PENN STATE COLLEGIAN

THE MANAGING BOARD

James H Coogan pr '30
Lillier in Chief '30
Charles A Mensch '30
Wanaging Iditor
Robert P Stevenson '30
Quinton E Beautge '30
Sports I ditor

Sports I ditor

Charles A Mensch '30
Calvin E Baiws 300
Circulation Wanager
Henry R, Dawdy pr '30
Lordkin Advertising Manager

ASSOCIATE EDITORS
Jacob L Cohen '31 Charles A S
William C McElvain '31 Norman B S
Roy E Morgan '31 William K

ASSOCIATE BUSINESS MANAGERS
Cutting '31 Algert J. Mileski '31
B Heilman '31 Harry G. Wood '31 Alan B Cutting '31 William B Heilman '31

WOMEN'S EDITORIAL STAFF
Woodlow 70
Associate 1ditor
Associate 1ditor Grace M Woodrow Women's I ditor Helen F Faust 10 Managing I door Martha J Gobrecht

Untered at the Postoffice State College Pa, as second-class matter

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1929

DAD: AN APPRECIATION

now we are going to entertain an honored guest. He is a man who has seen the leaves of many quean rie is a man who his seen the leaves of many auturnms turn golden, wither, and float gently to the ground, a man who, it seems to us, is old in years but one, nevertheless, possessed of a buoyancy of youth that brings to him a full and deep appreciation of college and college life. Tomorrow his happy smile will warm our hearts to a smang morning comfort as we proudly match strides with him down the street. For tomorrow, this man, whom we affectionately name Dad, will be our

That we should be in college does not seem possible to Dad. He cannot feel that we are approaching so near the day when we, too, must slip into a groove of our own. He recalls the helpless sprawl when we first sought to stand upon our baby feet, and the intervening years seem but a day now. Our first memory of him veata seem but a day now. Our first memory of him is hary in the mists that shroud our carly impressions. During our childhood days what a pal he was, always understanding, stein at times, but an ever-ready counsellor. To us Dad has never ceased to be a pal, for which we raise a prayer of thanksgiving. May it ever be so. And tomorrow, the day set aside in his honor we shall again grip his hand in the comradely clasp of

Dad is proud of us, and we are proud of him He never actually tells us what joy we bring him in espousme that which is noble, upright, and true, but every now and then a gladdening whisper of his pide in us and our accomplishments comes to our ears from the lips of these to whom he must necessarily boast. We are his son and proud of the fact. For Dad we cannot do too much, and we hope that his pride and faith in us will always have a just basis

Tomorrow we shall honor Dad ngain. As year follows year we hope that Dad can always visit with us on that day annually set aside to him, and if he cannot be present in physical form we know that he will he at our side at least in spirit. On every Dad's Day we shall realize the full portent of the indelible inscription caived on the monument that we have raised to him in our memory, the only monument, perhaps, that will ever be elected in his honor, but one, nevertheless, that carries a most realistic touch. The inscription

CHEERING AND JEERING

A returning alumnus no doubt would express dissatisfaction with the decided lack of spirit and enthusiasm at Penn State football games nowadays. Perhaps Saturday game was the best example yet of that waning spirit. Time after time the cheerleaders went through the maneuvers that distinguish one College yell from another, without iccoving any response from the occu-pants of the west stands. Before the game had ended, a large number of undergraduates had left the held, while the remaining few crowded the sidelines, unwill-ing to stay in the stands until the final whistle hed

This latter picture must be discouraging to the combatants. We have often wondered what a triegl and commands. We have often wondered what a riegi and housed football player mast think when he sees unappreciative classmates file out of the stands. It is not unreasonable to believe that he loses interest in the game, and begins to conjecture on the benefits—if any—

Checring is another question. Whether or not the cheerleaders are to blame is beside the question. The chief fault, it seems to us, is a lack of cooperation on the part of upperclassmen. Instead of joining in the sprit of the occasion they sit tight and let the fresh-

On the other hand, however, theers follow in such 1 upid succession that sometimes students tire of them.

One suggestion that has renched us advocates fewer One aggrection that has reached us autocates level-theers as a possible tended. This suggestion adids that six or eight yells that would literally took the stands would be tar superior to fifty half-hearted attempts at theering. Another warms against cheering at moppor-tune moments, when the audience's attention is likely to be directed upon an impending play.

Coupled with these apparent shortcomings is the im-Coupled with these apparent snortcomings is the in-patient attitude of upperclussmen at all athletic con-tests. Football fans, for instance, begin a grand evo-dus long before the game is ended. There was a time when a general student outery discouraged such a prac-tice, but now a student leaves the game anytime he pleases without earning the disfavor of his fellow stu-Perhaps Penn State Spirit crumpled to earth with Old Main, after all.

