

Five Veterans Who End Lion Career Against Pitt Thanksgiving Day

Captain Roepke

Grim Nittany Gridmen Hope To Fell Panther

(Continued from first page)

most stubborn to be opposed this year, the Lion wallmen have undergone strenuous scrimmages to condition themselves for the last and supreme effort of the 1927 season. Earnest in their toils, the linemen have sprinted with much spirit and sent fierce shoulder attacks against the padded posts of the cumbersome line machine, so that, after the two-day rest, their condition should be prime.

Lesko, whose stellar performance in the N. Y. U. encounter led to his All-American classification by some leading sports writers, is prepared for the game of his career and stands ready to prove his championship worth. Mahoney, another All-American prospect on the Nittany beef wall, is anxious to prove his superiority over Cutler, Pitt's burly pivot man.

Aerial Game Strengthened
With the loss of two excellent passers possible, the Lion coach has been tutoring other men in the art of heaving. Stable, Whitmore and others have taken their turns at hurling the leather oval for long and short distances. Low, speedy tosses that can be completed instantly have been developed in order that incoming opponents will be a lesser source of worry to the Lion second defense men.

In all, a varied assortment of aerial tricks are stored in Bodek's satchel in case sheer brawn is incompetent of gaining the desired victory. Should Wolf and Lungren be lost, an effective passing pair will be broken up, for both are accurate throwers and able receivers.

Al Lesko

Cy Lungren

Fach has been the inspiration and nucleus of his respective football organization. Both are among the leading scorers, with Welch somewhat in the van in this respect, both are sterling line crushers, clever open field runners and deadly forward passers. If Roepke overshadows his Pitt rival, it is only because of his ability to punt long, perplexing spirals that have staved off defeat for the Lions more than once. A game-winning run by either of these players may secure his name on the select roster of grid heroes.

While most of the interest is centered about their rival leaders, spectators may be surprised to discover another private duel between Steve Hannas and Allan Booth, opposing fullbacks. With three years' experience, Booth should prove the more effective player, although Hannas, whose improvement has been steady, may carry off the day's honors with his powerful line crashing. Booth is also one of the East's leading scorers, nearest to Roepke than is Welch. Hannas is becoming more and more the eleven's fighting type of back. He was not stopped once in the Violet game.

Pitt Is Experienced
Experience may be offered as one reason for Pitt's powerful gridiron organization. Welch, Booth, Kern, Roberts, Wasmuth, Hogan, Cutler and Guarino, all regulars, have played together for three consecutive years with little change in the line-ups. Edwards, sophomore quarterback, is the only ball carrier who has not seen three years of action. Contrasted with Pitt's veteran combine, the Penn State machine is practically new. Panaccione, Martin, Rekers, Craig, Miller and Whitmore are all playing their first year of varsity football; Wolf, Hannas, Delp, Greenshields and Krall have played two years, while

Hal Hastings

Second-Year Speakers To Vie For Cash Prizes

(Continued from first page)

is that they be enrolled in one English course.

On the following evening the contestants will report to their assigned group at seven-thirty o'clock to speak before the committees of judges from the English department. The winners from each section will then be eligible for the final prize competition. The judges for this contest will be composed of faculty members from the various schools.

Roz Mahoney

POSITION WANTED—Man and wife as fraternity cooks 132 1/2 South Bannard street

Fire Insurance
EUGENE H. LEDERER

KDKA To Broadcast Penn State Program

(Continued from first page)

under the auspices of the Penn State Club of Pittsburgh. Following the Pitt-State football game, Thursday, dances will be held at Webster Hall and the Hotel Schenley.

RECEIVES MAJOR'S RANK

Captain Paul J. McDonnell of the R. O. T. C. staff has been awarded the rank of major, the title he held as a member of General Pershing's staff in France during the war. Major McDonnell is assigned to the infantry department of the College military unit.

BEAT
PITT

"You Can Get It At Metzger's"

Special This Week Only
ANY 75c POPULAR COPYRIGHT - - 55c

AN EXCELLENT PIPE VALUE
S and Class Numerals on Bow! - only $1.00

WATCH FOR OUR SPECIALS EVERY WEEK

L. K. METZGER

"I commenced to smoke Lucky Strikes when I read Basiola's advice"

Said Madeleine Northway to her partner, George Chiles, before presenting their dance numbers at The Cascades at the Biltmore Hotel, New York City.

You, too, will find that LUCKY STRIKES give the greatest pleasure—Mild and Mellow, the finest cigarettes you ever smoked. Made of the choicest tobaccos, properly aged and blended with great skill, and there is an extra process—"IT'S TOASTED"—no harshness, not a bit of bite.

© Miskin, N.Y.

Mario Basiola,
Metropolitan Opera Star,
writes:

"More and more I note that men and women, whose voices are their livelihood and whose voices must be kept in condition, now smoke Lucky Strikes. I find they do not affect my throat in the slightest."

Mario Basiola

"It's toasted"

No Throat Irritation—No Cough.

RENT
A
CAR
DRIVE-IT-YOURSELF
116 McAllister

PATRONIZE OUR ADVERTISERS

Five minutes to play

The score 21-0 against dear old Swansh. Brown, the greatest Swansh quarter-back, gets the ball. He rushes down the field for a touchdown. But one sn't enough. He makes another . . . another . . . another . . . until the score stands 28-21. And Swansh wins. 50,000 people go crazy. They yell themselves hoarse. Brown marries the girl and is now mining fire-proof coal in Labrador.

Well! What of it? Brownie, his girl and all the bunch drank "Canada Dry" after the game, the coolest, most thirst-quenching ginger ale they'd ever tasted. Because it contains only pure Jamaica ginger, it has a delightful flavor . . . tang to it . . . dryness . . . sparkle. Because it blends well with other beverages.

Drink "Canada Dry!" The Champagne of Ginger Ales. When your friends drop in . . . on every occasion

"CANADA DRY"

"The Champagne of Ginger Ales"

Extract imported from Canada and bottled in the U. S. A. by Canada Dry Ginger Ale, Incorporated, 25 W. 1st Street, New York, N. Y. In Canada, J. J. McLaughlin Limited, Established 1890

Play it dark and easy! The name "Canada Dry" on the bottle cap means that no one can put over a fast one on you.

Thanksgiving Greetings

Hann & O'Neal

Another Cold Snap on the Way

Cold weather will not spoil your rest if you have

KANTLEEK Hot Water Bottles

In the course of our many years of selling Drug Store merchandise, we have never sold a more satisfactory Hot Water Bottle than Kantleek.

It is made entirely in one piece—that's why it can't leak. It has no patches, splices, seams or binding, and the stopple socket is molded right into the rubber. Although it's guaranteed for two years, it costs only

$2.50

Rexall Drug Store
Robert J. Miller