Entrance fee of $1.00 for interfraternity golf tournament must be handed in by Saturday noon at the Delta Sigma Phi house. Each team consists of four men. These men must not be interchangeable. Varsity men are not eligible to play. Play-off starts Tuesday. Drawings posted in Athletic Store on Monday.

All fraternities reserving booths for the Junior Prom in Recreation Hall are requested to have booth furniture, punch bowl, ladle, cake plate, and a suitable table ready for transportation to Recreation Hall by 8 o'clock this morning. The committee suggests that each house send someone to the new gymnasium to see that furniture is in the booth reserved by the fraternity.

Seat reservations for "H. M. S. Pinafore" must be called for by 5:30 o'clock tonight. Tickets may still be obtained at the Corner Room.

Orders for Lion Suits may be placed with Kenneth Bender at the Alpha Tau Omega house until Monday night.

Y. M. C. A. TO HOLD SPRING CONCLAVE AT GETTYSBURG

For the purpose of training newly-elected officers and committee heads in the functions of the organization, the annual Y. M. C. A. spring officers' training conference will be held at and Sunday.

Dr. Henry Crane of Scranton, will be the main speaker at the meeting. In addition to lectures, small discussion groups will be formed for instruction.

Tice '30, Little Buttercup also adds to the humor element. John G. Anderson '31, as Bill Bobstay, and Miss Grace Detrick '31, as St. Joseph's first cousin, complete the list of leading characters. A chorus of thirty picked voices supports the cast.

Dance Numbers

Both individual and chorus dancing are listed on the program. W. Melville VanSaver '29, Charles S. Harper '31, Robert M. Huppel '31, Herbert G. Sargent '30, Robert H. Jackson '30 and Maurice C. Barnhart '31 comprise the chorus.

The Penn State Little Symphony orchestra, a special group organized by Director Giant for the show, will make its debut in College musical circles tomorrow night by providing the accompaniment.

Elaborate costumes will be worn by members of the cast. These outfits harmonize with the British atmosphere and nautical setting of the show.

Twenty-three ensembles, solo and special selections fill the two acts of the operetta, beginning with a chorus number and followed by a recitation and song attraction entitled "I'm Called Little Buttercup." This is sung by Miss Wentzel.

PAUSE AND REFRESH YOURSELF

OF COURSE IT'S NO FAIR PLAYING THE PROCTOR AND SPYING OUT SUCH A DELICATE SITUATION AS THIS. BUT THEN, WE'RE NO PROCTOR. AND WE CAN RESIST ANYTHING BUT TEMPTATION.

All of which goes to prove (if we may be excused for saying so) that the pause that refreshes is the sanest temptation which millions ever succumbed to. And to these same millions the pause that refreshes has come to mean an ice-cold Coca-Cola. Its tingling, delicious taste and cool shiversense of refreshment have proved that a little pause is long enough for a big rest any time.
