

Penn State Collegian

Armory Slated For New Roof

What's Their Main Line?

VOL. XXII, No. 59

STATE COLLEGE, PA., FRIDAY, MAY 13, 1927

PRICE FIVE CENTS

Berryhill, Feight, Stone Get Class Presidencies

McWilliams, Greenshields, Leyda Head Secretary Aspirants--Webb, Delp, Gilder, Are Treasurers

After Tuesday and Wednesday's voting, Penn State's class government passed into new hands.

C. C. Berryhill, with 268 votes, C. D. Feight, with 218 ballots and W. A. Stone, favored by 145 students, were elected to the senior, junior and sophomore class presidencies over H. B. Von Neida, E. J. Lockwood and J. N. Stahler.

TRACKMEN MEET NAVY TOMORROW

Lions Favored to Beat Middies At Annapolis--Strong in Track Events

CARTMELL TAKES LARGE SQUAD FOR INITIAL TILT

A strong Penn State track team leaves today for Annapolis to engage the Navy tomorrow in the first dual meet of the year.

Offenhausen, Smith and Kittle should account for at least eight points in the half-mile mile Cox, indoor intercollegiate one-mile champion, Captain Stewart and Hoffmeyer, are expected to score heavily in the one-mile event.

Penn State Club Signs Campus Owls for May Twenty-seventh Dance

After considering several local orchestras for its May Hop, the Penn State Club has engaged John Henzey and his Campus Owls to furnish the music for the All-College function to be held on May twenty-seventh in the Armory.

MANDOLIN CLUB CHOOSES LEADERS FOR NEXT YEAR

The Mandolin Club elections for next year resulted in the choosing of P. Tulenko '28, president; R. B. Atkinson '28, vice-president; William Simon, Jr., '28, secretary; W. A. Stroup '28, J. D. Martz, Jr. '29, and F. N. Volk '30, managers, and J. E. Venable '28, lieutenant.

CHARLES SCHWAB ADDRESSES OPEN INDUSTRIAL GROUP MEETING TONIGHT

Former College Trustee Will Speak at Gathering in Gift Auditorium

WILL BE DINNER GUEST

Seats Have Been Reserved for Two Hundred Delegates To Conference

Charles H. Schwab, former trustee of the College and at present chairman of the board of directors of the Bethlehem steel corporation, will speak at eight o'clock tonight on "Sentiment in Business" in the Auditorium which is his gift to Penn State.

Will Hold Fittings for Caps and Gowns Today

Seniors whose names fall between J and R will report at Montgomery's from six to eight-thirty o'clock this evening for cap and gown measurements; those between R and Z, Saturday. Late comers will be fitted fifty cents.

GRANT AWARDS ON SCHOLARSHIP DAY

Prizes To Be Given During Last Two Morning Periods on May Nineteenth

CHANCELLOR BOWMAN IS PRINCIPAL SPEAKER

Numerous scholarship awards, including the White Fellowship of six hundred dollars for graduate work, and the various elections to honorary societies will be announced at the Scholarship Day exercises in the Auditorium during the last two hours next Thursday morning.

PRESIDENT HETZEL WILL REVIEW COLLEGE R. O. T. C.

Inter-company Competition and Athletic Contests Mark Field Day Program

President Hetzel will review the Penn State R. O. T. C. unit at the annual Field Day celebration scheduled for Friday afternoon, May twenty-seventh.

Following the review, a manual of arms competition will take place, in which one man will represent each company. The President's medals in gold, silver, and bronze will be awarded to the three men placing highest in the contest.

Yearling Tossers Will Oppose Wyoming Team

Coach Leo Houck's freshman baseball team will line up against the Wyoming Seminary tossers on New Beaver diamond tomorrow with paterly the same group which appeared against Kiski last week.

ARMORY, RE-SHINGLED, STARTS LIFE ANEW WITH CLEAN SLATE

Indoor baseball, numeral painting and severe weather conditions are the joint causes to which the necessity of re-roofing the Armory, is attributed.

Raqueeters Encounter Lehigh Netmen Today

Five varsity netmen left yesterday for Bethlehem where they will encounter the Lehigh tennis aggregation this afternoon.

