Nittany Boxing Team Subdues Temple, 4-3

(Continued from first page) plo in ruler's attack with a series of right uppercuts. At this point, the tide of the battle turned in favor of Hamas. When the second round was over, Hansen staggered to his corner exhausted from the punishment that Hamas had administered.

Driving Hansen into a corner at the outset of the third round, Steve drove uppercut after uppercut at the Temple heavyweight from whom little resistance was forthcoming. A knock-out was inevitable as Hamas hammered away at his punch-drunk opponent. Steve Hansen went down to his first defeat, and it was through a knock-out delivered by Penn State's supreme heavyweight champion, Steve Hamas.

Marty Extends Beloff Another Temple boxer to receive a rude surprise was Dave Beloff, student coach of the team. Known as one of the best amateur fighters in Philadelphia and holder of several titles, Beloff had hardly counted on McAndrews to furnish much opposition. The truth of the matter is that he had looked forward to fighting Alir Wolf but Marty proved to be just as tough an opponent.

Marty fought continually with Beloff, taking and giving hard blows in such a way that the judges disagreed at the end of the three rounds. Beloff won the fourth round and got credit for a victory.

Pilegar Keeps Clean Slate In defeating Denson, Temple's 125-pounder, Pilegar continued his record of never losing a bout in the Amory ring. Kolakowski had no trouble in boxing Meffan in the lightweight category and in the second round won by a technical knock-out. Chuck Robb, putting up one of the best fights of his career, got the decision over Horwatt in the welterweight bout after the judges had called for an extra round.

Frankie Mahon lost his first fight of the year when Captain Cudon of Temple got the decision in three rounds. Handicapped by a bad knee, Mahon failed to take advantage of his opening and follow up his punches. Struble, showing improvement, lost to Brown in the light heavyweight tilt.

With the intercollegiate tournament scheduled at Philadelphia this week, the entire team will go through its final training for the championship fights. The extent of Captain Wolf's injury has not yet been determined and it is unknown whether he will be able to compete in the championships.

ARCHITECTURE SCHOOLS HOLD COMBINED EXHIBIT

More than one hundred and fifty drawings were shown in the architecture exhibit held last Friday and Saturday in Engineering F by the department of architecture.

The drawings displayed in the work of students in the fifteen schools of the Association of Collegiate Schools of Architecture: Pennsylvania, Cornell, Yale, Harvard, Illinois, Kansas, Kansas State, Carnegie Tech, Minnesota and Penn State are included among the colleges in the association.

"Nunc est bibendum, nunc pede libero Pulsanda tellus."—HORACE. GENTLEMEN: This is Latin. Latin is an Ancient Language. It is no longer studied in colleges. You are not expected to know what this quotation means. Literal Translation—Strike up the band! Now is the time to drink. Now is the time to shake a mean pur of dogs. Free Translation—When, in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for two or more undergraduates to gather together in friendly communion, there is only one drink, Gentlemen, for the occasion—"Canada Dry," The Champagne of Ginger Ales. Reason—"Canada Dry" is a delightful flavor because it is made from pure Jamaica ginger. "Canada Dry" has no false bite, no unpleasant after-taste and is really good for you because it contains no capicum (red pepper). And, Gentlemen, it mixes well with other beverages. Class dismissed! Steele for the allotted ten minutes, necessitating two extra periods. In both the short time intervals, the Cornellian showed himself able to hold Steele, and claimed the decision with a time advantage of five minutes, twenty-eight seconds.

The two successive bouts indicated the superiority of the New Yorker, Holsman twins. Johnnie Holsman defeated Ted Wilson by a time margin of six minutes, thirty seconds in an extra period match, after the Nittany specialweight displayed considerable exhaustion. The thirty-five pound tilt went to Bill Holsman, when he maintained a two-minute, twenty-second time superiority over Hubler, who was experiencing his first collegiate tilt.

Eisenmann Gets Fall Charlie Eisenman, Leon welterweight, secured the initial fall of the day, when in the last seconds of his allotted time, he crotch hold and half-nelson. In the 155-pound bout immediately following, Packard displayed some of his customary style and after two extra periods, was successful in holding a time margin of twenty seconds. This time being considered too little, the bout was decided a draw and Packard had to relinquish his season's record of wins.

Cornell's light-heavyweight, Stafford, was able to out-wrestle Tiny Crarmer who had been shifted from his usual heavy post. Stafford obtained a fall in six minutes, fifty-seven seconds. The final and unlimited bout in which Hollowbush contested with Johnson of Cornell, went through two extra periods only to be decided a draw.

Students To Conduct Straw Vote on Friday

idental nomination are Donahay, James A. Reed, Albert C. Ritchie, Alfred E. Smith and Thomas J. Walsh. The purpose of the referendum will be to determine the extent of the political tendency as indicated in a college group.

Others Try Out

It is expected that throughout the months, preliminary to the election next fall, many of the colleges and universities throughout the country will conduct similar movements. Already several have done so. To a limited extent the outcome of the informal balloting will prove indicative of the general sentiment in regard to the candidates for the presidential nomination.

Actual Work Starts On College Infirmary

Actual construction work on the new College Infirmary began early this month when ditches were dug and pipes laid for the water and sewage systems. Towards the end of this week a steam shovel will begin work on the excavation. Dr. Joseph P. Rutenour states that the only factor which can delay the project from being completed before next September, the time specified in the contract, is inclement weather.

Northway and Chiles Popular Dancers at The Biltmore, Protect Their Wind with Luckies. "We both smoke Lucky Strikes. There's a flavor we can't resist in the toasted tobaccos. And there's another reason we must confess. Dancing is a strenuous profession and we watch our physical condition as zealously as does a long-distance runner. In order to be sure that our wind is always in perfect shape we use only Luckies—the cigarette which doesn't cut the wind." Madeleine Northway George Chiles. The Cream of the Tobacco Crop "The fact that we have bought the 'CREAM OF THE CROP' for Lucky Strike Cigarettes has caused many good judges of leaf tobacco to choose LUCKIES as their favorite cigarette."
