COLLEGE ATHLETES HOLD 'S' BANQUET TOMORROW NIGHT

Coach Zuppke, Director Kennedy
Speak at Open Meeting
In Recreation Hall

COMMITTEE TO ANNOUNCE OUTSTANDING LETTERMAN

Hetzel, Bezdek, McCaskey, and Frizzell Address Diners
In McAllister Hall

More than 200 guests are expected to attend the second annual varsity "S" banquet to be held in McAllister hall at 6:45 o'clock tomorrow night. The banquet will be followed by an open mass meeting in Recreation hall at 8 o'clock.

Coach Robert C Zuppke, head football mentor at the University of Illinois, and Charles W Kennedy, chairman of the faculty committee on athletics at Princeton university, will be the principal speakers at the mass meeting. Announcement of the outstanding college athlete will also be made at that time.

Invitations have been extended by the committee in charge to letter men, faculty members, and several national figures. In addition, special bids have been made to a number of high school stars selected as outstanding by coaches Larry Conover and Bob Higgins.

To Announce Outstanding Athlete
Prof. John H. Frizzell of the English department will serve as toastmaster at the banquet, and toasts will be given by President Ralph D. Hetzel, head coach Hugo Bezdek, and Col. Walter B. McCaskey. Music will be furnished by a local orchestra and the group will join in mass singing.

The banquet will adjourn to Recreation hall at 8 o'clock, where the diners and general public will hear the addresses. Coach Bezdek will preside at the meeting and introduce the speakers.

Following the talks by Coach Zuppke and Mr. Kennedy, the presentation of "S" awards will be made by President Hetzel. Afterwards the committee will announce the name of the letter man chosen as the outstanding athlete. The meeting will close with the singing of "Alma Mater" by the audience.

Interesting Speaker
Coach Zuppke has coached football teams at the mid-western institution for the past sixteen years. During that time the "fighting Illini" teams have turned in a creditable record.

He is a native of Wisconsin and a graduate of the State university. He received his degree there a year before President Hetzel. In his undergraduate days, he earned his letter on the championship basketball team in 1905.

"Zup" is in great demand as a public speaker and has talked at other gatherings such as this. It is said that "he never prepares a word in advance but simply gets up and flies away with the result that a rapid-fire talk full of thought and philosophy follows."

Prepare Souvenir Booklet
Mr. Kennedy, the second speaker, is outstanding as an educator and in athletic organization. He is professor of English at Princeton, as well as chairman of the athletic committee. The speaker is national collegiate representative on the Olympic committee and a member of the executive committee of the National Collegiate Athletic association.

The selection of the outstanding athlete has been placed in the hands of a committee composed of faculty members and students. Their choice will be based upon character, athletic achievement, scholarship, and other outstanding qualities.

A souvenir booklet, containing a history of sports at the College for last year, has been prepared and will be presented to the guests. The committee in charge of the affair consisted of Bernard Newman, chairman, Steven V. Hamm, J. Neil Stahley, Jr., Woodward Mullin, Richard M. Steiker, William S. Turner and Louis H. Bell, Jr.

MISS HURLBRINK ADDRESSES Y. W. C. A. CABINET MEMBERS

Miss Louise J. Hurlbrink, instructor in German, spoke on "Co-eds at Penn State" during the meeting of the 1929 Y. W. C. A. cabinet, held at the home of the president, Miss Louise Marquardt last night.

This was the second of a series of discussion groups sponsored by the Fishman Cabinet for its classmates. Miss Anne Eifer '30, chairman of the Rural Service Committee on the Senior Cabinet, also spoke to the girls about her work and the need for volunteers to continue it.

State Funds To Aid College Expansion, Dr. Hetzel Says

Trustees Will Consider Erection of New Buildings

"Funds available under the $6,261,000 appropriation bill recently signed by Governor Fisher will make possible marked progress on the comprehensive plan for the future development of Penn State," declared President Hetzel yesterday.

"The program to be carried out has not yet been determined by the Board of Trustees," the President stated. "It will probably involve, however, the replacement of Old Main and the present inadequate power plant, and the activities of the School of Mines and Metallurgy."

Students are now being made of possible means by which the New Mining building can be enlarged for the accommodation of work in home economics. This, along with other details of the building schedule, will be decided at the meeting of the Board of Trustees in June.

