ALUMNI WILL EXHIBIT AT ANNUAL HORT SHOW

Students Will Display Flowers, Fruits and Vegetables For Prize Awards

Arrangements for the annual alumni-undergraduate horticulture show next Saturday have been completed. H. B. Walton '28, in charge of the affair. Fruit, vegetable and flower exhibits will be displayed in two groups, the alumni and the undergraduate, with prize awards for each group.

In addition students landscape architecture have submitted designs for an exhibition of architectural principles in room 101 Hort building. Co-eds in the home economics department will compete in a cooking contest to determine the many uses to which apples can be put.

Each of the three exhibits will be divided into a number of classes with a silver cup award for the best displays by the alumni and a bronze medal for the best student displays. Second and third prize winners will be presented with ribbons.

Lions Determined To Break Syracuse Jinx

Cy Hits the Line

Hitting the line with unusual power, Cy Lungren, signal caller for the Lions has improved considerably in this respect while fullback Hannas has flashed remarkable ability in skirting the ends. Wolf continues to squirm through the tackles for substantial gains.

Although practice was held in the rain all this week, the elements failed to dampen the spirit of the Nittany team. Despite the rain, passes continued to gain ground for the varsity while a new mystifying back formation proved effective against the scrubs.

Tries New Backs

The fact that the varsity eleven showed no let-up in its driving power has not prevented Coach Bezdok from cautioning his men against overconfidence inspired by the victory last Saturday. Bez cited the result of Penn's overconfidence. All week the Lion mentor has tried new backfield combinations and it is possible that Craig, Whitmore and Dangerfield will see action in tomorrow's fray. The team arrived at Syracuse early this morning and all of the men are in fine condition and in excellent spirits.

Accounts of the game will be broadcast by stations WFBL and WSYR. More than a thousand Penn State students are expected to witness the game and Syracuse alumni are preparing for a huge smoker and rally.

most for the purpose of revising the by-laws of the organization. The grid game between the plebe team and Bellefonte Academy and the Penn-Penn State soccer tilt, both at ten o'clock, will complete the program of the morning.

Luncheon in Armory

A luncheon provided by the Parent-Teachers association of State College, will be served in the Armory at noon. The proceeds of this meal will go toward providing a scholarship to the College for some worthy local student. After the football game with Lafayette college beginning at two o'clock, the old grads will repair to their various fraternity houses in order as Mr. Sullivan states, to get better acquainted with the active members. For women alumni there will be a "get-together" in the Women's Building at eight o'clock Saturday evening. At the same time the men will return to the Armory for a cider party. While partaking of cider and pretzels the former students will be entertained by a student orchestra, the Penn State Thespians, W. T. Neff '28, veteran magician as well. Several athletic exhibitions will be staged. During the week-end several school exhibits will prove interesting to the visitors. The horticultural exhibit, the poultry show and displays in the engineering buildings are numbered among these.

"Yes, Willard Mack is right, Luckies are best," says Paul Berlenbach

Popular pugilist tells his manager, Benedict Sterns, that Lucky Strikes are the finest cigarettes.

Willard Mack, Noted Author, Producer and Actor, writes:

"We people of the theatre are, as a rule, extremists. This is the reflex action from overwrought nerves. When a man smokes forty cigarettes a day, as I do, he must be sure of his brand. I smoke Lucky Strikes because I have found they are soothing to the nerves and at the same time they cause no throat irritation. My voice is always in perfect condition and I am never troubled by any coughing which might be annoying to me in my work as an actor."

Willard Mack

You, too, will find that LUCKY STRIKES give the greatest pleasure—Mild and Mellow, the finest cigarettes you ever smoked. Made of the choicest tobaccos, properly aged and blended with great skill, and there is an extra process—"IT'S TOASTED"—no harshness, not a bit of bite.

"It's toasted"

No Throat Irritation—No Cough.
