

Wyoming, Lock Haven Win Track Titles; Holy Cross Nine Downs Lions, 12-1

SEMINARY RUNNERS BEAT KISKI, 83-70

Clinton County Trackmen Score 57 1/2 Points—State College Wins Third Place

While Wyoming seminary was out-... Kiski from its three-year grasp... Lock Haven high school scored 57 1/2 points to win the high school track championship at the annual Penn State interscholastics on New Beaver field Saturday.

As only Wyoming and Kiski put in an appearance in the prep school class, the competition developed into a dual meet between the two institutions. Lead by Potoski, high point scorer, Wyoming trackmen garnered 83 points to Kiski's 70.

Lock Haven had little difficulty in annexing the high school crown. Peabody high school of Peabody placed second with 24 points while State College's 22 earned third place. Altoona scored 18 1/2 points to take fourth.

2 Double Winners Three records were broken and one equaled by Kiski during the meet. Running the mile in 3 minutes 34 seconds, the Saltsburg relay team set a new time for that distance. The former record had been established by Kiski runners in 1927. The State College quartet was second in this event which was open to both high and prep school teams.

Miles of Kiski ran the 440-yard dash in record time when he covered the distance in 51 seconds. He bettered the old mark by more than a second. He also equaled the 220-yard record of 29 1-5 seconds while Stockwell of the same school set a new high jump record with a leap of 5 feet 8 inches.

Potoski captured individual honors when he scored 22 points in winning the pole vault, high and low hurdles, placing second in the century dash and tying for first in the broad jump.

Martin of Lock Haven and Coulters of Peabody proved the only double winners in the high school events. The Clinton county boy won the shot put and discus while the Pittsburgh runner took first place in the high and low hurdles.

Win Field Events In the high school competition, McCloskey, Lock Haven, won the hammer throw with a heave of 133 feet with Stearns of State College third. Smith of Lock Haven threw the javelin 104 feet 3 inches to capture first place followed by McQuigg and England of State College. Swam, Millheim, jumped 20 feet 4 inches to win the broad jump while Eisenmann of State College was fourth.

The high jump was won by Moore of Lock Haven at the height of 5 feet 5 inches. Milligan of Peabody captured the 100-yard dash in 10 seconds .4. England of State College ran the mile in 4 minutes 37 seconds while Whittaker of Altoona and McQuigg, State College, tied for first in the 440-yard dash.

Rishell, Gregg Township, won the half mile in 2 minutes 4 1-5 seconds and Ryan, Lock Haven, annexed first place in the 220-yard dash. His time was 22 and 2-5 seconds. Lock Haven high trackmen placed in fourteen events to amass their substantial lead over their nearest competitors.

Welsh of Wyoming Seminary tossed the shot 45 feet 5 inches to win that event in the prep school class. Welton's throw of 125 feet annexed another first for Wyoming in the discus event. Komora, Kiski, captured the hammer throw, while Gutowski of Wyoming won another first when he threw the javelin 165 feet 1 inch.

Moses, Wyoming runner, scored another five points for his team in the mile event. His time was 5 minutes 5 1-5 seconds. Jayner's time of 2 minutes 11 seconds gained Kiski first place in the 880-yard dash.

Until Wyoming Seminary won the title Saturday, Kiski had reigned supreme for three years. In the meet last year, Kiski was first, Potomac State second, Altoona third and State College fourth.

While Wyoming seminary was out-... Kiski from its three-year grasp... Lock Haven high school scored 57 1/2 points to win the high school track championship at the annual Penn State interscholastics on New Beaver field Saturday.

As only Wyoming and Kiski put in an appearance in the prep school class, the competition developed into a dual meet between the two institutions. Lead by Potoski, high point scorer, Wyoming trackmen garnered 83 points to Kiski's 70.

Lock Haven had little difficulty in annexing the high school crown. Peabody high school of Peabody placed second with 24 points while State College's 22 earned third place. Altoona scored 18 1/2 points to take fourth.

