Best College Orators To Compete for Title

Selection of a place to hold the regional meetings is determined by the California sponsors and announced after all entrants have formally enrolled. For final competition there are reserved nine subjects dealing with the Constitution itself or various interpretations of it by early statesmen.

Final prizes are first, fifteen hundred dollars; second, one thousand dollars; third, seven hundred and fifty dollars; fourth, five hundred and fifty dollars; fifth, four hundred and fifty dollars; sixth, four hundred dollars and seventh, three hundred and fifty dollars.

Candidates who intend to enter the College eliminations are requested to register with Coach Fizzell immediately. The trials will be held before Easter to permit extensive preparation for the regional meetings.

almost exact reproduction, both in scenery and in interpretation, of the original version. The stage crew has taken especial pains to create an atmosphere of mystery and gloom. Trick panels and ghostly devices will add tenness to the play. A fireplace, containing similar trick openings, is also necessary for the portrayal of this weird drama.

Work Called for and Delivered

William T. Tilden 2nd to protect his throat, smokes Luckies

“The voice is essential to stage work and its care one of the actor's greatest worries. During the course of some of my stage appearances, I am called upon at intervals to smoke a cigarette and naturally I have to be careful about my choice. I smoke Lucky Strikes and have yet to feel the slightest effect upon my throat. I understand that toasting frees this cigarette from any throat irritants. They're 100% with me.”

Prominent Tobacco Buyer says

“The Cream of the Tobacco Crop” goes into Lucky Strikes

“Buying tobacco for Lucky Strike Cigarettes is a matter of selecting the finest grown. It is my duty and instruction to buy ‘The Cream of the Tobacco Crop’ for this brand. Nothing is omitted or spared in making my purchase just a little better. Quality always tells.”