STRONG VILLANOVA NINE WILL PROVIDE BATTLE FOR LIONS

Veteran Team To Face Nittany Bat Bearers Tomorrow on New Beaver Diamond

HENSIL IS EXPECTED TO PITCH FOR VISITING TEAM

Regular Line-up Picked to Play Against Baseball Team From Main Line

Penn State's baseball team will meet a strong Villanova attack here tomorrow on New Beaver diamond at two-thirty o'clock.

NOVELTY ENTERTAINMENT WILL MARK FARMERS BALL

Ted Brownagle's Arcadians Will Play Special Numbers in Variety Program

Post Move-up Day apparel will be in style for the Ag All-College dance in the Armory on Friday night, May twentieth, announces the committee in charge.

PHI MU ALPHA ELECTIONS

N. I. Coakley '27, D. T. Faust '28, J. P. Jewell '28, L. C. Matheson '28, E. J. Morris '28, E. M. Peck '28, W. S. Sims '28, E. C. Eventt '29, P. V. Rice '29

P'ARM NOUS ELECTIONS

T. J. Costello '28, W. J. McLaughlin '28

FOUR CLASSES WILL DON NEW ATTIRE TOMORROW FOR ANNUAL MOVE-UP DAY

All-College Dance in Armory, With Two Orchestras Playing Continuous Music, Will Conclude Gala Program--Seniors Plant Ivy Monday

W. P. REED TO DELIVER ORATION AT CEREMONY

Sings on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday Will Comprise Group Music Program

Traditional college activities will not cease with the closing of the numerous Move-up Day events tomorrow.

HASTINGS WILL BE NEW A. A. LEADER

J. C. Belfield '28, Will Be Next Year's Vice-president and Liggett, Secretary

ALL AMENDMENTS TO CONSTITUTION PASSED

The establishment of a board of athletic control and the raising of the status of basketball to a major sport are the two most important of the thirty amendments to the Athletic Association passed by the student referendum Monday.

STICKMEN PREPARE FOR LEHIGH GAME

Lacrossemen Gained Wealth of Experience in Cornell, Syracuse Games

FOUR REGULARS ARE ON NITTANY'S INJURED LIST

A wealth of experience and lacrosse knowledge instead of the desired victories was the result of the recent games played by the Lion stickmen on their invasion of the Syracuse and Cornell camps last Thursday and Saturday.

TOPIAN SOCIETY HOLDS ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Election of officers for next year was held by the Topian club, land scape architectural society, at a recent meeting.

PHI KAPPA PHI KAPPA COMPOSE NEW CHAPTER OF KAPPA PHI KAPPA

Twenty-two Penn State men were installed as the Alpha Beta chapter of Kappa Phi Kappa, honorary educational fraternity, Saturday in the Auditorium.

DRUID ELECTIONS

H. E. Giddens '30, H. H. Eschback '30, T. B. Gettings '30, W. E. Giles '30, W. B. Leyda '30, V. A. Martin '30, J. R. McCracken '30, J. R. Miller '30, G. E. Mobley '30, C. D. Morrill '30, T. S. Panaccione '30, W. N. Stahler '30, W. L. Stubble '30

STUDENT PARADE WILL MARK ACTIVE WEEK-END

Underclassmen Engage in Rope-Pull--Winners Choose Freshman Colors

Seniors, juniors, sophomores, and freshmen, all will join in celebrating the second annual Move-up Day when more than three thousand Penn State students doff the customs of the old college regime tomorrow afternoon at one o'clock and usher in the first day of a new custom period by gathering en masse on Co-op corner.

PENN STATE PLAYERS TO PRESENT "A FULL HOUSE"

Freshmen Predominate in Cast of Farce-comedy Set for Tomorrow Night

CHANGE SUMMER SCHOOL REGISTRATION FORMULAE

Students to Enroll With Deans of Schools Previously Attended

Several changes in the method of registration will take effect with the coming Summer Session, announces P. C. Weaver, assistant director.