2 Double Winners Three records were broken and one equaled by Kiski during the meet. Running the mile in 3 minutes 34 seconds, the Saltsburg relay team set a new time for that distance. The former record had been established by Kiski runners in 1927. The State College quartet was second in this event which was open to both high and prep school teams.

Miles of Kiski ran the 440-yard dash in record time when he covered the distance in 51 seconds. He bettered the old mark by more than a second. He also equaled the 220-yard record of 29 1-5 seconds while Stockwell of the same school set a new high jump record with a leap of 5 feet 8 inches.

Potoski captured individual honors when he scored 22 points in winning the pole vault, high and low hurdles, placing second in the century dash and tying for first in the broad jump.

Martin of Lock Haven and Coulters of Peabody proved the only double winners in the high school events. The Clinton county boy won the shot put and discus while the Pittsburgh runner took first place in the high and low hurdles.

Win Field Events In the high school competition, McCloskey, Lock Haven, won the hammer throw with a heave of 133 feet with Stearns of State College third. Smith of Lock Haven threw the javelin 104 feet 3 inches to capture first place followed by McQuigg and England of State College. Swam, Millheim, jumped 20 feet 4 inches to win the broad jump while Eisenmann of State College was fourth.

The high jump was won by Moore of Lock Haven at the height of 5 feet 5 inches. Milligan of Peabody captured the 100-yard dash in 10 seconds .4. England of State College ran the mile in 4 minutes 37 seconds while Whittaker of Altoona and McQuigg, State College, tied for first in the 440-yard dash.

Rishell, Gregg Township, won the half mile in 2 minutes 4 1-5 seconds and Ryan, Lock Haven, annexed first place in the 220-yard dash. His time was 22 and 2-5 seconds. Lock Haven high trackmen placed in fourteen events to amass their substantial lead over their nearest competitors.

YEARLING STICKMEN DEFEAT SOPHOMORES

By conquering the sophomore stickmen, 6-to-4, the plebe lacrosse team won the first of the annual freshman-sophomore lacrosse scrags Friday afternoon.

Charles and Belfield scored two and three points for the yearlings while Don Lewis accounted for three markers for the 1931 team.

YEARLING BATTERS TO ENGAGE BISONS

Close Season Tomorrow Afternoon At Lewisburg—Lose Syracuse Battle, 10-3, Saturday

Playing their last game of the season, the Nittany yearling batters will engage Bucknell in a return contest at Lewisburg at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Coch Housck is undecided as to the lineup he will start but it is probable that the same men who defeated the Bisons in the first game here will start with Gates pitching.

The Penn State batters will enter the game with a record of one win and one loss. An experienced Syracuse team accounted for the loss by defeating the Lions 10-to-3 on the New Beaver field diamond Saturday afternoon.

Piling up a three run lead in the first inning as the result of a base on balls, a double, a homer and an overthrow by the catcher to third base, the Orangemen were never headed throughout the contest.

Gates, star Penn State pitcher, though hit hard, struck out eleven opponents. Fishel, Syracuse center fielder, accounted for four of the safe blows registered by his team mates. Elliot, opposing hurler, yielded nine hits and struck out seven batters.

Penn State scored two runs in the third inning and one in the ninth. The visiting aggregation increased their lead by garnering two runs in the fourth, one in the fifth and four in the ninth.

DORSETT RECEIVES TRUSTEE POSITION

Gov. John S. Fisher Appoints State Grange Head To Post After Health of Mr. Wise Fails

Governor John S. Fisher has appointed Mr. E. B. Dorsett, master of the Pennsylvania State Grange, as a College trustee to fill the post vacated by Mr. W. S. Wise of Meadville.

Mr. Wise is retiring because of failing health. The post to which Mr. Dorsett has been appointed is one of six which are filled by the first executive of the State. He was granted this position for the interest he has shown in the welfare of the College.

Mr. Dorsett will speak here during Farmer's Day in Schwab auditorium the night of June 19. He spoke here previously at the ground-breaking exercises of the Grange memorial dormitory for women last summer.

