have not been disposed of will be put on sale at the smoker.

Saturday night following the game the dance will be held on the roof of the hotel, with Ches West's radio band to furnish the music. The admission fee to the dance will be four dollars per couple or three dollars for club members and for those who purchase tickets for the dance when they buy their smoker ticket.

C. C. Hildebrand '92, president of the Philadelphia alumni, will preside over the smoker while Victor Egbert '13, famous art director, will handle arrangements for the dance.

Secretary Sullivan further announced that headquarters for Penn State followers in Syracuse on the eve of the Syracuse battle, October twenty-second, will be the Hotel Onondaga. A supper will be served there on Friday night after which a smoker will be held.

A cherished honor

That it's a real collegiate favorite everywhere is but one of many honors borne by the jade-green pen with the little white dot. And because this Lifetime pen spends most days in the writing hand and least in repair shops, it is worthy of all honor. Unconditionally guaranteed for a lifetime of flawless writing, it costs more because it is worth more. Its careful, sturdy construction makes possible the guarantee. And the Titan pencil is a twin in dependability.

The one cigarette in a million

THE instant a Camel is lighted, you sense that here is the distinctly better cigarette. And how this superior quality grows with the smoking! Choice tobaccos tell their fragrant story. Patient, careful blending rewards the smoker with added pleasure.

Camel is the one cigarette in a million for mildness and mellowness. Its decided goodness wins world popularity.

Modern smokers demand superiority. They find it fulfilled in Camels, and place them overwhelmingly first.

You should know the tastes and fragrances that choice tobaccos really give. Camels will reveal an entirely new pleasure. And the more of them you light, the more enjoyable. "Have a Camel!"
