

Penn State Collegian

Houdini Back To Life?

Price Five Cents

VOL. 25, NO. 7

STATE COLLEGE, PA., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1928.

PRICE FIVE CENTS

BUSINESS LEADERS ENDORSE COLLEGE BOND ISSUE DRIVE

State Chamber of Commerce Approves Amendment in Referendum Ballot

DEAN WARNOCK PREDICTS SUCCESS AFTER TEST POLL

Action Confirms Dire Need for Financial Support, Says President Hetzel

With a favorable vote ten per cent higher than that cast for any other bond issue...

Favor Four Bond Issues

Following the vote for the Penn State Bond Issue in the State-wide referendum...

President's Comment

"This approval of our Bond Issue," said President Ralph D. Hetzel...

"It has been my experience, that without exception the thoughtful citizens of Pennsylvania who are acquainted with the handicaps under which their state college is laboring...

The State Chamber action, which is the result of a test poll based on arguments for and against the five proposed bond issue amendments...

"It had been predicted that the vote would be opposed to the bond issues because of the conservatism of business men toward a policy of extension of the bonded indebtedness of the State," said Dean Warnock...

"In no quarter," the dean continued, "do we find opposition to the State College Bond Issue as such. There is, of course, some questioning of the wisdom and need of a bond issue policy for taking care of these several projects in view of the report of the State Treasurer as to the surplus in the treasury."

(Continued on last page)

Who's Dancing

- Tonight Alpha Sigma Phi (closed) Chi Upsilon Sigma E Tomorrow Night Kappa Delta Rho Lambda Chi Alpha (closed) Phi Lambda Theta Sigma Alpha Epsilon Sigma Phi Sigma Triangle Tau Kappa Epsilon Theta Upsilon Omega

Second-Year Men Initiate Yearlings Into Traditions Of Penn State Student Life

With the prolonged ringing of Old Main bell and the customary battle cry of the sophomores "All frosh out" filling the air, Stunt Night was ushered in at 7:30 o'clock last night...

At the first war whoop the yearlings rushed forth helter skelter from the fraternities, boarding and rooming houses, clad in costumes that had seen better days, and right into the arms of the paddle-bearing sophomores...

The raw eggs further required for admission, and carried in the back pockets of the frosh, failed to retain their state of entirety for any long period of time while the paddles were swinging. The free eggs soon succeeded in slowing up the momentum of the head. Rowing, swimming in the streets, and proposing to co-eds, completed the list of activities before the mob found its way to the entrance of New Beaver practice field.

YEARLINGS CHANGE FOOTBALL TACTICS

Fundamental Plays Give Way to Line Bucks, End Runs and Forward Passes

TENTATIVE PLEBE FIRST TEAM REMAINS INTACT

Forward pass formations, fake plays, line bucks and end runs are gradually supplanting fundamental drills in the gridiron program arranged by Coach Dutch Hermann for his freshman football team.

The tentative yearling varsity that Coach Hermann selected last week has undergone no decided changes. The wing posts, however, are still an unknown quantity. Matthews, Danahow, Walker and Winslow had been slated for a close race for the end positions while the former two have been selected temporarily as first-string men.

DR. HANSON TO DISCUSS "VANISHING FRONTIERS"

Gettysburg Head, Prominent in War Work, Will Address Chapel Gathering

President Henry W. A. Hanson, of Gettysburg college has selected "Vanishing Frontiers" as his subject when he addresses the chapel audience in Schwab auditorium Sunday morning.

During the same year he was ordained to the Lutheran ministry. Two years later the St. Lukes church of Pittsburgh called him and he accepted to remain there until 1913 when he went to the Messiah church of Gettysburg.

"La Vie" Change Rests With Student Council

The fate of the 1930 La Vie—whether the publication should be made a junior or senior yearbook—rests with Student Council, according to the decision reached Tuesday by Student Board.

Since the change is of vital interest to the student body and the College, the Student Board believes that Student Council is in a better position to reflect the opinions of the parties concerned.

CONTRACTOR ADDS LABORATORY WING

Pond Chemistry Annex Will Double Research Facilities Of Science Students

SECTOR COMPLETES SIDE OF H-SHAPED STRUCTURE

With the opening of college next September the students of chemistry will have more than twice the space they now have for carrying on their experimental work.