Governor Fisher also reappointed Jessie B. Waringer to the Trustee Board. Mr. Waringer is a graduate of Penn State and has been a trustee for several years.

STUDENTS WIN PRIZES AT DAIRY EXPOSITION

At the seventh annual Penn State Dairy Exposition Saturday afternoon various contests were held in which students competed for prizes and loving cups donated by cattle clubs and breeding associations throughout the state.

The clean milk production contest was won by Arch G. Hug '29, president of the local chapter of the American Dairy Science Association.

The clean milk production contest was won by Arch G. Hug '29, president of the local chapter of the American Dairy Science Association.

The clean milk production contest was won by Arch G. Hug '29, president of the local chapter of the American Dairy Science Association.

The clean milk production contest was won by Arch G. Hug '29, president of the local chapter of the American Dairy Science Association.

The clean milk production contest was won by Arch G. Hug '29, president of the local chapter of the American Dairy Science Association.

The clean milk production contest was won by Arch G. Hug '29, president of the local chapter of the American Dairy Science Association.

The clean milk production contest was won by Arch G. Hug '29, president of the local chapter of the American Dairy Science Association.

LIONS COMPLETE EASTERN INVASION

Lose Third Contest of Trip to Worcester Team—Penn. Princeton Win

Failing to register a victory during the trip, the Penn State baseball team completed an unsuccessful eastern tour when they lost to Holy Cross, 12-to-1, at Worcester, Mass., Friday.

Bunched hits in the second, third, fifth, sixth, seventh, and eighth innings resulted in Holy Cross runs. The lone Nittany tally was scored in the ninth frame when the Lions started a belated rally.

Lockard started the contest for the Blue and White batters and was relieved by Kepler in the seventh inning. Stokes assumed hill duty in the eighth and finished the game.

The trio of Lion hurlers allowed fifteen hits throughout the contest while the Nittany batters got seven hits from the offering of Herbert, Holy Cross hurler.

The Penn State score was made when Livezey singled and stole second and third bases. An error by Herbert on a hard-hit ball by Saltzman allowed the second baseman to count.

An error, a fielder's choice and a single resulted in a pair of Holy Cross runs in the second period while a trio of one base blows allowed another Worcester tally to cross the plate in the third.

Another marker was added to the Holy Cross total in the fifth when Shirlin doubled and Hurley and Ryan hit safely. Three tallies were added to the Worcester score in the sixth. A run scored in the seventh inning brought the count to eight.

Three hits combined with costly errors by Dietrich and Saltzman resulted in four runs in the eighth period and brought the final count to twelve runs.

Encounter Princeton A revised batting order failed to defeat the Princeton nine in Thursday's game, the Lion team losing by a 4-to-1 score. The Nittany run was scored in the fourth frame when Dietrich drove out a triple and scored on an error by the Tiger backstop.

Fry twirled the entire contest for the Blue and White batsmen while Layton pitched for the Princeton machine. The Tiger batters obtained nine hits while seven safe blows were the Lion total.

The Princeton runs were scored in the third, fourth, and sixth innings. A triple and an error by Saltzman resulted in the first Tiger score. Another run was added to the Princeton total in the fourth while a pair of runs in the sixth brought the total to four.

The Princeton runs were scored in the third, fourth, and sixth innings. A triple and an error by Saltzman resulted in the first Tiger score. Another run was added to the Princeton total in the fourth while a pair of runs in the sixth brought the total to four.

The Princeton runs were scored in the third, fourth, and sixth innings. A triple and an error by Saltzman resulted in the first Tiger score. Another run was added to the Princeton total in the fourth while a pair of runs in the sixth brought the total to four.

The Princeton runs were scored in the third, fourth, and sixth innings. A triple and an error by Saltzman resulted in the first Tiger score. Another run was added to the Princeton total in the fourth while a pair of runs in the sixth brought the total to four.

The Princeton runs were scored in the third, fourth, and sixth innings. A triple and an error by Saltzman resulted in the first Tiger score. Another run was added to the Princeton total in the fourth while a pair of runs in the sixth brought the total to four.

