Nittany Boxers Defeat West Virginia Ringmen

Jack Davis in four rounds Davis was at his best in the opening stanza, using an effective left jab. Jack managed to hold his foe even in the second round, but Krebs was clearly the winner in the third session.

Penn State's victories in the lighter divisions were registered by Paiks, a newcomer, and Julius Epstein, varsity 115-pounder. Making his intercollegiate debut in the bantamweight setto, Paiks earned the verdict over Sing Maish in three slow rounds.

Epstein won his first bout in the featherweight division against Curt Hamilton, willing mixer, in three rounds of light punching. Epstein's tantalizing left kept Hamilton on the defensive for the two opening rounds, but the Mountaineer showed promise when he forced the milling in the final stanza.

The shifting of Epstein into a heavier class was only temporary. The Lion flash will match his wares with the leading bantamweights in the intercollegiate here March 22 and 23, while Stan Kolakoski makes his bid for the featherweight crown.

Although Captain Wolf experienced little difficulty in trouncing Bob Latham in the 160-pound clash, the invader gave the undefeated title-holder a stiff battle for two rounds. After Latham had peppered Allie near the close of the first round, the Lion captain let loose a barrage of punches early in the second round which weakened the Mountaineer considerably.

about after Allie stopped his attack to save his game rival.

Nick Latham, brother of Bob, and Marty McAndrews, Penn State's fist-dodder, slipped through three rounds of punching and clowning. The antics of the two 175-pounders had the crowd in an uproar throughout the fight.

Bill Struble was awarded the heavyweight bout when West Virginia failed to produce an opponent for the Lion puncher.

Captain Wolf was invited to compete in a special bout at Madison Square Garden, New York City, March 20, under the auspices of the Metropolitan Association of the Amateur Athletic Union.

8395 Decisions Favoring This Smoke Ipswich, S. D., Sept. 4, 1928 Lorus & Brother Co., Richmond, Va. Gentlemen: In answer to the challenge of J. J. Roberts of Columbia, S. D., as printed in the Minneapolis Journal dated Sunday, September 2nd, I have smoked Edgeworth for twenty-three (23) years and for two years previous to that time I smoked Quid, which, I believe, is manufactured by your firm.

During this time I have smoked at least one can each day, and to verify this statement you may address the C & C Cafe of this city, where I make my tobacco purchases. It may be interesting to know that my purchases of Edgeworth during this period have totaled more than 8395 (eight thousand three hundred ninety-five) cans, representing a total expenditure of more than $1269 (twelve hundred sixty-nine dollars).

I have never smoked any other brand of tobacco but Edgeworth during the twenty-three years. Yours very truly, (Signed) Chas. Bostock Justice of the Peace
