Lacrosse Men Lost to Cornell and Syracuse

The inexperience of the Nittany twelve counted against them, but was more than made up for, by their nervous die attitude throughout, while the veteran Syracuse combination used their lacrosse knowledge gained by playing through long schedules of the past two and in many cases three years to take advantage of every break. Belfield, injured Lion star, played part of the Cornell fray and the entire Syracuse game.

Final result reading 5-2 in favor of the Ithacans.

According to accounts written by Syracuse newspaper men, the Lions twelve outplayed the strong Orange team which gained a 7-3 decision, during parts of the first half and during most of the final session. But, according to Coach Paul, the Lion's misfortune was uncanny, his men receiving bad breaks on nearly every crucial occasion.

at first and Delp at second completed the second frame.
Bases on balls to Styborski and Dohbelar succeeded by a circuit of bases accounted for two runs in the third inning. Kent sacrificed to advance Sty and Bill. Lungren hit a three bagger to right field but attempting to stretch it into a homer, he was put out by Eisenmann near the plate. Upon Delp's strikeout the game launched into the fourth inning when three men in succession were retired.

Starting off the sixth frame with the scores still tied at three, Lungren flied out to right field. Delp sent a hit to right and gained third on a wild pitch. Page's hit scored the left fielder. Wolff was out on a roller to second base. Singley gained first on balls but was put out in an attempt to reach second, leaving Page stranded on third.
Harrington started the seventh for the Lions by gaining first on a hit to left field. A two base hit to right field by Styborski advanced him to third. Dohbelar made out before reaching first, Kent was struck out but Lungren walked. This left three men on base. Delp sent a fly to center field and was out.

Page started the eighth with a three base hit and reached home when Wolff was safe on an error. Singley bunted, Wolff was put out by third basemen on a throw from first and Harrington struck out. The Orangemen went out meekly in their last at bat.

"Roxy" heard by millions,
a favorite in Radio-land,
always careful of his voice

writes:

"During a strenuous rehearsal, with the work entailed in operating the World's Largest Theatre, where one's nervous system is working under great pressure, there is nothing quite like a 'Lucky Strike' cigarette. It does not impair the voice, and gives the mental relaxation so essential to carry on."

You, too, will find that Lucky Strikes are mild and mellow—the finest cigarettes you ever smoked, made of the finest Turkish and domestic tobaccos, properly aged and blended with great skill, and there is an extra process—"It's toasted"—no harshness, not a bit of bite.

After College—What? A Vital Question

Are you going into business? If so, are you facing years of apprenticeship, the costly and discouraging trial and error method of learning the principles of business with the possibility of never attaining success?

Would you not prefer to be equipped with a thorough training that should enable you to follow a steady rise in leadership? If you wish to be thoroughly grounded in the fundamental laws of business, and to know how these laws are applied in actual business life, Babson Institute can serve you—and serve you well. Here a student learns not only the theoretical, but the practical application of business principles.

A course at Babson Institute would represent an investment that will help you to acquire the "corner stones" for a successful business career—business leadership.

Write or talk to your parents about this important personal problem. Ask for our booklet to take home.
