PLEBES DEFEAT TECH; LOSE TO PITT QUINTET

Upset Tartans in Final Period By 40-37 Score—Panthers Secure 31-25 Victory

Rallying late in the final period to overcome a seven point lead, Coach Larry Conover's yearling courtmen subdued the Carnegie Tech freshmen, 40-37, Saturday night, but were forced to bow the previous night to an undefeated Pitt quintet, 31-25, during the annual Nittany invasion of Pittsburgh.

With six minutes remaining in the fourth quarter, the Lion cubs, led by Bub Davis, diminutive forward, cut down the Tartan advantage as Brand, Davis, and Snyder sank two-plays tying the score at 37 all. Davis then dropped a long one through the nets, and was fouled as the ball left his hands. He accounted for one of the two free throws awarded him putting the Nittany plebes ahead, 40-37 as the game ended.

Offering stubborn opposition to their experienced rivals, Coach Conover's proteges lost to the Panther yearlings by a six-point margin in their encounter Friday night. Training 21-19 at the beginning of the fourth quarter, the Nittany five faltered before a desperate Pitt attack and Coach Kowalski's charges amassed a 10 point lead. Realigning in the closing minutes, the Penn State quintet brought their total to 25, but the rally was cut short by the closing whistle.

COACH BEZDEK TO GIVE SUMMER GRID COURSE

Replaces McCracken as Tutor Of Football Tactics in Annual Session

Special courses in football and basketball coaching will be given by Hugo Bezdek, director of athletics, and Kenneth D. Loeffler, basketball mentor of Geneva college, at the annual College summer session to be held from July 1 to August 9.

For the first three weeks of the session, from July 1 to 19, the course in football coaching will be given, while for the last three weeks basketball training will be taught. The general curriculum in physical education will be offered throughout the entire session.

Higgins To Assist Bezdek has conducted here formerly, although for the last three years the work has been under the direction of Herb McCracken, Lafayette mentor. Robert A. Higgins, assistant to Bezdek, will aid him in carrying on the course.

Kenneth D. Loeffler is a former Penn State athletic star and had charge of basketball training here two years ago.

Instruction given in these courses is designed for high school, normal school, or college coaches. It is also helpful to faculty members whose duties require supervision or direction of athletes.

Lion Passers Oppose Bucknell Tomorrow

(Continued from first page) first period of the fray the Lion outscored the Panther from the field but the former's ability to make fouls gave the latter a one-point lead at half time.

Pitt Scores First Hyatt began scoring activities at the outset of the contest with a long shot that found its way into the cords.

A moment later, however, Captain Reilly tied the count with a toss from the side. The playing from this point on was fast on both sides. Each team paid little attention to defense and set out to score more points than the other. Near the close of the opening period Penn State led the attack 20 to 13. Eddie Baker started on his whirlwind scoring expedition which netted him three field goals and Chipper Hyatt sank a pretty toss from the center circle to knot the score, 22 to 22. Les Cohen gave the University a one point advantage by sinking a foul as the gun barked the close of the period.

Captain Lou Reilly and Steve Hamas were taken from the game during the late minutes of the half when they had each committed three personal fouls and were replaced by Jack Browne and Joe Wilson. Reilly and Hamas re-entered the fray as action began in the final session.

Panthers Forge Ahead

Coach Carlson's passers assumed the leadership from the start of the second half and retained it until the close of the contest. Although Jack Mazess found the basket three times from the court and once from the foul line and Skipper Stahley tossed two field goals and a foul, the Lions were unable to keep pace with the energized Panthers. Les Cohen placed the sphere five times within the mesh while Hyatt repeated his score of the opening half with two field goals and four penalty shots.

Eddie Baker displayed his scoring ability once more by caging three field tosses and threatening to depose Hyatt from the scoring throne. Reilly and Hamas were banished from the game because of personal fouls near the middle of the final half. Coach Hermann's proteges were unable to cope with Pittsburgh's scoring attack and the contest ended with the count Pitt, 49; Penn State, 38.

Lions Vanquish Carnegie

Still smarting from the defeat administered by the Golden Panthers, Penn State's court representatives overcame Carnegie Tech's first half lead and vanquished the Tartan 42 to 29 Saturday night. The Plaid quintet headed the scoring list at half time, 20 to 17, but a rally on the part of the Lions restricted them to nine points in the second period.

