Students Hold Meeting In Schwab Auditorium

Auditorium. As the bands pass from street to street the students are requested to join the ranks and parade to the mass meeting.

President Ralph Dorn Hitzel and Dean Arthur R. Warnock will be present at the athletic gathering, and will make short talks to the assemblage of students. It is the hope of those in charge of the meeting that all members of the student body turn out tonight to honor the Nittany Lion eleven.

Coach Bezedek and his band of gridiron warriors as well as coaches of other sports will be present at the celebration, which is primarily an effort to console the team for the defeat at the hands of Penn and at the same time to offer stimulus for a victory in the Syracuse battle Saturday.

Movies Closed To Students

In co-operation with the committee in charge of the mass meeting the manager of the local theater will refuse to admit any students to the moving picture show until after the athletic rally.

Yearling Gridders Lose To Orange Team, 35-0 fumble while the opposing right end, over on the alert, scooped up the pigskin and ran 60-yards for the six points. Penn State was offside and the extra point counted.

The Baysinger tutored warriors garnered their second touchdown in the last few minutes of the first period. Walker, left end, blocked a punt, giving Penn State the ball on Syracuse's 20-yard stripe, but the Lion backs could not gain the 10 yards and the ball went to the Orangemen on downs. Then began a steady march down the field to the Nittany 20-yard mark, where with a reverse pass the Syracuse back dropped behind the goal line. The kick for the additional point was blocked.

In the second quarter by a series of powerful bucks and cross bucks, netting them ten and fifteen yards at each thrust, the New Yorkers again menaced the Nittany goal mark. The Lion cubs were unable to stem the tide and seven points were added to the Orange list.

Orangemen Tally Another

At the outset of the second half Penn State received the oval and carried it to mid-field by a series of line bucks and passes. The opposing line held at this point and the ball went to Syracuse, who was forced to kick after futile attempts at ground gaining.

The Lion backs by repeated line thrusts and end runs advanced the ball to the Syracuse 30-yard line. In the next play a pass from Brehm was intercepted by the Hill left halfback who dashed 70 yards for another tally, the extra point counting.

Dutch Hermann's charges displayed their first sign of life in the last period after the Syracuse backfield had wormed its way to the Nittany 8-yard stripe. The young Lions withstood the onslaught and received the ball on their own 8-yard mark. Hope faded, however, when Lantu was thrown for a loss behind his own goal line, giving Syracuse a safety.

Final Scoring

The Hill plebes concluded their scoring activities in the final period, with a whirl-wind march down the field. Again using line bucks and passes as their means of progress the Syracuseans continued, uninterrupted, on their scoring journey, this time for only six points.

Penn Crushes Varsity As Nittany Line Fails

State's 42-yard stripe. Evans was spilled for a 2 yard loss on a journey around right end and on the next play Spike Collins fumbled and Penn recovered.

Penn Scores

Penn now resorted to a passing attack but failed temporarily. After Duval tried, Murphy for a 1-yard loss, Shober attempted a pass to Sullivan but Evans knuckled it down. Another pass was grounded and Penn was penalized 5 yards. Scull got off a beautiful punt that rolled out of bounds on the Lions' 7 yard mark.

From this point on Pennsylvania displayed potent ground-gaining power. Murphy toe through center for 4 yards and Scull hit the same spot for 2 more. Rosenbloom made a first down through right tackle and the ball rested on Penn State's 9-yard mark. Murphy smashed through center for 4 yards and then he and Rosenbloom added 1 more through the same position. Frank Dredrich replaced Evans at this point of the game. On an attempted pass, Murphy slid off right tackle for the first touchdown of the game. Scull failed to kick the goal for the subsequent point but a Lion was detected offside and Penn received the extra point.

Scull Intercepts Pass

Collins received Scull's kick and was felled on his own 28-yard line.

On the first play Dredrich threw a long pass to Steve Hannas who was downed after a 32-yard gain. Skip Stahley was injured at this point and Mike Kaplan was inserted at right end. Dredrich made 2 yards at right guard but Penn State was penalized 5 yards for offside. Joe Miller tore around right end for a 12-yard gain and the ball rested on Penn's 31-yard mark. Dredrich made 2 yards at right guard and a pass by Miller was grounded. Hannas failed to gain at left tackle and another pass was grounded.

On the next play Miller attempted a pass to Delp but Paul Scull cut in, seized it while on the run, and was off with only Joe Miller in front of him. The Penn captain slowed up a little, just in time for Utz to cut in and take Miller out of play, and then sprinted over the goal line trailed by desperate Lion tacklers. Dredrich blocked his kick for the extra point but it was counted after Penn State had been again ruled offside.

NO FOOLIN'

Walking, which always ought to be a pleasure, is a serious matter when it's done on old-fashioned hard heels.

The jolts and bumps and shocks that come with every step gradually pile up fatigue and take the spring out of your stride. Moreover, the noise is unwelcome to your entire neighborhood.

Cushion and quiet are two of the best reasons for the popularity of rubber heels.

Rubber gives and lifts and helps. Especially long-wearing, deep-cushioning and stylish Goodyear Wing-foot Heels. Preferred by 64% of all shoe dealers; more people walk on Wing-foot Heels than on any other kind.

Three words to the college shoe repairman, and in less time than it takes to wind the flivver, you're on new Goodyear Wingfoot Heels today!
