VOTE FOR AMENDMENT No. 2

You Can Boost The Bond Issue a Notch or Two

Penn State's student body may help to put the $8,000,000 Bond Issue across by mailing postal cards to friends throughout the State. These cards should be sent today or tomorrow. Additional postal cards may be procured at any of the local book stores. Student voters who wish to go home to vote and work at the polls may secure excused absences from Dean of Men Arthur R. Warnock. College officials urge every student to aid in securing votes for the proposed amendment.

Notices

Candidates for the varsity rifle team will report at 7 o'clock every night in the rifle range in the Armory. Candidates for the freshman team will report after Thanksgiving.

Fraternity social chairmen should present a list of chapones for November Houseparty at the office of the Dean of Women as soon as possible.

Freshmen who had their bibles taken while they carried wood for stunts might get them at the "Y" hut immediately.

Confident Lions Oppose Notre Dame Tomorrow

(Continued from first page) The pig will hold down the tackle post on the other side of the line. Coleick and Vezie are Notre Dame's ends. The former was prominent in the victory over Drake last Saturday, being on the receiving end of most of Nemec's passes. Coach Bezelok has been punning his proteges for the game tomorrow.

Drills during the past week were taken up mostly with perfection of the "ward pass" and development of speed among the linemen. The first team scrimmage against Bob Higgins' third eleven which used Notre Dame plays and formations exclusively.

Bez will start practically the same team against Notre Dame that opposed Syracuse here last week. Joe Miller will call signals from the quarterback position while Wolf and Dieck will take care of the halfback duties. Steve Hamus will start in his regular fullback position. Evans, French, Collins and Hensle will probably see service as backfield substitutes during the contest tomorrow. George Delp and Earl Edwards have checked their positions as ends. George showed up well against Syracuse and should continue his good work against the Rockmen. Panacacion and Shawley will occupy the posts at tackle while Herb Eschbner will serve as center. PUSH IT OVER

Last Saturday Penn State's team carried the ball across the field to within 3 yards of the goal and victory.

For over 5 years those interested in the Pennsylvania State College Bond Issue have been planning, preparing, and working diligently for the time that is now here. They are 3 yards from the goal.

Let Us PUSH IT OVER!

No one can forecast the vote on this matter, therefore your vote may be the deciding one. It takes only one vote, as a majority, to gain Y-I-C-T-O-R-Y.

There will be some voters whose vote will not count because it will be too late. To make your vote count and effective—