During the first ten minutes of the opening session Hermann's regular combination showed up so poorly that the coach inserted an entirely new team. The reserves remained intact until Joe Wilson, after five minutes of action, was ejected from the contest on personal fouls. Hamas replaced Wilson at guard and remained with the second team until the end of the half. During the first period of the contest the playing of both teams was unusually rough and many fouls were committed. Penn State completed five out of seven fouls while the Plaid contingent sank six of ten attempts. Jack Mazess headed the scoring column with four field goals and one foul for a total of nine points. Browne, Stahley, Brown, and Nease trailed Mazess with seven points each.

Penn State Takes Lead

The impenetrable Tartan defense, that had held the Nittany Lion aloof from the basket during the opening period, sank into oblivion in the second half and permitted the Hermann-coached team to run rampant under the goal. The re-inserted Penn State regulars redeemed themselves for their actions of the first half. Mazess, Reilly and Stahley led the Nittany scoring attack in the closing minutes of the game with five points each.

Browne replaced Reilly at center and accounted for a field goal and a foul. Steve Hamas tossed two field goals and Dick Reinhold listed three points before the game ended. The Tartans were restricted to two field tosses and five penalty throws during the final period. The score at the conclusion of the contest stood Penn State, 42; Carnegie Tech, 29.

Lion Matmen Defeat Lafayette Wrestlers

several minutes until Pearce gave a quick leap throwing them both to the mats. Even on the mats the two men battled on even terms until Pearce, securing an unexpected half nelson and body hold, threw the Maroon unlimited representative quickly.

Long Ineligible

Paul Long, regular 175-pound representative, will be ineligible for the remainder of the season because of low scholastic standing. Coach Spigel has been counting on Long to bear the burden in light-heavyweight class with Pearce and Cranmer battling for the unlimited post. With Long's ineligibility Cranmer will remain at 175 pounds and Pearce in the unlimited class.

Steele and Sabatino opened the meet with a slow bout during the earlier minutes, the Maroon grappler keeping to the defensive entirely. After the latter minutes of the bout both men moved the action. After being on their feet for 7 minutes, Steele got a leg hold to throw them both to the mats.

Wilson Scintillates

In the 125-pound battle both men put up stubborn opposition with the Lion captain displaying the greater prowess. After working on the mats for a short time both men got to their feet. Wilson, with one of his characteristic leaps, brought Armstrong to the mats. The fall was so hard that it seemed to sap the aggressive strength of the Lafayette grappler. Having a slight weight advantage on the Nittany leader he was able to withstand the attacks for a short time. A half nelson and an inside catch hold served as the means for a fall after 8 minutes and 1 seconds of wrestling.

Cowell, wrestling in his first intercollegiate meet, proved his ability by securing a time advantage of 7 minutes and 15 seconds on the Maroon captain. After being patted by the referee to open the bout, Cowell immediately gave Wolfe a slap on the face which appeared to unbalance the Lafayette matman. Seizing his opportunity the Lion 135-pounder dove in and put his man on the floor nearly securing a fall. After the opening minutes, however, the bout dragged until the closing minute when Cowell working for a fall nearly threw himself into a fall. A quick twist with 30 seconds to go freed him from any danger.

Campbell and Klotz in the 158-pound match were on the mats immediately after the start, but using the defensive almost entirely the Lafayette representative seemed to slow up the bout considerably. Campbell had little trouble in securing a time advantage of 7 minutes and 5 seconds.

"Tiny" Cranmer and Kriesler in the 175-pound class exhibited several daring holds during their fracas. Both men were of about equal strength neither being able to secure an advantage until the meet was well over the half way mark. Then by a sudden leap Cranmer brought the Maroon delegate to the mats and nearly threw him. The Lion grappler was able to secure only a time advantage of 3 minutes and 30 seconds.

Coach Spedel is working with his squad now to get them ready for the Cornell meet at Ithaca Saturday. This will probably be one of the hardest matches on the schedule.

The summary of Saturday's meet 115 pound class—Steele State defeated Sabatino, Lafayette Time—2 minutes, 50 seconds.

Ever sigh for a little real action?

The hard-looking stranger only yawned at the pay-day activities of Red Gulch. Piqued at his indifference, several citizens asked why, if Red Gulch wasn't tough enough to interest him, he didn't go back where he came from. "I can't," the stranger drawled. "That place is so all-fired hard, they kicked all us sissies out!" A clear case of relativity. If you've smoked merely mild cigarettes all your life, you can't imagine how much you'd cotton to a cigarette that's mild and something more! We refer, as you guess, to Chesterfield. For mild as they are, they satisfy. You know you're smoking them—and you're right glad of it. They're rich with taste, tobacco taste. They... there's no other word, and no other cigarette that fits it... they satisfy.

CHESTERFIELD MILD enough for anybody... and yet... THEY SATISFY
