Students Submit Song Numbers to Thespians

Fisher, an old contributor, had four numbers, one of them being a ballad, "Meet Me In The Summer-time." The for Vocational Education for four of the staff of the Chicago Tribune for years. He was an editorial writer on four years and since 1921 has been director of the Julius Rosenwald Fund.

Fraternity Executive

Doctor Shepardson who is at present vice-president of Phi Beta Kappa, honorary scholastic fraternity, and grand president of Aeneas, Masoneo fraternity, is also national president of Beta Theta Pi. He will speak at the interfraternity conference which will be held here at that time.

other three were fox-trots, one of which was a probable theme number. Sherwood Smith was the principal contributor at the hearing, including among his group a few first-rate selections. "Day Dreams," an ecclesiastical waltz, was much in favor. "Make Me Happy Again" an excellent soft-shoe number, was probably the outstanding composition submitted at the try-outs. Smith also wrote a ballad entitled, "Oh Dear!"

Ralph G. Kennedy '28, stage manager, explains that this try-out does not close the competition. Manuscripts will be accepted until midnight, Sunday, January sixteenth, after which the final selections will be made.

What Will 1928 Mean for You?

Will it be your last year in college?

Possibly it is the year you have planned to enter business — and prove you have ability to make good!

But are you prepared for business? Have you a thorough knowledge of the fundamental laws of Finance, Management, Production and Distribution?

Babson Institute offers you the opportunity of a training in the methods as well as the theories of business. Here you would be taught to do the things expected of you in actual business.

Your college training would prove an excellent foundation for this intensive course.

They say P.A. is the world's largest seller

I DON'T doubt it, nor do I wonder why. Just open a tidy red tin and get that full fragrance of Nature's noblest gift to pipe-smokers. Then tuck a load in the business-end of your old jimmy-pipe.

Now you've got it—that taste—that Lead-me-to-it, Gee-how-I-like-it taste! Cool as a condition. Sweet as making it up. Mellow and satisfying. Try this mild, long-burning tobacco, Fellows. I know you'll like it.