The Princeton runs were scored in the third, fourth, and sixth innings. A triple and an error by Saltzman resulted in the first Tiger score. Another run was added to the Princeton total in the fourth while a pair of runs in the sixth brought the total to four.

The Princeton runs were scored in the third, fourth, and sixth innings. A triple and an error by Saltzman resulted in the first Tiger score. Another run was added to the Princeton total in the fourth while a pair of runs in the sixth brought the total to four.

The Princeton runs were scored in the third, fourth, and sixth innings. A triple and an error by Saltzman resulted in the first Tiger score. Another run was added to the Princeton total in the fourth while a pair of runs in the sixth brought the total to four.

The Princeton runs were scored in the third, fourth, and sixth innings. A triple and an error by Saltzman resulted in the first Tiger score. Another run was added to the Princeton total in the fourth while a pair of runs in the sixth brought the total to four.

The Princeton runs were scored in the third, fourth, and sixth innings. A triple and an error by Saltzman resulted in the first Tiger score. Another run was added to the Princeton total in the fourth while a pair of runs in the sixth brought the total to four.

The Princeton runs were scored in the third, fourth, and sixth innings. A triple and an error by Saltzman resulted in the first Tiger score. Another run was added to the Princeton total in the fourth while a pair of runs in the sixth brought the total to four.

The Princeton runs were scored in the third, fourth, and sixth innings. A triple and an error by Saltzman resulted in the first Tiger score. Another run was added to the Princeton total in the fourth while a pair of runs in the sixth brought the total to four.

The Princeton runs were scored in the third, fourth, and sixth innings. A triple and an error by Saltzman resulted in the first Tiger score. Another run was added to the Princeton total in the fourth while a pair of runs in the sixth brought the total to four.

LIBERAL ARTS-CHEMISTS' TEAM WINS SOCCER CUP

By defeating a team representing the Engineering schools, 2-to-0, Wednesday afternoon, the Liberal Arts-Chemistry and Physics booters won the first interschool soccer trophy awarded by the Interscholastic Associated Football League.

The Liberal Arts-Chemistry and Physics team had previously defeated the School of Agriculture booters, 5-to-0, and Mines and Metallurgy, 3-to-2. The engineers had conquered the agriculture team, 1-to-0, while the latter fought the mines and metallurgy eleven to a 1-to-4 tie.

LINKSMEN SUBDUED CLINTON CLUB, 12-3

Coach Rutherford Enters 3 Plebes As Nittany Golfers Score In Every Match

Scoring in every foursome, the Linksmen vanquished the Clinton country club of Lock Haven 12-to-3 on the College course Saturday afternoon.

The Lock Haven golfers garnered 2 1/2 points in one foursome and tallied 1 1/2 point in another. The Nittany squad carried the remaining encounters without allowing a score by their opponents.

Three Penn State freshmen were entered in the match by coach Bob Rutherford. Hugo Bezek, Tom Weichel and Warren Shepard were drafted from the club squad for the informal fray. Bezek, who was runner-up in the All-College tournament last fall, distinguished himself on Saturday by making the eighteen holes in 78 strokes which was the low medal end for the afternoon.

Bunting, Leonard and Jackson tied with Bezek for the low score honors. Weichel recently joined the hole-in-one club by holing out on the seventeenth hole with his first stroke. Quigley, of the club team, also turned in a card of 78, equalling the best efforts of the afternoon.

Five foursomes competed in the meet, which is the last encounter for the Nittany golfers before they leave on their Eastern trip Friday to oppose the Swarthmore and Penn varsity foursomes.

The Garnet battled the Quaker linksmen to a 3-to-3 deadlock in a match early in the season. In another meet the Swarthmore varsity defeated Villanova 8-to-1.

The Garnet golfers are lead by captains, Robert L. Testwuide and William Kusch both of whom are sophomores. Each captured their singles match in the Penn meet and paired to annex the doubles from the Quaker linksmen.

