promising young men in the British Labor party. Mr. Haddon, representing the University of Edinburgh, received his M. A. degree in 1925 when he was twenty-one years of age. He is now in his last year of study in preparation for admission to the Scottish bar.

Frosh Beat Dickinson In Opening Grid Game

(Continued from first page) changing, Tommy Gordon and Zorella guiding Cantanella at center with unpenetrable defense and smashing offense worthy of veterans, the plebe first line was fast, aggressive and not to be withstood by the Seminary gridders. Reynolds took the guiding reins at the kick-off with Spike Collins in the fullback role and Geisler and Diedrich as the halfbacks. In the second quarter French substituted for Reynolds and before the whistle for the half sounded he had run twice for touchdowns against the Williamsport aggregation. On the receiving end of a screen pass tossed by Collins, the stocky quarterback slipped through the enemy defense and stopped only after crossing the goal line. His second marker came when he slid off tackle to dash sixty yards to the end-line.

Geisler scored his touchdown on the same play which enabled the elusive French to count, while Edwards received a pass and Diedrich placed himself in the day's Hall of Fame by successfully carrying out a thirty yard run around right end for his tally. To substitute Lavzey goes the honor of intercepting a forward and reversing the intended six points to the Nittany side of the ledger. Lavzey replaced Collins at fullback in the last quarter. Diedrich and Geisler scored the points after touchdown.

Only One Injury
Despite the hard playing of the freshmen only one man was injured Bausch, entering the game at center in place of Sanantello, hurt his ankle. He had been out of scrimmage for a week with his arm in a sling because of a dislocated shoulder and was to play but a short time.

The captain for the 1931 football team will be chosen sometime this week when the entire squad will vote on its prospective leaders to find the man whom they consider to be the most capable to guide the eleven in official matters on the gridiron.

Sub-Committee Will Study New Bond Issue

(Continued from first page) The proposal was first introduced in Harrisburg in 1923 when it passed both Houses. It came before the Legislature once more in 1925 and again was approved by both Houses. At that time the proposal was expected to be placed before the Commonwealth in the fall of 1925. However, a decision from the Attorney-General of the State necessitated postponement until 1928.

It is with the object of outlining a definite program to submit to the people of the State at that time that the sub-committee appointed Saturday will get to work.

Education Head Visits Various College Deans

(Continued from first page) zel, the Deans of all the schools and several instructors, exchanging with them, ideas about their part of the College work. He met them first as a group and then had separate talks with each of them. He also conferred with Registrar W. S. Hoffman and Comptroller R. H. Smith. All promised their support to his cooperative plan.

Before coming here Doctor Klein visited twenty-eight colleges in the South and West and during October plans to visit all of the institutions in the East.