Provision for added facilities in the Liberal Arts School will probably be necessary, according to Dr. Hetzel.

THESPIANS OFFER VAUDEVILLE SHOW

To Present 11-Act Program for Entertainment of Mothers
In Schwab Auditorium

"Vaudeville entertainment will be offered by the Penn State Thespians in Schwab auditorium at 7:30 o'clock tonight as a special attraction for visiting mothers.

The program, consisting of eleven acts, was completed early this week. Included in the list of events are special orchestral selections, piano arrangements, acts of magic, dancing, and skits.

Each member of the group will be clad in the costume he wore when judged a winner of the annual event. These men will parade on the stage as one of the acts on the program.

Three Humorous Skits
Three skits have been added since the program was first announced. "Pete Yanson's Guit's Morder" is the title of one, a monologue, to be presented by Carl W. Johnson '31. This composition is a sketch of Sweden, of the difficulties confronting a young man of that country as he courts his sweetheart, and of his subsequent adventures upon arriving in America.

Written by William T. Teas '30, a dialogue entitled "Mama's Boys" will be given by Teas and Robert H. Jackson '30.

The third skit, another dialogue given by Arthur R. Cunningham '31, and Kenneth L. Holderman '31, is a tale of a book salesman trying to interest a business man in the encyclopedia he is selling. This skit, which has been named "The Third Row," was written by Frank F. Morris '31.

Five musical numbers have been adapted for the use of a piano four some. One arrangement is a melody of World War songs. Four pianos are employed for this act, with Albert S. Payne '29, William E. Patterson '29, Richard A. Whetstone '31, and W. Jay Kennedy '31, playing.

Additional music will be provided by the Varsity Ten orchestra, the Varsity Quartet, and by Miss Martha J. Gohrecht '30, who will play several mambo melodies. A trumpet trio, consisting of Harold S. Haller '29, C. Bronson Lane '29, and Walter J. Culp '30, with John P. Dippold '31, accompanying on the guitar, is also listed.

Robert G. Thrasher '31, student magician, will baffle his audience with several new card tricks. Herbert G. Sappee '30, will appear in a novelty dance. Also scheduled for an act is the dancing chorus composed of Sappee, Jackson, Maurice C. Barnhart '31, W. Melville Van Sever '29, Charles S. Harper '31, Dalph C. McNeil '30, and William F. Helt '29.

Four proposed changes in the requirements for insignia awards are also being offered to the students for their vote. The proposals all have to do with the awarding of letters on lacrosse and soccer teams.

The change regarding lacrosse teams is that the major sports "S" shall be awarded to any member of the varsity team, whereas the season's record shows only victories. The same change will also be applicable to varsity soccer team.

Another change is relative to a transportation in the number of two other articles in the constitution. The final change states that "The student manager of soccer and lacrosse shall be awarded the major sports 'S' when the season's record shows only victories."

Ballot boxes will be placed in the main College buildings for the convenience of student voters. The polls will be open Monday morning from 8:30 o'clock until noon and in the afternoon from 1 o'clock until 5 o'clock.

Big brown bears, that roamed the Seven mountains decades ago, the skeleton of Old Conly, the mule that hauled stones for the construction of Old Main, and specimens of other animals native of the State have all been taken from their rendezvous in Old Main and await amid the fumigated atmosphere of the Watt's hall basement a new home in Penn State's future zoology building.

A taxidermist supervised the moving under the direction of Prof. Russell D. Casselberry of the zoology department. After the last bird is completely perched and the last beast is snugly settled in the dark den beneath the men's dormitory, the basement will be fumigated to exclude moths and the room will be sealed for an indefinite period.

This journey is one of the few made by the collection since the bears lost an opportunity to become a fur coat.

Brown Bears, College Mule's Skeleton Take Up New Quarters in Watts Hall

The animals have been in Old Main since about 1890, as far as I know," Professor Casselberry said. "I believe they have been taken from State College just once or twice. In 1892, the collection was exhibited at the World's Fair in Chicago. Just before the animals were taken to Chicago, they were displayed in several Southern cities. The collection was in Georgia and the Carolinas during the trip."

Animals have been mounted and added to the exhibition from time to time, Professor Casselberry revealed. Dr. George W. Atherton, a former president of the College and a Prof. H. A. Surface, a member of the zoology department who later became an Entomologist for the State department at Harrisburg, were the men responsible for the beginning of the collection