The Garnet golfers are lead by captains, Robert L. Testwuide and William Kusch both of whom are sophomores. Each captured their singles match in the Penn meet and paired to annex the doubles from the Quaker linksmen.

The Garnet golfers are lead by captains, Robert L. Testwuide and William Kusch both of whom are sophomores. Each captured their singles match in the Penn meet and paired to annex the doubles from the Quaker linksmen.

The Garnet golfers are lead by captains, Robert L. Testwuide and William Kusch both of whom are sophomores. Each captured their singles match in the Penn meet and paired to annex the doubles from the Quaker linksmen.

The Garnet golfers are lead by captains, Robert L. Testwuide and William Kusch both of whom are sophomores. Each captured their singles match in the Penn meet and paired to annex the doubles from the Quaker linksmen.

The Garnet golfers are lead by captains, Robert L. Testwuide and William Kusch both of whom are sophomores. Each captured their singles match in the Penn meet and paired to annex the doubles from the Quaker linksmen.

The Garnet golfers are lead by captains, Robert L. Testwuide and William Kusch both of whom are sophomores. Each captured their singles match in the Penn meet and paired to annex the doubles from the Quaker linksmen.

The Garnet golfers are lead by captains, Robert L. Testwuide and William Kusch both of whom are sophomores. Each captured their singles match in the Penn meet and paired to annex the doubles from the Quaker linksmen.

The Garnet golfers are lead by captains, Robert L. Testwuide and William Kusch both of whom are sophomores. Each captured their singles match in the Penn meet and paired to annex the doubles from the Quaker linksmen.

The Garnet golfers are lead by captains, Robert L. Testwuide and William Kusch both of whom are sophomores. Each captured their singles match in the Penn meet and paired to annex the doubles from the Quaker linksmen.

The Garnet golfers are lead by captains, Robert L. Testwuide and William Kusch both of whom are sophomores. Each captured their singles match in the Penn meet and paired to annex the doubles from the Quaker linksmen.

The Garnet golfers are lead by captains, Robert L. Testwuide and William Kusch both of whom are sophomores. Each captured their singles match in the Penn meet and paired to annex the doubles from the Quaker linksmen.

The Garnet golfers are lead by captains, Robert L. Testwuide and William Kusch both of whom are sophomores. Each captured their singles match in the Penn meet and paired to annex the doubles from the Quaker linksmen.

The Garnet golfers are lead by captains, Robert L. Testwuide and William Kusch both of whom are sophomores. Each captured their singles match in the Penn meet and paired to annex the doubles from the Quaker linksmen.

NITTANY COURTMEN DOWN GETTYSBURG

Captain Butler, Barber, Metzner Win Singles—Lions Score Doubles Matches

Annexing another victory to keep their record clean, the Lion courtmen defeated a Gettysburg team 5-to-1 on the Bullet courts last Saturday afternoon.

Paul Barber, Captain Butler, and Johnny Metzner scored wins in their singles contests, while both Nittany doubles teams won. Jack Barber, the only Lion loser, was defeated after a hard battle.

Opening the meet, Paul Barber downed Captain Hood of the Battle field team in straight sets. He took the first 6-to-3 and followed by winning the second with the same score.

Lions Win Doubles Captain Ed Butler easily vanquished his opponent also in straight sets, 6-to-1 and 6-to-0. Johnny Metzner completed the run of victories by downing H. Koch of Gettysburg 6-to-3 and 6-to-0 in two fast sets.

The only loss of the afternoon was suffered when Jack Barber was defeated by W. V. Lauer. Jack lost the first set 6-to-3, but came back to win the second 6-to-3. He dropped the last set after a stiff battle 5-to-7.

In the first doubles engagement Captain Butler teamed with Johnny Metzner to defeat Captain Hood and W. Lauer of the Bullets 6-to-4 and 6-to-1. Both Nittany netmen were in good form and worked together perfectly.

For the first time this season Paul Barber paired up with Ted Wolfe, to defeat the Gettysburg pair Aumiller and Koch 6-to-2 and 6-to-0. Wolfe did not get a chance to play singles as the Gettysburg team was incomplete.

