Coach Bezdok sprang a surprise when he announced that George Delp, who has been lagging behind the veterans for many days, would play right end instead of Barney Slamp. Lesko has retraced his old right wing place and will receive the call for that post instead of Al Wilson. Mahoney, at center, will compose the bulk of the line along with Toots Panaceon, right tackle and Don Greenshields, clever Lion mate on the other side of the line. Wilson, Slamp and Curry ends, are awaiting substitution calls along with Parana, center, Livermore and Martin, guards, and Dangenfield Harrington Langren and Hewitt, second defense aspirants. Morrill, promising guard, will be unavailable since his recent injury. A tendon pulled in his knee will keep him on the bench.

Lebanon Valley fans are optimistic about the chances of the Annullville eleven in the opening encounter with the Nittany Lion. A team of veterans that have composed Coach Mylin's combination for the past three years may achieve their aim, for several

FRATERNITIES TO HOUSE ROTARIANS

I. F. Council Names Committee For Smoker To Be Given President Hetzel

DECIDES TO DEAL WITH DELINQUENT MEMBERS

To provide rooming accommodation for visiting Rotarians who will attend the state-wide convention here October seventh and eighth, the interfraternity council met Wednesday evening.

Although many of the visitors will be taken care of by their sons who are enrolled at the College now, the majority of the delegates will be housed by the Interfraternity Council. At the same meeting, a committee was appointed to prepare plans for a smoker to be tendered President Hetzel after the Thanksgiving holidays.

Craig Williams '29, was appointed as chairman of the scholarship committee for the year.

Slack has been holding down the right tackle post and is matched by Shawley on the other side of the line. Elgart and Gordon are the guards while Bausch centers the ball.

Five on Injured List

Five freshmen footballers have succumbed to injuries, including Dick Furhman, picked as center on the second All-New Jersey team last fall who left school several days ago with appendicitis. Sheldon and Jim Love are nursing bad charley-horses. Klotz, a product of Syracuse, is limping around with a wrenched knee which may keep him out of college for a short time, and Howard Macomber, a former team-mate of Klotz in the Salt city, has sprained his knee to such a degree that he is definitely out for the season.

SCHOOL OF ENGINEERING NAMES NEW INSTRUCTOR

G. D. Thomas, a graduate of Drexel Institute in Electrical Engineering has been appointed to take charge of the foreman training conference work at Penn State, it was announced by the School of Engineering yesterday.

Mr. Thomas was previously connected with the Western Electric company as an instructor in foreman training, using the same method.

More Members Needed In Sunday Chapel Choir

More girls, especially sopranos, although altos are wanted too, are needed for the college choir, according to Director Grant.

One credit, which can be used towards graduation, will be given for participation in this activity. All girls who are at all interested are urged to come out to rehearsal in the Auditorium Thursday evening.

The Girls Glee Club, which is also under the leadership of Director Grant, will hold try-outs for new members some day next week in the Auditorium from five to six o'clock.
