Plebe Cagers Subdue St. Francis Five, 39-32

 to counts Eastburn replaced Macomb as tapman and Meyers went in for Mazess at the left forward position Krumrine caged a nice long shot and completed a penalty toss when half time was called.
 Points by field goals and fouls in the third period were evenly divided as both teams fought for the possession of the sphere Macomb was substituted for Eastburn and Mazess for Meyers about the middle of the quarter. Able, of the Maroon, was disqualified on personals and Calahan replaced him at center The timer's whistle blew when the score was 28-22 with Lion contingent at the helm

 When the cagers resumed play at the start of the last quarter there appeared to be a spirit of determination among the St. Francis tossers.
 Before the plebes could adjust themselves, Calahan and Bielski sent the ball through the net, reducing the Nittany lead to two points East-burn again replaced Macomb at center and the Penn State lads called for a time out Espey tied the count with a difficult shot from the side.
 Krumrine broke the tie with a foul toss and Diedrick followed with a field throw giving the plebes a three point margin. Encouraged by this advantage the freshmen managed to keep one step ahead of the Maroon basketees until the end of the game. Mazess and Bielski each completed a tapshot from under the basket as the contest closed with the Coach Houck Considers Shake-up in Mit Team

 use Filagar in the welterweight tilt.
 No question exists as to Kolakoski's title to the lightweight berth but the 116-pounders are waging a stiff battle in their division. Although Cauek Robb has improved his boxing, Wilford and Boruck are evading him with intense competition. The presence of Filagar in this division also adds to the fight for the welter berth since the former lightweight is the speediest man of the quartet.
 The middleweight post is Captain Wolf's while Strubio will get his second chance to represent the varsity this season in the 175-pound tilt.

 Bendick wrenched his shoulder in the Navy meet and will be lost to the team indefinitely. McAndrews will handle the heavyweight assignment.

 Although the sophomore and freshman eliminations have been completed, the interclass scrap will not be held for several weeks so that all the boxers may get into the peak of condition.

Ed: "When did you change to Wingfoots, Ted?" Ted: "The first time I heard Goofus clattering around on hard ones."

Even a heel can have good manners, and carry a quiet, easy dignity wherever it goes.

That's why you see rubber heels on more and more good footwear now, and hear less of the clumpthump-bump of the old hard heels.

Of all rubber heels, Goodyear Wingfoot Heels are greatly preferred—we know they are because more people walk on Goodyear Wingfoot Heels than on any other kind —and preferred for these very reasons of good style and cushioning. They look fine, feel better, and last longer.