Bunting, Leonard and Jackson tied with Bezek for the low score honors. Weichel recently joined the hole-in-one club by holing out on the seventeenth hole with his first stroke. Quigley, of the club team, also turned in a card of 78, equalling the best efforts of the afternoon.

Five foursomes competed in the meet, which is the last encounter for the Nittany golfers before they leave on their Eastern trip Friday to oppose the Swarthmore and Penn varsity foursomes.

The Garnet battled the Quaker linksmen to a 3-to-3 deadlock in a match early in the season. In another meet the Swarthmore varsity defeated Villanova 8-to-1.

The Garnet golfers are lead by captains, Robert L. Testwuide and William Kusch both of whom are sophomores. Each captured their singles match in the Penn meet and paired to annex the doubles from the Quaker linksmen.

The Garnet golfers are lead by captains, Robert L. Testwuide and William Kusch both of whom are sophomores. Each captured their singles match in the Penn meet and paired to annex the doubles from the Quaker linksmen.

The Garnet golfers are lead by captains, Robert L. Testwuide and William Kusch both of whom are sophomores. Each captured their singles match in the Penn meet and paired to annex the doubles from the Quaker linksmen.

The Garnet golfers are lead by captains, Robert L. Testwuide and William Kusch both of whom are sophomores. Each captured their singles match in the Penn meet and paired to annex the doubles from the Quaker linksmen.

The Garnet golfers are lead by captains, Robert L. Testwuide and William Kusch both of whom are sophomores. Each captured their singles match in the Penn meet and paired to annex the doubles from the Quaker linksmen.

The Garnet golfers are lead by captains, Robert L. Testwuide and William Kusch both of whom are sophomores. Each captured their singles match in the Penn meet and paired to annex the doubles from the Quaker linksmen.

The Garnet golfers are lead by captains, Robert L. Testwuide and William Kusch both of whom are sophomores. Each captured their singles match in the Penn meet and paired to annex the doubles from the Quaker linksmen.

The Garnet golfers are lead by captains, Robert L. Testwuide and William Kusch both of whom are sophomores. Each captured their singles match in the Penn meet and paired to annex the doubles from the Quaker linksmen.

The Garnet golfers are lead by captains, Robert L. Testwuide and William Kusch both of whom are sophomores. Each captured their singles match in the Penn meet and paired to annex the doubles from the Quaker linksmen.

The Garnet golfers are lead by captains, Robert L. Testwuide and William Kusch both of whom are sophomores. Each captured their singles match in the Penn meet and paired to annex the doubles from the Quaker linksmen.

The Garnet golfers are lead by captains, Robert L. Testwuide and William Kusch both of whom are sophomores. Each captured their singles match in the Penn meet and paired to annex the doubles from the Quaker linksmen.

The Garnet golfers are lead by captains, Robert L. Testwuide and William Kusch both of whom are sophomores. Each captured their singles match in the Penn meet and paired to annex the doubles from the Quaker linksmen.

The Garnet golfers are lead by captains, Robert L. Testwuide and William Kusch both of whom are sophomores. Each captured their singles match in the Penn meet and paired to annex the doubles from the Quaker linksmen.

FRATERNITIES ENTER I. F. C. COURT TOURNEY

Seventeen fraternities will compete in the interfraternity tennis tournament opening this week announced Louis H. Niemann '30, manager of the tourney, yesterday.

Each team entered will be composed of three men, playing two singles and one doubles match.

DR. ILLO HEIN TO SPEAK ON ANATOMY TOMORROW

Dr. Illo Hein, assistant professor of botany, will develop the subject of the human body in a talk before the Pre-Medical society in Room 4, McAllister hall, at 7 o'clock tomorrow night as one of a series of lectures scheduled to speak before the group.

Officers of the society elected at the last meeting were Evan C. Reese '31, president, Gordon H. Pritham '30, vice-president, Eugene A. Reichard '30, treasurer, and Miss Mary Romaker '31, secretary.