THE LION'S DEN

BY DANIEL

"All signs," we wired Dad, "will lead to State lege tomoriow" College tomorrow"
"All dollar signs?" he inquired promptly

And, as usual, Dad is right. He pays and pays and pays, whether it be Dads' Day, Mothers' Day, Dollar Day, or pay day

Withal; its sponsors tell us, Dads' Day is a pay

There are a few events on the free list, however For instance, there is the "See the Campus" tour tomorrow morning

Of course, we understand, admission won't be charged for the tootball game But, it is likewise un-derstood, that parents, being parents, should get tu-

Dad will be given a ticket to the football game absolutely free (so they say) by applying at the same desh where dollars are collected for membership tees to the Association of Parents of Penn State

After all, a dollar's a dollar any day in the week

Regardless, visiting parents will be given an opportunity to cheer for nothing tomorrow. We mean, of course, that there is no charge for exercising one's

Although one would suspect that there was, judging from past performances

One interested party complains that there is too much cheering. By too much cheering he means too many attempts at cheering, rather than a few honest-

This party reports that he witnessed a game at Princeton recently, and that there were probably no ² more than ten organized cheers during the entire con-

"But those were cheers" he insists

The plan might be given a trial here For one thing, a "Short Yell, Whoozis" after evsubstitution is a waste of energy

man should be hurt, at least," our fresh

Penn State's Blue Band will hit the high spots in New York City next week-end Or perhaps they'll hit then enroute

It may be a shame to drive the Blues away, but what if they bring back a bunch of Violets?

We might exclaim "Is Zat So'" if someone told us that the Players expected to start tonight's revival at the scheduled time

Be that as it may, Pennsylvania now joins our fast-growing list of supporters

The Philadelphia university, like Haverford college, prohibited the hazing of treshmen this year

Too, we understand that faculty members at State will live long

Yes, long after we are gone .

New Books for Our RENTAL LIBRARY

Kept Women Vina Delmar's New Books

Broadway Interlude Faith Baldwin & Achmed Abdullah

Borgia Zona Gale

Haus Frost Hugh Walpole

Dark Journey

Julian Green Additional Comes of net On the Western Front Emich Remaique

Jim the Conqueror Peter B. Kyne

ALSO MANY NEW MYSTERY STORIES

Keeler's CATHAUM THEATRE BUILDING

Letter Box

tters to the Futtor" must hear ure and siddress of the writer a nom de plume shauld sup-he signature. No responsibility d by the editor for sentiments in this column

Deal Sil

I noticed in this morning's COLLEGIAN that the Blue Band will not travel to New York with the team for the N Y U game I behave this is a serious mistake.

In the teat -1-

N U game I believe, this is a serious mistake.

If the hist place, little or nothing is known of Penn State in New York. City The number of students from that city in this school is relatively small It is my belief that a band with the qualities of our Blue Band with the qualities of our Blue Band will give this college a little desurable publicity, and would favorably impress the thousands of people attending the game.

Then, as the COLLEGIAN stated, the stands will be disorganized I can safely say that the student body should get behind the COLLEGIAN's platform, if only for pride's sake Such action only can create a better impression of our school, its training, and its student body.

Sincerely, (Signed) W M.

COLLEGE TO OFFER NEW POULTRY SHORT COURSE

A short course in poultry husbandy will be offered by the department of agriculture from December 2-6
Prof Herman C Knandel, department head announced teday
Representatives of the State Department of Agriculture and the college departments of agricultural and biological chemistry; animal husband13, dairy husbandly, agricultural economists and farm machinery will cooperate in planning the week.

HOME ECONOMICS STUDENTS WIN DRESS-WAKING AWARDS

WIN DRESS-MAKING AWARDS
Cash plizes, were awaited Home
Conomic guils last week for summer projects in diess-making according to Miss Ruth E. Galham, associate proiesso of home conomics

Miss Getti ude M. Goodman '30, ieceived one of the first plizes of ten dellars awaited by a local meichant, Missee Madge L and Marian L Teiwillinge '32, shared the other first plize Two second plizes, as yet undecided upon, will be given by the home conomics department to Miss
Kathiy n P. Rishel '31, and Miss Edia
S. Rubikane.

