WHIY THE "Y"?
While a girl is in college she re or less aware of some ortation called the Y. W. C. A. is seems every now and then to men recognition through antements and bulletin board of the girls know about the of the girls know about the notices That is about all the majority of the girls know about the "Y".

They seem to avoid it because of the erroneous idea that the organization aims to remould 'the girls over fixed patterns of conduct and to impress upon them certain beliefs. But that is not the case. All the Y W hopes to accomplish is to know the best in every girl and help her make the most of her opportunities.

The people who are most interested in the Y. W. C A. have been encouraged recently by the changing attitude of the students. Numerous criticisms have been voiced concerning the organization, and of course it is better to be criticized than to be completely ignored than to be completely increased in the total than the completely increased in the complete in the condition in the complete in the condition in the complete in the condition

MONTGOMERY'S

ANY way you figure it, P.A. is better tobacco. Take fragrance, for instance. Your well-known olfactory organ will tell you. And taste-who can describe that? And mildness-you couldn't ask for anything milder.

Yes, Sir. P. A. is cool and comfortable and mellow and mild. Long-burning, with a good clean ash. You never tire of P.A. It's always the same old friendly smoke. Get yourself a tidy red tin and check everything I'm telling you!

no other tobacco is like it!