Y. M. C. A. WILL HOLD SUNDAY SCHOOL PARLEY

"My Job in Life" is the general subject to be discussed at the boys' conference of the Sunday schools of Centre county which will be held here this week-end under the supervision of the Y. M. C. A.

Pittsburgh Rector To Address Chapel

Dr. E. J. VanEtten, rector of Calvary Episcopal church, the largest in the Pittsburgh diocese, will address chapel-goers Sunday morning in the Auditorium.

Six I. F. Baseball Frays Scheduled for Tonight

Six games are scheduled for this evening's round of the Interfraternity Baseball league. They are as follows: Delta Sigma Phi vs. Kappa Delta Rho, Phi Kappa Alpha vs. Alpha Chi Sigma, Alpha Sigma Phi vs. Omega Delta Epsilon, Alpha Phi Sigma vs. Alpha Gamma Phi, Theta Chi vs. Delta Upsilon, Phi Kappa vs. Phi Lambda Theta.

Tomorrow Noon To End Senior Lion Suit Sale

Lion Suits will be on sale today and tomorrow morning at Stark Brothers' store. These are the final dates on which the senior Move-up Day apparel may be purchased.

Seniors, juniors, sophomores, and freshmen, all will join in celebrating the second annual Move-up Day when more than three thousand Penn State students doff the customs of the old college regime tomorrow afternoon at one o'clock and usher in the first day of a new custom period by gathering en masse on Co-op corner.

When the classes meet tomorrow afternoon, seniors will assemble on new Co-op, juniors on old Co-op, sophomores along West College and freshmen along Allen street. The four classes will all appear in new, regalia: seniors immaculate in their white Lion suits, juniors resplendent in their class blazers, sophomores unburdened by cumbersome coats, and the happy freshmen will get their first real taste of College-cut garb.

When the classes meet tomorrow afternoon, seniors will assemble on new Co-op, juniors on old Co-op, sophomores along West College and freshmen along Allen street. The four classes will all appear in new, regalia: seniors immaculate in their white Lion suits, juniors resplendent in their class blazers, sophomores unburdened by cumbersome coats, and the happy freshmen will get their first real taste of College-cut garb.

Seniors, juniors, sophomores, and freshmen, all will join in celebrating the second annual Move-up Day when more than three thousand Penn State students doff the customs of the old college regime tomorrow afternoon at one o'clock and usher in the first day of a new custom period by gathering en masse on Co-op corner.

When the classes meet tomorrow afternoon, seniors will assemble on new Co-op, juniors on old Co-op, sophomores along West College and freshmen along Allen street. The four classes will all appear in new, regalia: seniors immaculate in their white Lion suits, juniors resplendent in their class blazers, sophomores unburdened by cumbersome coats, and the happy freshmen will get their first real taste of College-cut garb.

When the classes meet tomorrow afternoon, seniors will assemble on new Co-op, juniors on old Co-op, sophomores along West College and freshmen along Allen street. The four classes will all appear in new, regalia: seniors immaculate in their white Lion suits, juniors resplendent in their class blazers, sophomores unburdened by cumbersome coats, and the happy freshmen will get their first real taste of College-cut garb.

When the classes meet tomorrow afternoon, seniors will assemble on new Co-op, juniors on old Co-op, sophomores along West College and freshmen along Allen street. The four classes will all appear in new, regalia: seniors immaculate in their white Lion suits, juniors resplendent in their class blazers, sophomores unburdened by cumbersome coats, and the happy freshmen will get their first real taste of College-cut garb.

When the classes meet tomorrow afternoon, seniors will assemble on new Co-op, juniors on old Co-op, sophomores along West College and freshmen along Allen street. The four classes will all appear in new, regalia: seniors immaculate in their white Lion suits, juniors resplendent in their class blazers, sophomores unburdened by cumbersome coats, and the happy freshmen will get their first real taste of College-cut garb.

When the classes meet tomorrow afternoon, seniors will assemble on new Co-op, juniors on old Co-op, sophomores along West College and freshmen along Allen street. The four classes will all appear in new, regalia: seniors immaculate in their white Lion suits, juniors resplendent in their class blazers, sophomores unburdened by cumbersome coats, and the happy freshmen will get their first real taste of College-cut garb.

