

Penn State Collegian

Pool Pull For Pool

$450000 Under-mines Building

VOL. 29, No. 8 STATE COLLEGE, PA., TUESDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1922 PRICE 5 CENTS

MINERAL INDUSTRIES BUILDING WILL COST COLLEGE $450,000

'To Reflect All Phases Of Mining Work,' Dean Says

ARCHITECTURE CONFORMS WITH RECREATION HALL

Floor Space of New Structure Will Total 60,000 Square Feet, Plans Show

The new Mineral Industries building now under construction will cost $450,000 unexpended, and will be one of the finest buildings devoted to mineral industry education in America...

DECLARES Building Will Meet Approval of Industries

DEAN EDWARD STEIDLE

COURSE OFFICIALS BEGIN PASS SALE

Sell Season Tickets at $5 and $3.50—Russian Singers To Open Series

Following the opening of the publicity campaign under Dr. Sigmund Spaeth, noted music authority, ticket sale for the first Artists' course...

BAND WILL BROADCAST OVER N. B. C. NETWORK

Penn State's Blue Band will broadcast a program of College songs and military marches over the National Broadcasting company's network from station WJZ in New York city from 12 until 12:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

COACHES CONSIDER 2 DEBATING TOURS

Men's Team May Invade Middle West and South on Trips Between Semesters

Extended trips between semesters are being planned for the Penn State tennis teams by debating coaches Prof. John H. Fizzell and assistant Prof. Joseph F. O'Brien.

COLLEGE APPROVES NEW COURSES FOR MUSIC DEPARTMENT

Blue Band and Orchestra Join New Curriculum Headed By Director Grant

THOMPSON TAKES POST AS ASSISTANT PROFESSOR

Penn State Graduate Returns To Lead Girls' Glee Club, College Orchestra

With the establishment this year of a curriculum for the training of band and orchestra directors, the Blue band and College orchestra have been merged into the department of music, Richard W. Grant, head of the department, announced last night.

PROF. MACK TO ATTEND MEETING OF CHEMISTS

Prof. Pauline B. Mack will represent the College at a meeting at Princeton, N. J., tomorrow called by Dr. W. E. Enley, chief of the organic and fibrous materials division of the United States Bureau of Standards...

HOPE FOR SWIMMING UNIT GROWS AS 1922 ALUMNI RAISE FUND

HEARTILY Supports Movement For Swimming Pool

BEZDEK

'Y' WILL CONDUCT ANNUAL CAMPAIGN

Seeks $3500 from Faculty and Student Body—To Begin On October 28

Hopeful of raising a total of $3500, the Y M C A is making final plans for its annual financial campaign which will begin on October 28.

Graduates Confer with President Hetzel, Coach Bezdek

NATORIUM TO COST MORE THAN $250,000

Officials Expect Completion of Pool in 1932—Receive Plan For New Structure

'Get in the swim' Such was the slogan adopted by representatives of the class of 1922 when they met last week with President Ralph D. Hetzel and Director of Athletics Hugo Bezdek to discuss possibilities of constructing a swimming pool at Penn State.

Members of that class in their senior year at College pledged a sum of money to be used for the erection of a pool as a class memorial. Up to the present more than half the amount pledged has been paid, and class members are now making an effort to complete this fund.

197 GRADUATES ENROLL

Large Representation from Other Colleges Continues Here

Announcing the admission of 197 students to the graduate school for the first semester of the 1922-23 academic year, Dr. Carl E. Matquardt, college examiner, stated that 65 percent graduated from other institutions.

TRANSFERS MAKE COLLEGE RECORD

Dr. Matquardt Announces 191 Students With Advanced Standing—Take None Under Condition

Another academic record was established at the College when Dr. Carl E. Matquardt, examiner, announced yesterday that 194 advanced students had transferred to Penn State from other colleges to complete their courses.

600 REGISTER FOR EXTENSION COURSE

Seranton School Leads Enrollment in 5 Branch Night Divisions Through-out State

More than six hundred students have enrolled in the five branch night schools opened throughout the state by the engineering extension department of the College, officials announced yesterday.

EDUCATORS VISIT PRESIDENT

While stopping here Friday, Dr. Leta D. Coffman, president of the University of Minnesota, and John A. H. Keith, State superintendent of public instruction, lunched with President Ralph D. Hetzel.

'Music Hobby,' Says Spaeth

Explains Past Work in Musical Field and Experience as Football Coach

'Music has always been my hobby,' Dr. Sigmund Spaeth, director of Community Concerts corporation, declared in an interview here last night.

DESCRIBES HAWAII VISIT

'Old Man B' Number Will Include Prof. Espenshade's Article

An article by Prof. A. Howay Espenshade, head of the English department now in Hawaii on a year's leave of absence, will be a feature of the second issue of the Old Man B'.

DAVEY PRESENTS PAPER AT METALS INSTITUTE

A study of crystal structure in rolled metals was the subject matter of a paper presented by Prof. Wherlock P. Davey before a meeting of the American Institute of Metals in Cleveland last week.

Room For Exhibits

A general museum will be located on the third floor with mine safety and gas testing laboratories, drafting room, reference library, and a large science classroom, which can be used as a meeting room for various societies.

'BROTHERHOOD COMING,' PROF. WHYTE DECLARES

'We can't keep world brotherhood from coming,' said Prof. James P. Whyte, of Bucknell university, while speaking to chapelgoers at the Dad's Day service Sunday.

M. E. HEAD CONFERS ON ELECTRIC REFRIGERATION

To investigate new safety measures for electric refrigerators, Prof. Arthur J. Wood, head of the department of mechanical engineering, conferred with officials of the National Electrical Manufacturers association and Bureau of Standards in Washington, D. C. last week.

LIBRARY OBTAINS 6000 NEW BOOKS THIS YEAR

Six thousand new books, including the latest edition of the Encyclopedia Britannica, have increased the number of volumes in the library to one hundred sixteen thousand, according to Miss Sabina W. Vought, librarian.

GRADUATES STUDY AT PITT

Penn State stands third in the list of 48 colleges and universities sending students to Pitt Law school, a report from that institution reveals.

AGRICULTURE INSTRUCTORS TO VISIT DAIRY EXHIBITION

Prof. Chester D. Dahle and Prof. Francis J. Doan, of the dairy husbandry, will leave next week to attend the dairy industries Exposition to be held at Toronto, Canada, October 21 and 22.

UNITED STATES OFFICIAL STUDIES CABBAGE HERE

To secure data on experiments conducted by the School of Agriculture together with the federal government, Dr. V. R. Dowell, of the United States Department of Agriculture, recently visited the college.

FEDERAL REPRESENTATIVES INSPECT COLLEGE ORCHARDS

Two representatives of the federal bureau of markets spent Thursday and Friday at the College orchards inspecting the grading into standard grades the fruit from the ten acre experimental plot.

PROF. KNANDEL WILL SPEAK

Prof. Herman C. Knandel, head of the poultry husbandry department of the College, will address the annual meeting of the New Jersey State Poultry association at Asbury Park, October 15 to 18.

THOMPSON TAKES POST AS ASSISTANT PROFESSOR

Penn State Graduate Returns To Lead Girls' Glee Club, College Orchestra

DAVEY PRESENTS PAPER AT METALS INSTITUTE

A study of crystal structure in rolled metals was the subject matter of a paper presented by Prof. Wherlock P. Davey before a meeting of the American Institute of Metals in Cleveland last week.