ANNUAL DAY HERE

(Continued from first page)

Continued from first page)

event is an innovation on the Fathers'
Day program

Starting from the auditorium, the "Dade" will visit the Main Engineering Extension department engineering building and the site of the new Old Main. The tour will continue it through the engineering units, the Old Mining building, past the new old Mining building, past the new a power plant development and the additional to the Mineral flustring the new Men's downtory they will be convidented past the new Botany building the new Men's downtory they will be convidented the football game with Maishall college tomorrow afternoon, mothers visiting the more matternoon mothers visiting the more matternoon mothers visiting the more matternoon mothers visiting to the more matternoon mothers with the students at the Women's the women students at the Women's building, from 3 unit 5,30 o'close Miss Carloine S Haller '30 and Miss Railbard R Misher R Michener '30 unit at an joint hostesses of the affair Climaving the three-day program.

Starting the segond year of a three-vear engineering course held in confunction with the Philadelphia and Radming Coal and Inon Co, the Engineering course held in confunction with the Philadelphia and Radming Coal and Inon Co, the Engineering course held in confunction with the Philadelphia and Radming Extension department enclied approximately 1000 students the came four schools in this new each at Carmel. Penn State has 3 full-time new flows and the service, one each at Carmel. Penn State has 3 full-time the service, one each at Carmel. Penn State has 3 full-time the service, one each at Pattstown, Towers Shenandonh, and Pattstown, Towers Shena

joint hostesses of the affan
Climaving the three-day program, the student government will entertain the fathers at a smoke, to be held in the Armory, tomoriow evening, starting at 7 30 o'clock. Following short talks by Dean of Men Arthur R Warnock, Hugo Bezdek, director of athletics, and F Bruce Baldwin '30, president of the student government, a varied program has been arranged by the entertainment committee.

mrtaged by the entertainment commuttee.

Di Sigmund Spaeth will present an offering similar to his Movietone "Old Tunes for New" and Afried N Hovic and ten members of the Philadelphia Harmonica band will perform Hetbert G Sapper "30, Wilham T Teas, "30, Kenneth T Deike "30 and Robert G Thrasher "31 will entertain the "Dads" with vaudeville skits The Varisty quartet is also expected to be present

The Low-Down on Marshall Answers the Who, What, and When

Beaver Field Pictorial OUT TOMORROW

TYPEWRITERS TO RENT

Portables | Remington — Corona | Underwood — Royal

BY THE DAY, WEEK, MONTH OR SEMESTER

The Athletic Store

On Co-Op Corner

ALL STUDENT SUPPLIES

SURPRISE THE BOYS OR GIRLS

Your Photograph Will Be Acceptable

FATHERS OBSERVE 1000 STUDENTS ENROLL IN ENGINEERING COURSE

Starting the second year of a three

Stating the second year of a three-vear engineering course held in con-junction with the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron Co, the En-gineering Extension department en-iolled approximately 1000 students this week.

There are four schools in this branch of the service, one each at Pattstown, Towers, Shenandoah, and Mt Carmel. Penn State has 3 full-time instructors and 19 part-time men engaged in this project.

SHOE REPAIRING J. B. MINGLE

Anatole France; "Him," by E E. Summings; "The Impuritans," by Harvey Wickham; "What Everybody Wanted," by Elsie Singmasses, "Fa-mous American Ducks," by Don C American Duels," o "How's and Why's

AY— Alan Hale, Sally Eders i "SAILOR'S HOLIDAY" All-Talking Comedy

ATURD AY-Billie Dove, Walter Prigeon HER PRIVATE LIPE" All-Talking Societ - Drana

MONDAY AND TUESDAY—
Matinee Daily
Janet Gavnor and All-Sinr Cast in
- "1 DEVILS"
Part-Talking Circus-Romance

WEDNESDAY—
Dolores Del Rio in
Henry W. Longfellov's
"EV NAGELINE"
Synchronized Picture—Music Only

WHEN DAD'S IN TOWN

BRING HIM TO

The Fenway Tea Room

He'll Enjoy the Home Cooked Meals

Come In and See the New Line of Puzzles and Wooden Toys for Children

COLLEGE CUT-RATE STORE BEAVER AT ALLEN

BETTER CARS

DRIVE-IT-YOURSELF CARS BETTER RATES

BETTER SERVICE

Clemson Brothers

110 McAllister St.

Whitey Musser

"Meet Your Friends at Whitey's"

The PHOTO STATE 212 E. COLLEGE AVE.

ALLIGATOR is one snappy outergar-ment—and you can slosh around in it all day and nover get wet Turns rain, wind, dust. Models for en and Wom $7,50 to $25

VLLIGATOR C

Dads

Got Yours Yet?

New! ALLIGATOR STEPPERS

Protect trouser legs—all colors to match all coats. $2 and $3.50 a pair Ash to see them

DRY-10FROM HEAD TO