When the classes meet tomorrow afternoon, seniors will assemble on new Co-op, juniors on old Co-op, sophomores along West College and freshmen along Allen street. The four classes will all appear in new, regalia: seniors immaculate in their white Lion suits, juniors resplendent in their class blazers, sophomores unburdened by cumbersome coats, and the happy freshmen will get their first real taste of College-cut garb.

When the classes meet tomorrow afternoon, seniors will assemble on new Co-op, juniors on old Co-op, sophomores along West College and freshmen along Allen street. The four classes will all appear in new, regalia: seniors immaculate in their white Lion suits, juniors resplendent in their class blazers, sophomores unburdened by cumbersome coats, and the happy freshmen will get their first real taste of College-cut garb.

When the classes meet tomorrow afternoon, seniors will assemble on new Co-op, juniors on old Co-op, sophomores along West College and freshmen along Allen street. The four classes will all appear in new, regalia: seniors immaculate in their white Lion suits, juniors resplendent in their class blazers, sophomores unburdened by cumbersome coats, and the happy freshmen will get their first real taste of College-cut garb.

When the classes meet tomorrow afternoon, seniors will assemble on new Co-op, juniors on old Co-op, sophomores along West College and freshmen along Allen street. The four classes will all appear in new, regalia: seniors immaculate in their white Lion suits, juniors resplendent in their class blazers, sophomores unburdened by cumbersome coats, and the happy freshmen will get their first real taste of College-cut garb.

When the classes meet tomorrow afternoon, seniors will assemble on new Co-op, juniors on old Co-op, sophomores along West College and freshmen along Allen street. The four classes will all appear in new, regalia: seniors immaculate in their white Lion suits, juniors resplendent in their class blazers, sophomores unburdened by cumbersome coats, and the happy freshmen will get their first real taste of College-cut garb.

When the classes meet tomorrow afternoon, seniors will assemble on new Co-op, juniors on old Co-op, sophomores along West College and freshmen along Allen street. The four classes will all appear in new, regalia: seniors immaculate in their white Lion suits, juniors resplendent in their class blazers, sophomores unburdened by cumbersome coats, and the happy freshmen will get their first real taste of College-cut garb.

When the classes meet tomorrow afternoon, seniors will assemble on new Co-op, juniors on old Co-op, sophomores along West College and freshmen along Allen street. The four classes will all appear in new, regalia: seniors immaculate in their white Lion suits, juniors resplendent in their class blazers, sophomores unburdened by cumbersome coats, and the happy freshmen will get their first real taste of College-cut garb.

When the classes meet tomorrow afternoon, seniors will assemble on new Co-op, juniors on old Co-op, sophomores along West College and freshmen along Allen street. The four classes will all appear in new, regalia: seniors immaculate in their white Lion suits, juniors resplendent in their class blazers, sophomores unburdened by cumbersome coats, and the happy freshmen will get their first real taste of College-cut garb.

When the classes meet tomorrow afternoon, seniors will assemble on new Co-op, juniors on old Co-op, sophomores along West College and freshmen along Allen street. The four classes will all appear in new, regalia: seniors immaculate in their white Lion suits, juniors resplendent in their class blazers, sophomores unburdened by cumbersome coats, and the happy freshmen will get their first real taste of College-cut garb.

When the classes meet tomorrow afternoon, seniors will assemble on new Co-op, juniors on old Co-op, sophomores along West College and freshmen along Allen street. The four classes will all appear in new, regalia: seniors immaculate in their white Lion suits, juniors resplendent in their class blazers, sophomores unburdened by cumbersome coats, and the happy freshmen will get their first real taste of College-cut garb.

When the classes meet tomorrow afternoon, seniors will assemble on new Co-op, juniors on old Co-op, sophomores along West College and freshmen along Allen street. The four classes will all appear in new, regalia: seniors immaculate in their white Lion suits, juniors resplendent in their class blazers, sophomores unburdened by cumbersome coats, and the happy freshmen will get their first real taste of College-cut garb.