of violin solos by Miss Shuchari, and one by her former teacher, Paul Kochanski. In her next offering, Miss de Nault will include several Russian ballads, as well as a French-Canadian folk song. She will finish the group with a selection from the opera "Samson and Delilah" by Saint-Saens.

Concluding her program, the violinist will offer a group of three numbers, one arranged by Kochanski. Miss de Nault will bring the concert to a close with a number of popular ballads. Among them will be "Oh Dear! What Can the Matter Be," "My Love is a Muleteer," and "Roadways."

Miss Shuchari will have as her accompanist Mrs. Arthur Reginald of New York City. Mrs. Irene Osborne Grant, of the department of music, will accompany Miss de Nault.

Wrestlers To Engage Lafayette Tomorrow

practice has taught him several difficult holds.

Cramer, a member of last year's varsity, will enter his first meet of the present season tomorrow. Although unable to participate in collegiate competition he has been working out regularly during the pre-season drills and is now in condition to enter the coming matches. His return strengthens the heavyweights considerably. With both Long and Pearce opposing him he has been forced to extend himself to gain his position.

Freshmen To Engage Pitt Quintet Tonight

Coach George Kowallis' Panther cubs will enter tomorrow's contest with an impressive record of seven successive victories. They had little difficulty in defeating a strong Kiski five and recently subdued the Tartan plebes, 38-18. The West Virginia freshmen were also overcome.

Two Kowallis brothers, members of the Kowallis family prominent in Pitt floor annals, have been consistent scorers. Receiving their preliminary training at Duquesne high, the brothers are two of the most promising members of the team. Wroblecki, Homestead high star, and a brother of the forward on last year's championship Pitt varsity is also one of Coach Kowallis' best players.

Last year the Nittany yearlings lost to Pitt twice and gained two victories over the Tartan plebes.

Lion Courtmen Battle Pitt, Tech Cage Teams

22 by Penn State earlier in the season and were forced to bow to Westminster and Geneva.

Nease, guard, and Crum, a forward, were the outstanding Plaid courtmen in the two games with Pitt. Especially in the second contest which ended 28 to 35 were those two men active. Crum guarded Hyatt effectively and at the same time accounted for six tallies, while Nease was high scorer for the Tartan contingent. Captain White and High were two other important instruments in the Panther game. These men seem to have assumed a different aspect since their appearance against the Nittany Lions.

Hermann Makes Slight Change

Coach Dutch Hermann has prepared his players for one, if not two, of the hardest games of the season. Tuesday night he sent his men through twenty minutes of lively scrimmage but on Wednesday he limited their practice to out-of-bounds plays and shooting. A light workout last night was the final preparation of the Lions for their two-day trip.

Steve Hamas has replaced Art Koch on the first five during practice sessions this week. Steve's work at the guard post has improved to such an extent that Dutch decided to make the change. Jack Mazess and Dick Reinhold are still together at the forward berth while Skipper Stahley will pair off with Hamas at the other guard post. Captain Lou Reilly will assume his regular duties at the pivot position.

Five substitutes will accompany the regulars on their trip. Paul Krumrine and Jack Meyers are good reserve forward material and will likely see action both nights. Jack Browne will, if necessary, be capable of doubling for Lou Reilly while Art Koch and Joe Wilson may be drafted into service if the Panther scoring progresses too rapidly.

Delicious and Refreshing

PAUSE AND REFRESH YOURSELF

ONE SOUL WITH BUT A SINGLE THOUGHT—TO PAUSE AND REFRESH HIMSELF AND NOT EVEN A GLANCE FROM THE STAG LINE

Enough's enough and too much is not necessary. Work hard enough at anything and you've got to stop. That's where Coca-Cola comes in. Happily, there's always a cool and cheerful place around the corner from anywhere. And an ice-cold Coca-Cola, with that delicious taste and cool after-sense of refreshment, leaves no argument about when, where—and how—to pause and refresh yourself.

YOU CAN'T BEAT THE PAUSE THAT REFRESHES

"Folks, how can I make Whoopee up here... when down in front the 'coughers' are whooping?"

"Maybe the audience would be grateful if I stepped to the footlights some night and voiced the above protest about the 'coughing chorus' down in front.

"But that wouldn't be kind and it wouldn't be just. The cougher doesn't cough in public on purpose. He can't help it. It embarrasses him as much as it annoys his neighbors.

"What he needs, to avoid that throat tickle, is an introduction to OLD GOLDS."
