Bausch as score-defenders. Meyers and Mazess are speed, and will keep the front forwards hard-pressed to hold their places as regulars.

Of the eight players remaining who are not among the first ten Eastburn and Pennacker will substitute at center, Saltzman, Furey and Williams at guard, and Miles, Love and Ruthrauf at forward. Lary declares that he will have a difficult job in picking out regulars with such an abundance of good material.

week at houses to be announced later. At this time there will be a general discussion of the problems related to the different fraternity offices. A smoker to which all fraternity men are invited, a mass meeting in the Auditorium and a formal banquet which will probably be held at the University Club, are other events included on the three-day program.

ten points, but was unable to equal sensational shooting of the Penn star, Lou Reilly, who scored fifteen of his team's twenty-three points. Lou Reilly played his best game this season, sinking three field goals and consistently outjumping Captain Connell Delp, Von Neida score.

After two minutes during which neither team could find the basket, Captain Gene Connell put the Quaker city quintet in the lead with a long shot from midcourt. Hamas and Reilly evened the count with fouls, but Joe Schaaf's two fouls and field goal from the side lines again advanced Penn's score. A short while later Connell passed the ball out of a scrimmage under the basket to Schaaf who added two points to the Penn column making the score 8-2 with eight minutes of the half gone.

When play was resumed Schaaf took up the scoring getting three fouls and a neat long shot so that Penn led 14 to 3 when Delp came into the fray at forward. The Nittany athlete almost immediately tallied the first field goal of the evening for the Blue and White passers. For a period following, neither quintet could score until, in the later minutes of the half, Captain Whitey Von Neida dribbled down the floor to cut in and make a perfect shot so that the score stood 14 to 7 in Penn's favor when the half ended.

Lions Rally
Delp opened the final session by heaving in a shot from midcourt. Looev got a foul, and then Delp went into action again. He first got a shot under the basket, a foul and followed up with a long shot from near the center of the court to cut the Penn lead to a narrow one-point margin. Coach McNichol sent Lukaszewicz in to guard Delp and moved Schaaf up to a forward berth in place of Hartnett.

Lobby then tallied two points with a long shot. Lukaszewicz followed with another long toss and Penn held a 19 to 11 margin with the final period half over.

Lou Reilly's pair of field goals put the Lions back in the running, but Schaaf increased the Penn lead to five points again with a clean shot from the side court. When Delp scored a foul, Schaaf retaliated by dribbling down the floor and sinking another two-pointer.

With a minute to play, Reilly cut Penn's margin down to two points by a long shot, but the Red and Blue quintet's freezing tactics baffled the further attempts of the Nittany passers to score and the game ended with the score 23 to 21 in favor of the Quaker City courtmen.

It contains his private notes on dance steps which are kept in his own style which is un-decipherable to the uninitiated but with which he figures out new dances and steps for each show he coaches. From it came the dances for "The Maiden Voyage," the Wayburn success of 1926, and many other productions both amateur and professional. Many of the numbers performed by the Thespian's dancing choirs of the last four years are neatly identical with those of Broadway successes.

Dusty Rhodes' Free Throw— or Fame for a Day

They didn't expect him to make a point. But he made a free throw. And that free throw was the cause of their winning the game. The crowd went wild and more girls wanted to put their arms around Dusty's neck than he could accommodate. Fame!

And after the game Dusty had a few teammates around to his rooms. He served them "Canada Dry." It made a big hit—even bigger than winning the basketball game. More fame!

This ginger ale has a delightful flavor . . . tang to it . . . dryness . . . sparkle. It has a subtle gingery flavor because it is made from pure Jamaica ginger. It contains no capsicum (red pepper), and nota bene it blends well with other beverages.

The Cream of the Tobacco Crop

"I love the Tobacco business. There is a fascination about it that grips you. The fine texture and beauty of a Leaf of Tobacco appeals to the Tobacco buyer as a great Painting does to the artist. I buy Tobacco for LUCKY STRIKE Cigarettes. I buy 'The Cream of the Crop.' Under instructions only the best and mildest goes into LUCKY STRIKE. It is my job to see that this is so."