EDUCATOR WILL SPEAK

Prof. Clarence S. Anderson, of the School of Agriculture, will go to Coatesville to address a group of vocational rural education teachers, who are taking a special extension course, at their regular semi-weekly meeting.

Prof. Clarence S. Anderson, of the School of Agriculture, will go to Coatesville to address a group of vocational rural education teachers, who are taking a special extension course, at their regular semi-weekly meeting.

Prof. Clarence S. Anderson, of the School of Agriculture, will go to Coatesville to address a group of vocational rural education teachers, who are taking a special extension course, at their regular semi-weekly meeting.

Prof. Clarence S. Anderson, of the School of Agriculture, will go to Coatesville to address a group of vocational rural education teachers, who are taking a special extension course, at their regular semi-weekly meeting.

Prof. Clarence S. Anderson, of the School of Agriculture, will go to Coatesville to address a group of vocational rural education teachers, who are taking a special extension course, at their regular semi-weekly meeting.

Prof. Clarence S. Anderson, of the School of Agriculture, will go to Coatesville to address a group of vocational rural education teachers, who are taking a special extension course, at their regular semi-weekly meeting.

Prof. Clarence S. Anderson, of the School of Agriculture, will go to Coatesville to address a group of vocational rural education teachers, who are taking a special extension course, at their regular semi-weekly meeting.

Prof. Clarence S. Anderson, of the School of Agriculture, will go to Coatesville to address a group of vocational rural education teachers, who are taking a special extension course, at their regular semi-weekly meeting.

Prof. Clarence S. Anderson, of the School of Agriculture, will go to Coatesville to address a group of vocational rural education teachers, who are taking a special extension course, at their regular semi-weekly meeting.

Prof. Clarence S. Anderson, of the School of Agriculture, will go to Coatesville to address a group of vocational rural education teachers, who are taking a special extension course, at their regular semi-weekly meeting.

Prof. Clarence S. Anderson, of the School of Agriculture, will go to Coatesville to address a group of vocational rural education teachers, who are taking a special extension course, at their regular semi-weekly meeting.

Prof. Clarence S. Anderson, of the School of Agriculture, will go to Coatesville to address a group of vocational rural education teachers, who are taking a special extension course, at their regular semi-weekly meeting.

Prof. Clarence S. Anderson, of the School of Agriculture, will go to Coatesville to address a group of vocational rural education teachers, who are taking a special extension course, at their regular semi-weekly meeting.

Prof. Clarence S. Anderson, of the School of Agriculture, will go to Coatesville to address a group of vocational rural education teachers, who are taking a special extension course, at their regular semi-weekly meeting.

Prof. Clarence S. Anderson, of the School of Agriculture, will go to Coatesville to address a group of vocational rural education teachers, who are taking a special extension course, at their regular semi-weekly meeting.

Prof. Clarence S. Anderson, of the School of Agriculture, will go to Coatesville to address a group of vocational rural education teachers, who are taking a special extension course, at their regular semi-weekly meeting.

Prof. Clarence S. Anderson, of the School of Agriculture, will go to Coatesville to address a group of vocational rural education teachers, who are taking a special extension course, at their regular semi-weekly meeting.

Prof. Clarence S. Anderson, of the School of Agriculture, will go to Coatesville to address a group of vocational rural education teachers, who are taking a special extension course, at their regular semi-weekly meeting.

HORTICULTURISTS HOLD MAY PARTY THURSDAY

One of the problems confronting President Hoover and his administration will be thrashed out in burlesque fashion by faculty members of the department of horticulture at their annual May party at 5:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon in the department gardens.

A mock Congressional committee consisting of Prof. James E. Knott, Mr. Richard H. Sudds and Mr. Milton T. Lewis will conduct an investigation of the need for farm relief. Various aspects of the question will be considered in a peculiar manner, when different members of the faculty are examined by the investigating committee.

PATRONIZE OUR ADVERTISERS

CANDY & McGAUGHEY Dressmaker and Millinery</