-away. Honest-to-goodness mile-a-minute speed if you want to "get there in a hurry." Stop and turn on a manhole cover or park with a hair's breadth.

Get in under the wheel and learn why the latest vogue in motors calls for "The Little Aristocrat."

The Erskine Six Custom Coupe, as illustrated, sells for $995 f. o. b. factory, complete with front and rear bumpers and self-energizing 4-wheel brakes.
