Penn State Pugilists Top M.I.T. Ringmen, 6-1

Two rounds to win the judges decision of the "laughing comedian," as the visitor's captain is known in intercollegiate boxing circles. An unexpected turn occurred in the 135-pound setto when Bolanos knocked out Stan Kolakoski in the third round. Both men scored knockdowns in the first round while in the second period, after Kolakoski had staggered Bolanos with a left jab to the face, the M. I. T. boxer came back with a straight right to the Nittany ringman's jaw that sent him down for the count of nine. It was a hard blow and weakened the blond boxer considerably. The third round had hardly gone a minute, when Bolanos landed another telling right that spelled disaster for Kolakoski. This was the first time that the Penn State mitt-man lost by a knockout.

Frankie Manon's superior boxing gave him an easy victory over Sidur in the 115-pound tilt. Eby, wearing the Blue and White uniform for the first time, won from Peatfield after four rounds of unimpressive fighting. Making his first appearance in the waterweight class, Flegar exhibited some of his old-time fighting form against Jameson. The Nittany fighter was going strong in the fourth round when the M. I. T. man accidentally landed a low blow which prevented Flegar from further fighting. Referee McCracken awarded the Lion boxer the bout on an accidental foul. Struble scored a knockout over Hubbard in the light heavyweight scrap. Captain Wolf gave an exhibition bout with Flynn, who was ineligible to represent his college.

Finds Tobacco for "Breaking In" a Pipe

Columbus, Ohio March 10, 1927

Larus & Bro. Co. Richmond, Va. Gentlemen

Two years ago my wife gave me an expensive pipe. I smoked it a great deal for two or three weeks, put it aside, then began smoking it again. This time it was very strong. Veterans told me that it had been smoked too hard for a new pipe and should be put away. The pipe was laid away again. A short time ago I got it out and smoked one of the common brands of tobacco in it. The results were disappointing. I told the druggist of my experience with it. He asked if I had tried Edgeworth. I told him I never had. I followed his suggestion, and I am honest when I say that it has restored the sweetness to the pipe, and has made me wonder: Was it the pipe or the brand of tobacco that caused me to lay it away for the long period of time? As a novice, I prefer Edgeworth. I am going to stick to it, as I feel satisfied that there is none better on the market.

Sincerely yours, Philip C. Shera

ALL THE GO

They have good looks, they have that "It," They're full of Style appeals, They add a grace to shapely feet, Those Goodyear Wingfoot Heels

NO DOUBT you have noticed that Quiet is always one of the qualities of good style. It is a quality that is conspicuously absent from rickety-crackety hard heels.

That may be one of the very good reasons why the better-dressed, sensibly-dressed young people in college and out are preferring rubber heels.

Part of the same good reason is that rubber cushions against the jolts and jars of walking. Especially Goodyear Wingfoot Rubber Heels. Wingfoots give, and lift, and help.

Because Wingfoots are good style, because they cushion better, because they wear longer, keeping their shape and their resilience to the last, more people walk on Goodyear Wingfoot Heels than on any other kind.

How about a minute's visit with the jolly cobbler, in your own community shop, and new Goodyear Wingfoot Heels today!

After College... -your opportunity to Make Good!

W. C. CAVINS

While studying Industrial Management in graduate courses at the University of Pennsylvania in 1922, I was impressed with the rapid growth of the chain store. A Kresge manager with whom I was acquainted, told me of their democratic system of promotion, based on merit and of the unlimited financial opportunities, so I applied for a position.

In 1923 I began work as his first man in the Kresge Company, to learn the business from the beginning. Starting in the stockroom of one of our large stores, I spent several months learning all the many phases of "retailing." I was soon promoted to a position on the floor where I learned to buy and sell and to manage a sales organization. Since then, advancement has always come as rapidly as I was ready for greater responsibilities.

The Kresge Company offers the college man just the opportunity he is looking for. Here, he can apply all that he has learned in the classroom. His well rounded personality is a marked asset. His trained mind enables him to learn rapidly and he is given encouragement and help in managing the many phases of a scientific business. Every detail of store management is given to him in training, every branch of the work is thrown upon him. His progress is encouraged by his associates and superiors, for his success is their success.

I feel sure of my rewards with a company whose growth is limited only by the number of men capable of managing its ever-increasing and expanding units.

CAMPUS days will soon be over. Then follows the biggest job of all, finding success in the business world. And how important it is that you choose a position that is ripe in future possibilities! Will you follow the crowd and accept a job that pays you a fairly good salary now but offers little chance for advancement—or will you sacrifice a little at the start for the sake of greater rewards in the years to come?

If you are willing to begin at the bottom at a small salary and work your way to the top, the Kresge Company offers you an unusual opportunity to make good. Every year we select a limited number of college men and train them in every phase of merchandising and store management. As they advance their salaries are increased and when their training is completed they are given stores of their own to manage—stores in whose profits they share.

If you are looking for an opportunity to make good—to hold a future position of trust and responsibility with an income far above the average—write now to our Personnel Department. We will send a successful graduate of your own college to meet you and tell you more about this Kresge opportunity.
