Bold Freshman Breaks Customs for Thirty-five Years Without Reprimand

Penn State's untited legion of football warriors will skinmish with the Battlefield Battalion from Gettysburg tomorrow afternoon on New Beaver field in the second encounter of the 1927 gridinon campaign.

The Dads' Dav fraca's, scheduled for two-thirty o'clock, will mark the renewing of hostilities between the opporing Pennsylvania teams after a lanse of two years. The Orange and Blue, locally famous for the fighting caliber of teams that have represented those colors, advertise their finished product last ore of like quality and predict plents of trouble for Bezdek's changes in tomorrow's battle of brawn.

Berdek Strengthens Team Meanwhile the Nittany mentor has let no time worrying about the statist's strength of Gettysburg and has been tightening the loose parts of a gridinon machine with alternate light practice and scrimmage. Pateullar stress is being land on the strength of merchene, general speed and accurace, as well as technique of offensive and defensive play for linemen.