PLEBE PURCHASE DINKS FROM BERNARD NEWMAN

Freshmen desiring to purchase dinks can obtain them from Bernard E. Newman '29 at the Beta Sigma Rho house.

PLAYERS REHEARSE FOR COMING SHOW

Dramatic Organization Begins Schedule By Repeating "The Poor Nut"

CAST REMAINS INTACT FROM FORMER SHOWING

Rehearsals are now in progress for "The Poor Nut," farce comedy of college life to be presented by the Penn State Players in Schwab auditorium next Friday evening as the initial production of the season.

Presented here last year as the Commencement show, the scheduled production proved a success. It was given considerable praise by the critics in the large cities during its run in those places by professional players.

BULETS THAT MAY FELL LIONS

Table with columns for Penn State and Gettysburg, listing names and statistics of athletes.

PLANS FOR DAD'S DAY CELEBRATION NEAR FINAL FORM

Will Hold Huge Mass Meeting In Schwab Auditorium To Open Week-end

PARENTS' ASSOCIATION ASSEMBLES SATURDAY

Expect 1500 Fathers, Mothers, Relatives To Be Present For Athletic Events

Fathers' Day, that one time during the college year when all things are set aside for the exclusive entertainment of "Dads," will be celebrated next Friday, Saturday and Sunday when more than 1500 mothers, fathers and near relatives of students gather here for the eighth annual observance of the Penn State custom.

A huge mass meeting in Schwab auditorium at 6:30 o'clock, Friday night, will acquaint the parents with the list of varied entertainments which have been arranged for their benefit.

M. E. PROFESSOR WRITES REVIEW OF CARBON ICE

Recognition as an authority on carbon dioxide ice came to Prof. Arthur J. Wood, of the mechanical engineering department when the American Engineering Council requested him to report on that subject to the Hoover Survey Commission...

Penn State Professor Publishes Textbook on Europe's Development

"A History of Europe from 1500 to 1815" by Dr. James E. Gillespie of the history department, is the title of a next text being published by Alfred A. Knopf company of New York city.

Plebe Track Aspirants Clash In Finals Today

A freshman track meet will be held at 4:15 o'clock this afternoon on New Beaver field. All freshmen are eligible for any of the fifteen events.

Gridmen Upset Gettysburg In Twenty-Three Games

Table showing football record between Penn State and Gettysburg from 1905 to 1927, including wins, losses, and tie games.

VICTOR ARTISTS TO PRESENT CONCERT

Revelers, Noted Entertainers, Will Offer Program of Popular Numbers

APPEAR BEFORE ROYALTY DURING FOREIGN JOURNEY

Opening the annual Y. M. C. entertainment course this year, the Revelers, Victor recording artists will present a concert program next Saturday evening in Schwab auditorium.

Mr. Arthur J. Wood To Make Refrigerator Report for U. S. Commission

Recognition as an authority on carbon dioxide ice came to Prof. Arthur J. Wood, of the mechanical engineering department when the American Engineering Council requested him to report on that subject to the Hoover Survey Commission...

Plebe Track Aspirants Clash In Finals Today

A freshman track meet will be held at 4:15 o'clock this afternoon on New Beaver field. All freshmen are eligible for any of the fifteen events.

MUSKY GETTYSBURG ELEVEN PUPES TO SHATTER LIONS' JAW

Gettysburg's eleven pupes are expected to give the Lions a hard time in their upcoming game.

GOVERNMENT EDUCATION BUREAU MAKES SURVEY

Questionnaires are being distributed to the various schools at Pennsylvania for the purpose of securing data which will be used in a survey made by the United States Bureau of Education...

BLUE KEY ELECTIONS

- Kenneth T. Deike '30 Frank I. Ginsburg '30 Henry M. Gregory '30 John S. Holla '30 William C. Howe '30 Edward A. Kaier '30 Wilson D. Lewis '30 Michael J. Lynch '30 John W. Newlin '30 Cornelius E. Welsh, Jr. '30

Today

- Editorials: 1. A Senior La Vie—Or Not? 2. Director Precepts. 3. Kings Po. A Day. 4. Collegiate Definitions.

(Continued on next page)